8/24/18 @ 3:48 p.m. / Physical Disturbance / 2018 -19164 / 100 Lambert Avenue: A physical altercation took place between two (2) females after one of the females brought up a subject matter that took place approximately 7 years ago. The altercation lasted approximately 3 minutes until both parties contacted enforcement. One female advised she had pain in her right eye and requested a medical unit. Medical personnel responded and gave the female ice per her request. The females were not in a relationship, related, or resided together. Neither female wished to pursue charges. One female left the scene and one remained. No charges completed. See report for further detail.

08/24/18 @ 4:45 p.m. / Marchman Act / 2018 - 19165 / 1612 South Ocean Shore Boulevard: Officers received a call for service of a heavily intoxicated female banging on a neighbors door. Upon officers arrival a female was observed struggling to stand on her own. It was determined that the female was extremely intoxicated while watching her six (6) year old son. The female was taken into custody for a Marchman Act and transported to Halifax Health Medical Center without incident. The child's grandfather arrived on scene to take custody of him. Department of Children and Families was contacted and advised they are making a report. See report for further detail.
