On behalf of the African American Cultural Society, Inc. (AACS), we appreciate your consideration of this grant proposal as well as the Leisure Services Advisory Committee and the Palm Coast City Council.

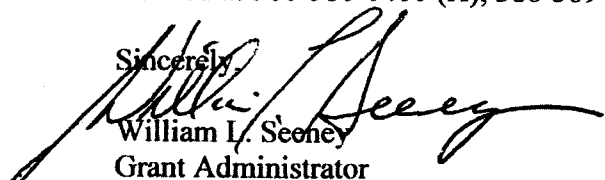

The AACS is celebrating 26 years of service and continues to provide to the community of Palm Coast, programs and activities that reveal the history and culture of people of African descent and provide factual information about the African Diaspora experience.

Based on our past years attendance and the growing interest of residents and other organizations to support AACS programs at both our Center and about the community, we anticipate an opportunity in the coming year to serve more in the community of Palm Coast particularly our youth. We plan to continue to present cultural exhibits, participate in town festivals and celebrations in addition to our center based programs and events.

The continued support of the City of Palm Coast as a partner in the perpetuation of our many programs is appreciated. We have provided all of the information required for the application process and have enclosed the required original application and a computer disk copy. We are once again soliciting grant funds to support the "AACS Cultural Arts Series" referenced in our Financial Assistance Application.

Thank you for your review and consideration. Should you need to contact me, I can be reached at 386-586-1411 (H), 386-569-1212 (C) or at the AACS Center, 386-447-7030.

Describe the purpose of the organization: The African American Cultural Society, Inc. was established in 1991 to preserve and perpetuate the cultural heritage of the African Diaspora through educational, artistic, intellectual and social activities and services deemed to be in the best interest of the entire community. In doing so, the African American Cultural Society has often been recognized for its contributions in serving the community through its programs and events that perpetuate and embellish its mission.

Describe the purpose of the program being considered for funding: The “AACCS Annual Cultural Arts Series” consists of programs that educate, enlighten, enrich and entertain the City of Palm Coast Community on the unique arts and history of the African American community and African Diaspora. The following programs are included and require Grant assistance: (Continued on separate attachment)

If awarded, describe how the City of Palm Coast’s financial assistance will be used: The Grant will be spread across the four (4) programs in the following manner: Kwanzaa Program: Cost of materials, promotional materials and performer/facilitator fees. Youth Reality Program: Cost of materials (e.g. Stage Props, Costumes, Reference Sources, etc.), promotional materials, a month long AACS Center Exhibit Display: Cost to lease panel displays and the Juneteenth Celebration: Cost of materials, facilitator fees, promotional materials. See Operating Budget Attachments for each Program.

Explain why funding requested from the City is essential for development of the program: The AACCS Operational Budget is not sufficient to provide full funding for the stated program requirements. Although we encourage donations and contributions, they fall short of enabling the AACCS to sometimes present a full program of the event and at times we may have to defer the program for that year.

“CULTURAL ARTS SERIES” DESCRIPTION - 2017/2018

KWANZAA PROGRAM – offers the general public an opportunity to be informed on the history and cultural significance of this African American Holiday Season that celebrates family, community and culture. It is celebrated from December 26 thru January 1 and it takes its name from the first harvest celebrations of Africa. The seven days are highlighted by ceremonies depicting seven communitarian African values, commonly referred to as the “Seven Principles.” Namely, Umoja (Unity), Kujichagulia (Self-Determination), Ujima (Collective Work and Responsibility), Ujamaa (Cooperative Economics), Nia (Purpose), Kuumba (Creativity), and Imani (Faith). Our program generally encompasses 1-2 days but includes the celebration of each of the seven principles. This takes place with the tenants of each principle being explained by speakers (in-house and guest performers) supplemented with appropriate props and exhibits. All of the events take place at the AACS Center on US#1, Palm Coast. (Public attendance is expected to be 150-175.) Planning is now underway to format this year’s program. Budget requirements are attached.

YOUTH BLACK HISTORY REALITY PROGRAM – enables the youth of our community to study and reenact significant prominent African Americans and their contributions to American history in a theatrical program format. They dress in costume and use various props to highlight their presentation of that person. A lot of rehearsing and the time of AACS volunteers are required to prepare for this event. A guest performer may also be engaged to further enhance the program. This program is offered to the general public at the AACS Center, US#1, Palm Coast. It is generally held the third Sunday in February (Black History Month) from 4pm to 7pm and the program generally exceeds “capacity turnout” from the community (over 250). To see our youth extolling the virtues of various African American heroes they have been taught to know or being exposed to for the first time is very memorable to everyone. The youth are recruited from our schools, churches, clubs and AACS member families. Because of the size of the audience, a light fare is offered at the end for fellowship and cordiality. Budget requirements are attached.

AACS CENTER EXHIBIT DISPLAY- Leasing a professional Traveling Exhibit display with approximately 10 panels to highlight African American contributions to American culture. Each panel tells a story on a famous historical African American through photos and written narratives and is supported by DVD/Audio commentary. The exhibit will be displayed over a Four (4) week period during February - March 2018. The exhibit will be open to the public (donations only) and special arrangements made with cultural groups in the school system and other organizations will be extended. This is a first time venture for the AACS to present an extended program to the community that allows flexibility for viewing over a period of time. The AACS plans to expand its normal operations to provide access to view the exhibit on a daily basis. Projected attendance is expected to exceed 700.

