08/08/2016 17:25:11 Cangialosi, Andrew Narrative: I made contact with Richard Rubin who was obviously conducting a peaceful protest against a specific candidate for sheriff. The subject was advised why he was being stopped and was also advised per f.s.s 876.12 he was not authorized to conceal or hide his face. He was advised to uncover his face. The subject was very compliant and produced his Florida ID after he was advised all that information.

08/08/2016 19:32:29 Reynolds, Philip Narrative: I spoke to R. Rubin who advised he had no problem with the way the deputy handled the call as he was polite and professional. R. Rubin advised he would call the Sheriff due to this incident. I explained to R. Rubin the state statute regarding wearing of a mask and advised that his name was in the call as dispatch had added it in there because he wished to speak to a supervisor with his px # in the call. R. Rubin advised he had a covering on his face with sunglasses, but was not a mask. R.
08/08/2016 19:33:59 Reynolds, Philip Narrative: R. Rubin was advised that once the deputy left, case notes were added to summarize the events of the call. There was no further action taken or needed, end of case notes.
