2/3/20 @ 9:25 a.m. / Larceny / 20-2060 / 411 South Central Avenue (Southeast Jewelry): Business owner reported two watches stolen from the store between 1/4 - 1/8. The watches were dropped off by the owners to have repairs made. The store does not have a functioning camera system at this time. Business owner had no other information and there is no suspect at this time.

Non-Part One Crimes: Missing Persons, Traffic Fatality, Use of Force, Weapons

2/3/20 @ 9:36 a.m. / Baker Act / 20-2061 / 25 Village Drive: Woman called advising her adult daughter was threatening to kill herself and armed with a razor blade. Upon arrival the subject was on the back porch, the razor visible beside her. She was aggressive towards the units on scene and had to be secured immediately. Subject was then transported to Halifax Medical Center,

2/3/20 @ 11:13 a.m. / Disturbance Domestic / 20-2063 / 211 3rd Street South Unit 2: Officers dispatched reference to a verbal disturbance between a male and female at this location. Upon making contact determined today's incident was just an argument and not criminal in nature. However it was also confirmed that there was an active no contact order against the male from an incident on 2/2. The male was taken into custody for violating that order. Male was intoxicated and needed medical clearance. Subject was transported to Advent for medical clearance, where he remains at this time. Overtime Officer called in to standby until his release. See subject information below.