JUNETEENTH PROGRAM – is an indoor/outdoor program at the AACS Center set in a festival style format to commemorate the ending of slavery in the United States. On June 19, 1865, the Union soldiers landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and all slaves were now free, even though this was two and a half years after President Lincoln’s Emancipation Proclamation. Our program includes interactive children activities as well as informational speakers on the occasion, music performances, exhibits, artifacts, artwork, books, and light food sales. The program is held over 1-2 days and attracts a sizable following from community patrons and members. (Public attendance is expected to be 150-200) “Juneteenth” has gained in popularity nationwide and is a program that must be featured as a National African American Historical event. Budget requirements are attached.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL SOCIETY, INC

GENERAL STATEMENT

The Cultural Arts Programs held at the AACS Center are always open to the general public with no admission charge. Grant monies and donations, not operating funds, generally support these programs. That is why grant funds are so essential for the delivery of these and other cultural programs to our community. It is also important to note that most of the African American and African Diaspora Cultural Programs presented by the AACS are the only venue in the Flagler County area to offer these presentations to the community.

Lift Every Voice and Sing (Negro National Anthem)

Lift every voice and sing, Till earth and heaven ring, Ring with the harmonies of Liberty; Let our rejoicing rise, High as the listening skies, Let it resound loud as the rolling sea.

Sing a song full of the faith that the dark past has taught us, Sing a song full of the hope that the present has brought us; Facing the rising sun of our new day begun, Let us march on till victory is won.

Stony the road we trod, Bitter the chast'ning rod, Felt in the days when hope unborn had died; Yet with a steady beat, Have not our weary feet,
Come to the place for which our fathers sighed?

We have come over a way that with tears has been watered, We have come, treading our path through the blood of the slaughtered, Out from the gloomy past, Till now we stand at last Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.

God of our weary years, God of our silent tears, Thou who has brought us thus far on the way; Thou who has by Thy might, Led us into the light, Keep us forever in the path, we pray.

Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee, Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee, Shadowed beneath thy hand, May we forever stand, True to our God, True to our native land.

PURPOSE OF THE

YOUTH BLACK HISTORY REALITY PROGRAM

Over 14 years ago, a seed was planted in the mind of AACCS member Jeanette Wheeler to involve our youth in an active way of increasing their knowledge of African American history and their contributions to the world. Mrs. Wheeler nourished the seed of thought, and enriched the idea through involvement of others to bring the idea into fruition, a reality for all to learn and enjoy! As a result of her vision, the African American Cultural Society's Youth Reality Program celebrates a legacy of active educational learning involving hundreds of youth through cooperative parents, community and organizational support. In 2010, the Youth Reality Program Committee implemented a scholarship program to further support post-secondary educational goals of participating youth.

 Here now we stand at last
 Where the white gleam of our bright star is cast.*

*God of our weary years,
 God of our silent tears,
 Thou who has brought us thus far on the way;
 Thou who has by Thy might,
 Led us into the light,
 Keep us forever in the path, we pray.
 Lest our feet stray from the places, our God, where we met Thee,
 Lest our hearts, drunk with the wine of the world, we forget Thee,
 Shadowed beneath thy hand,
 May we forever stand,
 True to our God,
 True to our native land.*

In August, I want to explore a consistent theme in three different films: What status does a person who is neither "white" [beige] nor "black" [brown] have in a racist society that divides its citizenry by skin color? The first film is from Apartheid South Africa; the second, from the 1930s US; and the third, from England of the 18th century.

August 3, 2017—Skin--This is a 2008 film. "Skin" is one of the most moving stories to emerge from apartheid South Africa: Sandra Laing is a black child born in the 1950s to white Afrikaners, unaware of their black ancestry. Her parents are rural shopkeepers serving the local black community, who lovingly bring her up as their 'white' little girl. But at the age of ten, Sandra is driven out of white society. The film follows Sandra's thirty-year journey from rejection to acceptance, betrayal to reconciliation, as she struggles to define her place in a changing world - and triumphs against all odds. This quietly intelligent drama, based on a true story, finds a new way of dramatizing race, class, and society in apartheid-era South Africa, and it boasts fine performances by Sophie Okonedo, Sam Neill and Alice Krige as a family whose refusal to conform was either heroic or tragi-comic or merely dysfunctional. Or perhaps all three.

August 10, 2017—God's Stepchildren. Oscar Micheaux's exploration of the person between the color lines is perhaps the saddest of all three films. God's Step Children is a 1938 American drama film directed by Oscar Micheaux and starring Jacqueline Lewis. The film is inspired by a combination of elements shared from two previous released Hollywood productions: Imitation of Life and These Three. A young black woman arrives at the home of a black widow, Mrs. Saunders, and begs her to look after her light-skinned baby, whom she cannot afford to feed. At first, she says this is temporary while she looks for work; but as she leaves, she declares she will never be back. Mrs. Saunders pledges to raise the "poor little darling" as her own, alongside her own son Jimmie. She names her Naomi. And Naomi's tragic life is what the film focuses on. Micheaux became more controversial as his career developed. So, God's Step Children has both been hailed as a masterpiece and denounced as stereotypical and racially denigrating.

August 17 is the third Thursday, when no film is scheduled.

August 24, 2017—Belle. This film is inspired by the true story of Dido Elizabeth Belle, the illegitimate mixed-race daughter of Admiral Sir John Lindsay. Raised by her aristocratic great-uncle Lord Mansfield and his wife, Belle's lineage affords her certain privileges, yet her status prevents her from the traditions of noble social standing. While her cousin Elizabeth chases suitors for marriage, Belle is left on the sidelines wondering if she will ever find love. After meeting an idealistic young vicar's son bent on changing society, he and Belle help shape Lord Mansfield's role as Lord Chief Justice to end slavery in England.

August 31 is the fifth Thursday, when also no film is scheduled.

I AM NOT YOUR NEGRO

September 7, 2017—I Am Not Your Negro—James Baldwin: “What white people have to do, is try and find out in their own hearts why it was necessary to have a nigger in the first place, because I’m not a nigger, I’m a man, but if you think I’m a nigger, it means you need it.” And, “The story of the Negro in America is the story of America, and it is not a pretty story.”—New York Times: “At the heart of ‘I Am Not Your Negro’ is Baldwin’s never-completed project about the civil rights movement and three of his assassinated friends: Medgar Evers, Malcolm X and the Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Tentatively titled ‘Remember This House,’ that project would have found Baldwin bearing witness to the lives and turbulent times of his three friends. (He died in 1987.) The documentary resurrects Baldwin’s unrealized venture, primarily using his own words to create a portrait of one man’s confrontation with a country that, murder by murder, as he once put it, ‘devastated my universe.’”

