PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS
NO. 1 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VI, SECTION 7 Repeal of public campaign financing requirement Proposing the repeal of the provision in the State Constitution that requires public financing of campaigns of candidates for elective statewide office who agree to campaign spending limits. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
NO. 2 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE VII, SECTION 3 ARTICLE XII, SECTION 31 Homestead ad valorem tax credit for deployed military personnel Proposing an amendment to the State Constitution to require the legislature to provide an additional homestead property tax exemption by law for members of the United States military or military reserves, the United States Coast Guard or its reserves, or the Florida National Guard who receive a homestead exemption and were deployed in the previous year on active duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or Hawaii in support of military operations designated by the Legislature. The exempt amount will be based upon the number of days in the previous calendar year that the person was deployed on active duty outside the continental United States, Alaska, or Hawaii in support of military operations designated by the Legislature. The amendment is scheduled to take effect January 1, 2011. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
NO. 4 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE II, SECTION 7 Referenda required for adoption and amendment of local government comprehensive land use plans Establishes that before a local government may adopt a new comprehensive land use plan, or amend a comprehensive land use plan, the proposed plan or amendment shall be subject to vote of the electors of the local government by referendum, following preparation by the local planning agency, consideration by the governing body and notice. Provides definitions. The amendment's impact on local government expenditures cannot be estimated precisely. Local governments will incur additional costs due to the requirement to conduct referenda in order to adopt comprehensive plans or amendments thereto. The amount of such costs depends upon the frequency, timing and method of the referenda, and includes the costs of ballot preparation, election administration, and associated expenses. The impact on state government expenditures will be insignificant. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
NO. 5 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE III, SECTION 21 Standards for legislature to follow in legislative redistricting Legislative districts or districting plans may not be drawn to deny racial or language minorities the equal opportunity to participate in the political process and elect

representatives of their choice. Districts must be contiguous. Unless otherwise required, districts must be compact, as equal in population as feasible, and where feasible must make use of existing city, county and geographical boundaries. The fiscal impact cannot be determined precisely. State government and state courts may incur additional costs if litigation increases beyond the number or complexity of cases which would have occurred in the amendment's absence. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
NO. 6 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE III, SECTION 20 Standards for legislature to follow in congressional redistricting Congressional districts or districting plans may not be drawn to favor or disfavor an incumbent or political party. Districts shall not be drawn to deny racial or language minorities the equal opportunity to participate in the political process and elect representatives of their choice. Districts must be contiguous. Unless otherwise required, districts must be compact, as equal in population as feasible, and where feasible must make use of existing city, county and geographical boundaries. The fiscal impact cannot be determined precisely. State government and state courts may incur additional costs if litigation increases beyond the number or complexity of cases which would have occurred in the amendment's absence. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
NO. 8 CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT ARTICLE IX, SECTION 1 ARTICLE XII, SECTION 31 Revision of the class size requirements for public schools The Florida Constitution currently limits the maximum number of students assigned to each teacher in public school classrooms in the following grade groupings: for prekindergarten through grade 3, 18 students; for grades 4 through 8, 22 students; and for grades 9 through 12, 25 students. Under this amendment, the current limits on the maximum number of students assigned to each teacher in public school classrooms would become limits on the average number of students assigned per class to each teacher, by specified grade grouping, in each public school. This amendment also adopts new limits on the maximum number of students assigned to each teacher in an individual classroom as follows: for prekindergarten through grade 3, 21 students; for grades 4 through 8, 27 students; and for grades 9 through 12, 30 students. This amendment specifies that class size limits do not apply to virtual classes, requires the Legislature to provide sufficient funds to maintain the average number of students required by this amendment, and schedules these revisions to take effect upon approval by the electors of this state and to operate retroactively to the beginning of the 2010-2011 school year. <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO

NONBINDING STATEWIDE ADVISORY REFERENDUM
Balancing the Federal Budget A Nonbinding Referendum Calling for an Amendment to the United States Constitution In order to stop the uncontrolled growth of our national debt and prevent excessive borrowing by the Federal Government, which threatens our economy and national security, should the United States Constitution be amended to require a balanced federal budget without raising taxes? <input type="radio"/> YES <input type="radio"/> NO
PROPOSED COUNTY REFERENDA
COUNTYWIDE REFERENDUM QUESTION NO. 1 AD VALOREM TAX FOR LOCAL ECONOMIC INVESTMENT INITIATIVE To accelerate economic expansion, Flagler County proposes to conduct economic infrastructure, provide incentives for businesses, establish an industrial incubator center, and other economic activities. Should Flagler County be authorized to levy ad valorem taxes on all taxable property at a fixed rate of 0.25 mill for ten years and issue bonds over the life of the program not to exceed $5 million, bearing interest not exceeding the maximum lawful rate, to implement this economic initiative? <input type="radio"/> YES = For Ad Valorem Levy and Bonds <input type="radio"/> NO = Against Ad Valorem Levy and Bonds
REFERENDUM REGARDING TWO YEAR CONTINUATION OF 0.25 MILLS LEVY FOR SCHOOL DISTRICT'S CRITICAL OPERATING NEEDS Shall the 0.25 mills currently levied in the School District of Flagler County under the authority of Section 1011.71(3)(b), Florida Statutes, for critical operating needs including funds to preserve academic programs and retain highly qualified teachers, be continued for the 2011-2012 and 2012-2013 fiscal years? <input type="radio"/> YES = For continuing the 0.25 mills for two fiscal years <input type="radio"/> NO = Against continuing the 0.25 mills for two fiscal years
