6-13-18 @ 7:15 pm / Narcotics / 18-12747 / 312 Moody Boulevard (Dollar General) - Officers were dispatched to the above location reference a male passed out on the sidewalk and unresponsive to the RP's attempts to wake him. RP advised dispatch that there was a cell phone, cash and pills laying on the ground next to the male. Due to this information, Station 11 was asked to respond for a possible overdose. Medical units picked up numerous green pills (later identified as Xanax) and put them in an open pocket of his camera bag where other pieces of the pills could be visibly seen. Male's criminal history was checked and it was determined a Protection Order was in place out of Palm Beach County, where the male was not allowed to be in possession of firearms or ammunition. Male was taken into custody reference numerous charges, see below for more information. Report made.