September 14, 2017—The House on Coco Road. Set amidst the Grenada Revolution, THE HOUSE ON COCO ROAD documents one family's flight from racial tensions in 1980's Oakland, California, only to find themselves settled directly in the path of a U.S. military invasion. Firsthand accounts from activists Angela Davis, Fania Davis and Fannie Haughton weave together director Damani Baker's family portrait of utopian dreams, resistance and civil unrest with a film score composed by music luminary Meshell Ndegeocello. Los Angeles Times: “Baker weaves together 16-mm home movies, archival news and footage he shot during a return trip to the island in 1999, with contemporary interviews to unpack his childhood memories of the family’s short, violent experience in Grenada. The film effectively positions the invasion as an attempt to destabilize revolutionary black leadership in the area, in much the same way the U.S. did with the Black Panthers.”

September 21 is the third Thursday, when no film is scheduled.

September 28, 2017—Daughters of the Dust. Languid look at the Gullah culture of the sea islands off the coast of South Carolina and Georgia where African folk-ways were maintained well into the 20th Century and was one of the last bastions of these mores in America. Set in 1902. Like August Wilson speaks of bones walking across the ocean in “Joe Turner,” so this film has at its heart the story of the Igbu who locked hands and walked back home across the ocean. One finds oneself somewhere between myth and reality in this hauntingly beautiful film. Julie Dash underwent many hardships in bringing the story to the silver screen. She had severe budget constraints, filmed in mosquito and insect infested areas, was delayed by Hurricane Hugo, sidetracked by sudden and violent sandstorms, and was forced to decide to either have a child or make the movie. In the end, she chose to give birth and nurture the story Daughters of the Dust and the result is an unconventional masterpiece.

What is a Volunteer?

by Stephanie E. Robinson,
 AACS Silver Lifetime Member

But what is a volunteer? A volunteer is a person who performs a service willingly and without pay. Volunteering takes up our time, energy, and sometimes our money. It can be hard work. It can find us doing and seeing new things, which can be challenging and even a little scary.

So why does anyone ever volunteer? Volunteering is good for you! Are you thinking, "What's in it for me?" The answer is plenty!

Here are some of the things you might get in return for volunteering: making new friends; feeling needed and important; feeling satisfaction at getting things done and helping others; using your mind, body, and creativity; getting active and healthier; relieving stress; fighting boredom; spending time doing what you really care about; having fun!

It has been said that people who become volunteers usually lead richer, happier, and more satisfying lives than those who don't volunteer.

But remember, volunteers don't get paid, not because they're worthless, it is because they are priceless!

Describe the Purpose of the Organization

The Choral Arts Society was founded by, and is still directed, by Cheryl Robinson. The Choral Arts Society has been in existence since 1999. We are a community organization open to all qualified musicians. The members are dedicated musicians who participate because of their love of choral music. They purchase their own music, and pay annual membership dues.

Our board members provide various talents beyond music to include banking, business, accounting, education, medicine and technology which provides excellent inside management for our group.

All concerts are held in St. Thomas Episcopal Church, and are open to the public, without charge (however a free will donation is requested). Donations, dues from members of the chorus, together with the Grant from the City of Palm Coast, a Grant from Flagler County and Grants from the state of Florida are the organizations sole sources of revenue to keep the organization operating.

Our purpose is two-fold: 1) to enrich the cultural life of our residents, by bringing the best choral music to Palm Coast and the Flagler County area, and 2) to encourage the pursuit of music in our young people through annual scholarship. The Choral Arts Society provides a $500 annual scholarship to one or more college bound student(s) to study music performance and/or education depending upon our financial ability. At the present time we are providing three such scholarships to Flagler County recipients who routinely perform at one or more of our concerts each year.

Describe the purpose of the Program being considered for funding

The Choral Arts Society performs three concerts during the year, in December, May and July. Previous year's attendance for the 3 concerts was 1339 persons. The concerts for fiscal 2016-2017 were held on December 2 and December 4, 2016; May 19 and May 21, 2017; and July 4, 2017. The December concert ushers in the Christmas season; the May concert is a selection of Broadway stage pieces; and the July concert celebrates the holiday with patriotic favorites. As indicated, there are two performances of each concert, with the exception of the one performance on July 4th. We also perform at the 9/11 Heroes Memorial Park event each year.

If awarded, describe how the City of Palm Coast's Financial Assistance will be used:

The funds from the grant will be used to offset the cost of printing newsletters, programs, postage, advertising and promotion, and creation, enhancement, and maintenance of our website.

Explain why funding requested from the City is essential for development of the program.

The financial assistance will help us to continue the necessary promotion of our group. The grant from the City of Palm Coast is a vital and integral element in helping us meet our expenses to continue to offer these wonderful cultural events for the City. It is even more vital now, as our free-will donations received fluctuate over the years.

Choral Arts Society

2017 CONCERT SCHEDULE

THE CHORAL ARTS SOCIETY

Founded in 1999 by Artistic Director Cheryl Robinson, The Choral Arts Society (CAS) is one of the most exciting choruses in north central Florida. Members come from a wide variety of careers such as medicine, banking, music, business, accounting and education. All share a common goal of choral music excellence.

Members of the CAS work hard to continue funding renewable scholarships for local high school graduates who go on to study music performance/teaching in college.

The CAS presents three concerts each year, in Spring, July and December. The Spring Concert presents music from the Broadway stage; on the 4th of July, CAS celebrates with a concert of patriotic favorite and the final concert of the year ushers in the Christmas season.

You can make an individual or a business gift to the CAS using the form on the opposite side.

