3/15/2020 @ 7:42 p.m. / Narcotics / 2020-4888 / 700 block South Ocean Shore Boulevard - Officers were dispatched to the area reference a white male and white female who appeared to be under the influence while caring for a child. Investigation revealed the female was the child's mother and was not under the influence but the male (not related to the child) appeared to be. The female did not wish to have the male around her child and the male was offered a ride by law enforcement. While being allowed to sit in the back seat of the patrol vehicle, the male asked for his black bag and drink which were in the female's vehicle. In plain view inside the bag, officers observed a blue straw in a cigarette pack. Further investigation located narcotics inside the cigarette pack. See below for arrest information. Report made.
