

Biography

Captain David C. Sullivan, USN (Retired)

Born: New York, New York November 19, 1941

Grew up in Port Chester, New York

Graduated from Boston College in 1963, Masters Degree (National Security) Naval Postgraduate School, Monterey Ca. in 1976

Commissioned Ensign March 1964, AOC Program Pensacola, Florida
Twenty seven year career in the Navy, various Aircraft Carriers and Squadrons, Masters Degree from Naval Postgraduate School, became 1630 Intelligence Officer, Overseas Duty in Rota, Spain and as Commanding Officer of an Intelligence Facility in Japan, OSD Director of Special Programs at the Pentagon.

Following Military retirement in June 1990, Director for Hughes Electronics Corporation and then Boeing Space and Communications. Eleven year business career based in Washington, D.C. as Company Point of Contact involved with classified space, reconnaissance and communications programs.

In 2001 moved to Florida. Member St Augustine-Palm Coast Navy League Council, served as Council President and currently a National Director of the Navy League with special assignment as Florida Region Vice President for Legislative Affairs. Former Chairman of the Grand Haven CC Board of Governors and was the Chairman of the Flagler County Republican Executive Committee (FCREC) through 2014.

Married to Patricia Perry Sullivan who was born in Jacksonville, Florida. Son Commander Sullivan, a Naval Aviator, retired from the Navy in September 2014 and now lives in Virginia with wife Tricia and their three children and is a pilot for Delta Airlines. Daughter Leigh lives in Austin, Texas and works as a software quality control manager.

My current address: 99 Front Street, Palm Coast, Fl 32137