Individual donors can contribute directly to the CAS and support the cultural arts they enjoy and believe in.

Business sponsors can enhance their image in the community through financial support of the CAS.

The Choral Arts Society will reflect the generosity of donors in its concert programs.

CITY REPERTORY THEATRE—Grant Application

1. Describe the purpose of the organization.

We created City Repertory Theatre (CRT) to be a unique resource to our community, offering alternative entertainment. Our plays and youth programs are intended to provoke both the mind and the spirit, while providing excellent opportunities for serious actors to pursue their art. Further, we explore new ideas in the community and create a forum for discussion. Our summer workshops give students access to intensive training, culminating in public performances. We are in the process of creating a school that will offer training year round.

2. Describe the program being considered for funding and its purpose. Include event date(s), description, location and anticipated attendance at each presentation. Explain why the program being offered is important to Palm Coast residents and visitors.

As we have for the past six years, we will present a challenging program of plays and musicals, combining new, cutting-edge works with familiar classics, programming works that other local theaters can't or won't attempt, and always keeping in mind our goals.

The 2017-18 season will include:

I AM A CAMERA - September 22-25,

As Berlin once again becomes Europe's center for cutting-edge art, we present this classic about Berlin in the 30's. This play, based on the Christopher Isherwood book of the same name, introduced the theater to Sally Bowles and the world of CABARET.

[title of show] - October 12-22

The Mickey and Judy "let's put on a show" spirit is hilariously updated for the new millennium as four great performers create a new musical right before your very eyes. Winner of the 2006 Obie award for Best Musical.

City Repertory Theatre, Inc.
160 Cypress Point Pkwy
Suite B206
Palm Coast, FL 32164

OTHER DESERT CITIES - November 10-19

Secrets and lies within an American family are just what we all need for Christmas, and we get them from Pulitzer and Tony-nominated playwright, Jon Robin Baitz.

SONGS FOR A NEW WORLD – Jan 12 - 28, 2018

The opening song sets the stage for the 14 mini-musicals that follow - all about people at the breaking point. Despite having a cast of only four people, this vocally demanding score features a wide range of styles including pop, jazz and gospel. Tony Award winner Jason Robert Brown made his first New York outing with this 1995 work.

MACBETH – Feb. 22-25, 2018

Shakespeare's most powerful drama comes to the CRT season as part of a new collaboration with the Palm Coast Arts Foundation and its Shakespeare in the Park series. Spurred by a vision and unending ambition, Macbeth dares to upset the "divine right of kings" and reaps the terrible consequences. This classic tale of the thirst for power will be performed outdoors under a tent in Town Center.

BLOOD KNOT – March 23-April 1, 2018

When does appearance matter more than loyalty, family and tradition? Athol Fugard's 1966 play is a searing drama of two siblings, only one of whom can pass for white in apartheid-ridden South Africa. Fugard's vision of life in his homeland cost him his South African passport and launched his international career.

AGNES OF GOD - May 4-13, 2018

Innocence, belief, and the power of the mind to deceive shape this powerful American play by John Pielmeier about the murder trial of a cloistered nun. Will the truth "set her free" or destroy the faith that has built her life?

Children's Workshop production, TBA – July 2018

City Repertory Theatre, Inc.
160 Cypress Point Pkwy
Suite B206
Palm Coast, FL 32164

All productions, except Macbeth, will be presented in our intimate jewel-box theatre at 160 Cypress Point Parkway. Our infinitely flexible performance space allows us to reconfigure our playing area to fit each individual show, with seating varying from 50 to 75 accordingly. The length of each run will depend on the production, from 4 to 12 performances each.

Macbeth will be presented as part of the new Shakespeare in the Park series – a collaborative project with the Palm Coast Arts Foundation. A tent will be installed over the new PCAF Center’s slab to host the four performances.

Our theatre is unique not merely in Palm Coast, but in all Central Florida. No other theatre in this region presents a greater diversity of material, including many regional premieres, with as fine a company of actors. Although we remain technically a community theatre since none of our actors are paid, an impressive number of our performers and directors have significant professional credits. They choose to work at CRT because of our challenging plays and our dedication to quality.

Many local audience members return show after show; they tell us they rearrange their travel schedules to avoid missing anything we present. We continue to use our marketing efforts to attract tourists and regional visitors to our theater and to Palm Coast, bringing regular customers from both the Daytona Beach and St. Augustine areas to many productions each year.

3. If awarded, describe how the City of Palm Coast’s financial assistance will be used and why funding from the City is essential for development of the program.

CRT has always been supported primarily by its subscribers and audience members. With little government funding for the arts remaining, we have had to rely on our supporters as well as our own volunteer staff and Board of Directors. Fundraising efforts this year will include special performances, online efforts and direct mail to supporters as well as applications for grants to the State of Florida and private foundations.

We are particularly proud of our new partnership with the Palm Coast Arts Foundation. We will be leaving our intimate home for theater on a grand scale. Our production of Macbeth will require recruiting additional actors from throughout the region, in addition to increased technical requirements and increased funding, but it will grow our outreach and our ability to serve Palm Coast.

Illuminating Dark Corners

My friend Marilyn Bergman, the lyricist whose timeless classics include The Way We Were and You Don't Send Me Flowers, once said to me that the purpose of art is to shine a light into life's dark corners.

I witnessed the truth of that statement when I recently met with partners John Sbordone and Diane Ellertsen of the City Repertory Theatre, or CRT, as it is familiarly known. From its earliest inception, CRT has been breaking rules, seizing upon challenges and bringing a kind of theater to our sleepy town that not only entertains, but informs, illuminates and helps to deepen our life experience.

That's not to say it can't be lighthearted and fun too. I was lucky enough to attend a 'brush' rehearsal of the CRT's season opener, You're a Good Man, Charlie Brown. I learned that a brush rehearsal is what it sounds like – brushing up some of the bits of the show. I sat through about six or seven musical numbers, grinning like a little kid and thoroughly enjoying myself. Imagine me, an audience of one, and they all sang to me. It was delightful. And so was the show, which finished its run just before Hurricane Matthew had his way with our town.

At CRT, everybody wears at least two hats. Singer Laniece Fagundes as Lucy Van Pelt has a voice as rich and creamy as chocolate pudding. But she was also the Musical Director, and for this production had the challenging task of adapting the music originally written for a male actor to the lovely contralto of Jamie Irvine, CRT's 'female' Charlie.

Laniece's husband Josh Fagundes played Snoopy, and while I was there he tinkered with the set, moving one riser a millimeter here and there until he was satisfied. Paul van de Graaf played Schroeder and was also the head of Sound Engineering, while Caitlin Eriser performed as Patti and acted as the Lighting Director. For this show, the actors also made their own costumes.

John Sbordone, a Brooklynite, has a doctorate in Theater History and Criticism of Theater, and spent most of his career teaching. When he retired in 2004, this father of two came to Palm Coast for its schools and its golf.

Diane Ellertsen grew up on Long Island where she studied dance and music, eventually performing and choreographing for a number of theaters. She and her husband ran a small theater in Boston called the Theater Loft, leaving there in 1988 to move to Palm Coast where her mother, Phyllis Rotunno, was an original founder of the Little Theater of Palm Coast.

John and Diane met in November of 2005 through a mutual acquaintance involved with The Sound of Music for the Little Theater. They worked together for over five years, then sensing a need for more options in our growing community, they opened CRT in the former Hollingsworth Gallery space. Their first production, in the summer of 2011, was the award-winning Rockabilliewillie, "a bastardization of the bard, conceived in chaos and dedicated to the proposition that 'all's well that ends'", and written in 1988 by Sbordone himself.

CRT is a small venue that seats just 50 people. The newest additions are risers that afford every patron a clear view of the stage area. The challenge of a smallish hall becomes obvious when you're sitting in the audience, and you wonder if it can achieve the grand feeling many shows require. (The answer, by the way, is yes.) The biggest rewards, however, are the intimacy and immediacy that draw you in and make you feel part of the action.

John Sbordone

For example, I went to see Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dream Coat there a while ago and was really impressed with the staging. The sizeable cast was at times woven into the audience, suspended by poles placed strategically around the theater. The music flowed over, around and through us, and we were a part of it. It was magical. But just when the final rousing number came, the electric piano gave out! Coming to the rescue, Sbordone stage-whispered "a capella" and amazingly the entire cast sang on-key and without accompaniment. That was even more magical. I could not have hoped for a richer or more exciting conclusion to a wonderful show.

Both Diane and John are anxious to give credit to the people who have donated time and money, and their skills too, to making the theater a success. "We couldn't do this alone," Diane said, "It takes a large number of people to keep a theater alive."

Diane Ellertsen

When I looked at the list of this year's shows, I had to agree that they were on track.

Charlie Brown is an all-family musical with an endearing, imaginative look into the mind of a sweet, albeit imperfect, child. In November there was a staged reading of The Rainmaker, which had its first Broadway run in the 1950s and is now considered a minor American classic.

In December we will be treated to The Search for Signs of Intelligent Life in the Universe, written by Jane Wagner and performed by the brilliant Lily Tomlin in 1977. It was turned into a film in 1991. Originally controversial because of its feminist slant, it seems particularly appropriate today.

January brings us Next to Normal, the 2009 rock musical about a woman who struggles with bipolar disorder and the effects it has on her family. Unusual subject matter for a musical, it won a Pulitzer Prize and the Tony for Best Original Score.

In February, Love Letters, a special Valentine's event, brings three different couples to the stage over three nights. Opening on March 19th is The Waltz of the Toreadors by Jean Anouilh, a farce about a General, his mad wife and a long-lost love. And closing out the season in May is John and Jen, a musical that tracks the lives of two people from childhood through adolescence and beyond.

Shining a light into dark corners for all to witness, CRT is indeed a valuable asset to our community and to the arts. †

Education plays a big role in CRT. They bring students from area high schools to workshops and productions, and in addition to performing, students are taught skills like lighting, design and sound. "As students learn new skills," Diane pointed out, "they grow in confidence and maturity."

Asked about the choice of shows, John said, "Diane and I continue to search for shows that startle, probe and titillate your imagination."

CITY REPERTORY THEATRE

'Next to Normal' opens Sunday in Palm Coast

Prize-winning musical explores bipolar disorder, family dynamics

By Danielle Anderson
Correspondent

In an ever-changing world, "normal" is a relative concept, one that's tackled gamely in the rock musical "Next to Normal," opening Sunday at the City Repertory Theatre in Palm Coast.

The Pulitzer Prize-winning play focuses on the challenges faced by members of the Goodman family as they try to find a "new normal" after tragedy creates a seemingly irreparable schism between them.

Seen through the eyes of lead character Diana Goodman, played by Julia Davidson Truilo, songs such as "Who's Crazy, My Pharmacist and I" delve into the world of a family balancing mental disorder, substance abuse, tragedy, and suburban boredom.

Truilo, who has appeared in numerous productions throughout the region, said she is personally unfamiliar with the behaviors associated with bipolar disorder and relied on research and the experiences of others to shape her character, who at one moment is a sex-crazed housewife and at another, spaces out and spills sandwich fixings on the floor.

"Diana has been dealing with her bipolar diagnosis for nearly 20 years and she is at her wit's end in a lot of ways," said Truilo. "It's challenging as an actor, because it's nothing that I've experienced. At base, she's a person with a family she loves and I can certainly relate to that."

While the story offers moments of heart-wrenching clarity — the mother-son dance is a highlight — strong vocal performances by the seasoned actors, including Chelsea Jo Conard in the role of the intelligent yet overlooked daughter Natalie, who shares her angst in a duet with Stetson music major Max

Wolf during "Superboy and the Invisible Girl," speaks to the high level of talent drawn to the Palm Coast area by the small independent repertory theater.

Show selections for each season often come from the CRT's actors, and artistic director John Sbordone finds that high-caliber actors enjoy expanding their range with challenging roles like those in "Next to Normal."

"The better actors want to be in the more difficult shows that stretch them," said Sbordone. "The material and the music is very challenging," he said about the rock musical. "We've done some marvelous shows and this is one of the best we've done here."

Daughter Natalie (Chelsea Jo Conard) and her would-be boyfriend, Henry (Beau Wade), learn that love comes in many forms in the City Repertory Theatre performance of "Next to Normal," set to open Jan. 15 in Palm Coast.

"It's vocally very demanding. It's a rock score but it's not a basic rock band score, it's very complex," said Truilo, emphasizing that the show's story line is woven into the musical harmonies.

"One of the messages of the show is (Diana) trying to normalize herself is not necessarily the best thing for her or the people she's with," Truilo said. "Not that she shouldn't address her issues, but sometimes we get into a place where we think normal is just one little square. You have to learn to deal with the dynamic and yourself. It's not necessarily in a square box."

"Next to Normal" written by Brian Yorkey with music by Tom Kitt, opened on Broadway in 2009 to accolades, picking up three Tony Awards in 2009 for Best Original Score, Best Orchestration and Best Performance by a Leading Actress before receiving the Pulitzer Prize in 2010.

Abused women find their voices in 'Languages'

CRT production will be staged 1 night only

By Danielle Anderson
Correspondent

As the play opens, Phillipa Rose, Evelyn Lynam, Debra Laudat and Denise Rose scream four derogatory words for "woman" that have the power to diminish and destroy self esteem. It's a harsh wake-up call — and a key tenet in "The Languages of Abuse."

Known for bringing challenging and often taboo subjects to the stage, the City Repertory Theatre will present a one-night-only performance of the controversial play based on the poems and stories of women and abuse.

As part of The Forgotten Women Project, the short pieces tell stories in rapid-fire fashion through the eyes of victim and attacker and how society addresses mental, physical, sexual and emotional abuse.

Project founder and author Marjorie (Bostwick) Phoenix reads excerpts from her memoir, "Who Taking on the challenge of portraying true stories of abused women, Debra Laudat, Evelyn Lynam, Denise Rose, Kathryn Weed, script editor Susan Slater and Phillipa Rose will stage "The Language of Abuse" for one night only at City Repertory Theatre on Feb. 24 to benefit The Forgotten Women Project.

"Society needs to recognize that they are victims and talk about it openly instead of making it something that's too offensive or frightening to bring to the light."

During the reading of "Mr. Dysfunctional," Phillipa Rose is part of a trio channeling the attacker and a pattern of violence from which it can take victims many years to escape.

"A couple of the characters I'm reading tell more about the attacker and how a lot of people are able to see it coming, the violence in their eyes, but they (the attacker) don't see themselves as a bad person," said Rose. "From the way this is written, I don't feel there is any remorse. It's not about being sorry for hitting you; it's about 'I'm sorry I'm going to lose the one person I have control over' and so they repeat the cycle over and over."

Sbordone said he agreed to help stage "Languages of Abuse" as a fundraiser for The Forgotten Women Project.

"This is to help the Forgotten Women Project raise funds by putting together a show based on materials by women who have suffered some form of abuse," he said. "Anything I can do to help raise money for a project that is this worthy, I will do."

with authenticity."

Sbordone is the father of three girls, including two teen-age daughters. He finds the subject matter relevant and the project worthy of space on the CRT stage. One moment in time can have a lifelong impact and for General Saint Pe, a single dance with the beautiful Ghislaine 17 years earlier is seared into his memory and his heart.

So goes "The Waltz of the Toreadors," as the general writes his memoirs with the help of the young and dashing Gaston, while his wife, a long-time invalid, needles him for attention.

Plot twists, near-death experiences and the realization that while some memories grow sweeter with time, reality is not quite always so kind, and this French farce offers the kind of theater experience for which City Repertory Theatre in Palm Coast has become known.

A special opening is planned for 2 p.m. Sunday, March 19. Tickets are $30 and include a reception fundraiser for CRT with wine and tasty tidbits.

The Tony Award-nominated piece by Jean Anouilh features the story of Monsieur and Madame Saint Pe and unravels the motivation behind the unconsummated relationship between the general and his love interest, Ghislaine, who has come to reveal his wife's desire for another man.

Directed by John Sbordone, CRT's co-founder and artistic director, the cast includes Anne Kraft as Madame Saint Pe and John Pope as General Saint Pe.

"It inverts what we normally think would happen in the life of a lascivious old man who seems to be getting everything he wants and ultimately gets nothing," said Sbordone. "It's a comedy but it's got some meat to it, which is fun."

"The Waltz of the Toreadors" offers a comedic look at the absurd things people will do in the name of love. Starring Anne Kraft, John Pope, Beau Wade, Evelyn Lynam and others, the show is set to open March 19 at City Repertory Theatre in Palm Coast. [NEWS-TRIBUNE PHOTO/DANIELLE ANDERSON]

For Pope, who plays the conflicted general, the story holds something for everyone.

"He's a lecherous old, retired general and he has resolved himself to having to take care of his sick wife but he's madly in love with a woman he met 17 years ago," said Pope. "Men always have an eye for young ladies and whether they allow themselves to be distracted, it's interesting in this particular character that he has remained faithful to his wife except for this one woman. I think people will find themselves in this play."

Kraft, a professional actress, has yet to take on a character quite like Madame Saint Pe and is enjoying the experience.

"Madame Saint Pe has endured marriage with him all these years, not out of loyalty but out of the law, I suppose, because she's taken lovers after being disappointed in him and what she assumes is him having taken his own lovers, so she uses an illness, which comes and goes at will," said Kraft.

"It is a French farce that is very reflective of life," she said. "What you take away is it's not always that pretty but it's life, and either we live with it or we die of it."

City Repertory Theatre 2016-2017 Season

The season will open with YOU'RE A GOOD MAN CHARLIE BROWN, the eternally popular musical for family fun, based on Charles Schultz' immortal characters. CHARLIE BROWN plays September 9-October 2, 2016.

Next is THE MYSTERY OF IRMA VEP, an amazing send-up of old black-and-white horror films, with 2 actors playing a myriad of roles, all within the same twisted family. VEP comes to us from the acclaimed Ridiculous Theatre Company of NYC, and will be performed October 21-30, 2016.

CRT follows with THE RAINMAKER, the classic American play about love and awakening. In the rural west during the Depression, a family struggles with drought, both physical and emotional, until a larger-than-life wanderer arrives to slake their thirst. You'll see THE RAINMAKER November 13-20, 2016.

On to THE SEARCH FOR SIGNS OF INTELLIGENT LIFE IN THE UNIVERSE. This early feminist masterpiece was written as a solo show for Lily Tomlin. CRT reimagines it as a vehicle for 3 great local artists, adding more talent but losing none of the bite and wit. Search for SIGNS December 2-10, 2016.

The new year begins with the groundbreaking musical NEXT TO NORMAL, winner of both the Pulitzer Prize and the Tony Award. NORMAL deals with a dysfunctional family, mental illness, and the possibility of change and reaches CRT January 15-29, 2017.

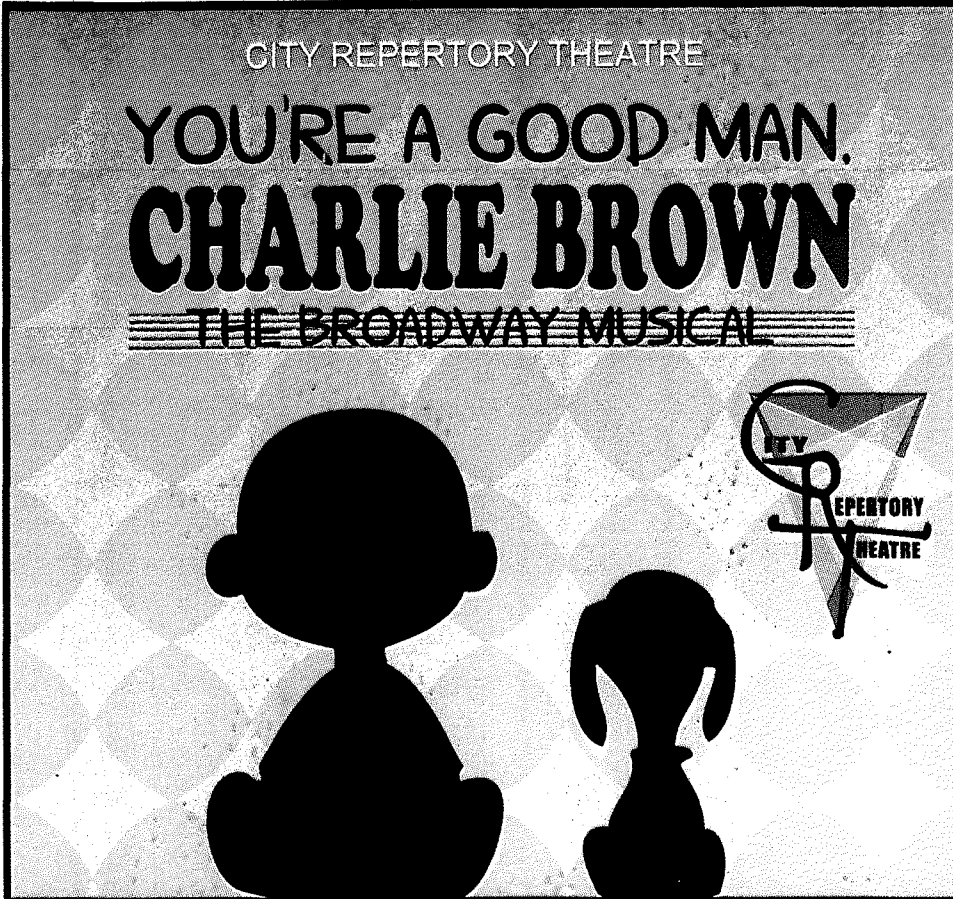

Just in time for Valentine's Day, CRT brings LOVE LETTERS, a unique American drama that follows 2 people as told through their letters over the years. LOVE LETTERS will be performed by 3 different couples, on 3 consecutive nights, February 10-12, 2017.

CRT follows with a rarely seen European classic of married life, THE WALTZ AND THE TOREADORS, a farce of love arriving too late, and is both wildly funny and biting cruel. Waltz with CRT March 19-April 2, 2017.

CRT finish's the season with JOHN AND JEN, a brilliant and eclectic hit musical honoring brothers and sisters and parents and children, set against the background of a changing America. This tour-de-force for 2 actors plays May 5-14.

Cultural Arts Financial Assistance Grant

Purpose of the Organization: The Mission of the Community Chorus of Palm Coast is to build a tradition of community pride through choral excellence, by providing performances that enrich, educate, and entertain both audiences and singers. The chorus sings a variety of musical styles, including Broadway, pop, folk, sacred, gospel and classical music. The chorus was founded in 2010 and currently has 66 members from Palm Coast and the surrounding area.

Program to be considered for funding: Concert Series

The Community Chorus of Palm Coast will begin its eighth season with the first rehearsal on September 12, 2017. The concerts will be held in the sanctuary of Trinity Presbyterian Church, Palm Coast.

The concert schedule is:

Veterans Day, November 11, 2017
Holiday Concert, Friday, December 8, 2017
Holiday Concert, Sunday, December 10
Spring Concert, Friday, April 13, 2018
Spring Concert, Sunday, April 15, 2018
Memorial Day, Monday, May 28, 2018

Approximately 900 people attended the performances last year. The concerts are free to the public, and we hope to continue this practice so anyone interested in attending may do so. The audience is given the opportunity to make a donation to support the chorus if they wish.

By invitation the Chorus participated in two community celebrations during the past year: Veterans Day Ceremony at Heroes Park and Memorial Day Ceremony at Heroes Park. Members are happy to volunteer to be part of these important and meaningful American remembrances.

How the City of Palm Coast's financial assistance will be used:

The partial support from the City of Palm Coast for our production expenses will enable the Chorus to continue to provide quality concerts which include professional guest instrumental musicians. Other production expenses which may be offset with grant funds include: purchase of sheet music, advertizing expenses, printing of marketing materials and programs, piano accompanist, etc. (See attached budget worksheet for additional details.)

Dear Community Chorus Members:

On behalf of the Board of the Community Chorus and the Palm Coast Community-at-large, welcome to the beginning of the 2017-18 choral season. We are all excited about the opportunities that await our choral experience, especially with our new conductor, Jens Oliva.

As we prepare for the coming year, we proudly announce that our first rehearsal of the chorus will be Tuesday, September 12, 2017, beginning promptly at 6:30 pm. We ask all choristers to show up early to pay your dues and pick up your assigned music. This year, the dues will be $40.00 to cover increased costs of the chorus. We encourage members to pay their dues ($40.00) before the first rehearsal if possible, to alleviate waiting in lines before the rehearsal. Please send your check, made out to the Community Chorus of Palm Coast to our Treasurer: LaJuana McKay, 2 Firtree Lane, Palm Coast, FL 32137.

At the first few rehearsals, it would be great if veteran members would wear their name tags to assist new members in learning names and faces.

Also, if any personal information has changed, such as phone numbers, addresses, we ask you to update this on our website at (<https://goo.gl/d1YXjV>) by filling out the form completely, and selecting "SUBMIT." This will update our database and more efficiently prepare our directory for future needs.

Our concert schedule for the coming year is:

Veterans Day	November 11, 2017	8:00 am
Holiday Concert	December 8, 2017	7:00 pm
Holiday Concert	December 10, 2017	4:00 pm

PRESIDENT, FLAGLER PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY 7/29/17

The PURPOSE OF FLAGLER PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY is best summed up in our mission statement.

Mission statement: the mission of Flagler Performing Arts Academy summer intensive is to provide a high quality musical theater education to children and youth in a safe, positive environment, fostering teamwork, self-discipline, and sense of accomplishment while bringing exposure to the arts in our community. Flagler Performing Arts Academy, Inc. is a 501 (C)(3) Organization.

We have started fulfilling our mission by producing a Summer Musical Theater Camp for children ages 8-16. They are trained in vocal music (promoting healthy vocal production), dance and acting skills. The camp culminates with a Professional-level Musical Production. Last year's production was Alice In Wonderland, this summer's production was legally Blonde Jr. Below are articles in the newspaper about our productions.

As our organization grows, we would like to expand our educational experiences to older children and adults as well. We have started reaching this goal with an audition MASTER CLASS which we are offering Aug. 12, 2017. This will be open to adults and parents as well as children.

VALUE TO THE CITY OF PALM COAST

1. Professional Staff: We are committed to quality performances, directed by professionals in the field. We strive to raise the quality of performance here in Palm Coast by focusing on improving skills related to all forms of the performing arts.
2. Exposing the community to the Arts: We strive to attract audience members of all ages, cultural background, and experience to our shows by producing literature that will be entertaining and culturally stimulating to ALL.
3. Increasing awareness of the performing arts: Our goal is to be able to offer scholarships to more of our cast members so performers at all experience levels and socioeconomic backgrounds can participate.
4. Offering a variety of educational experiences to the community: Another goal we have is to be able to expand our educational services to include classes and workshops for our growing senior citizen population, adults, as well as children throughout the year, more than just the summer musical theater camp. This includes possible dance classes, voice workshops, acting workshops, improvisation, music reading classes. etc. We would like to listen to the pulse of what the community wants to learn, and be able to provide a professional staff to teach classes that interest members of the community.

5. Providing an Arts Educational Facility: Another future goal would be to obtain a permanent facility where the summer camp can be housed, as well as ongoing classes for all ages. Our vision is a place where the arts are available for all members of the community.

Mr. Boyer and Committee:

July 29, 2017

Thank you for the opportunity to put in a request for funding for our tax-deductible arts organization, Flagler Performing Arts Academy. Since part of our mission statement is professionalism, we are at a stage where we really need to hire some more professionals as we see the interest in our organization exploding. It is a good problem to have, but we are requesting your assistance.

Some of the needs we have for funding include, but are not limited to:

- *Paying professional, experienced, and creative top-quality staff for their time
- *Being able to offer scholarships to deserving young performers
- *Royalties, Costumes, Sets, and Props
- *Helping pay for the rental of facilities, and saving up for a future permanent facility

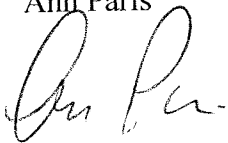

Last summer every student was required to pay full tuition in order to be a part of the program. Luckily, I had fantastic volunteers to help me with the productions. I would like to expand it and allow more children to take part, but I would need to hire more staff. We got by with donations for props and costuming, but we have many needs in order to serve the children in our community by providing a quality arts education here in Palm Coast.

With over 40 years of experience in the performing arts, it is my mission to share what I know. I am an author and have been teaching chorus, dance and drama from K-college age throughout Florida since the 1980's, after performing professionally throughout the world for years before that. You can read a more complete biography on the websites listed below. Please consider supporting the performing arts by supporting us.

Let me know who I need to contact further or if you would like to meet with me. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Ann Paris

Dear Applicants:

Based on information supplied, and assuming your operations will be as stated in your application for recognition of exemption, we have determined you are exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(a) of the Internal Revenue Code as an organization described in section 501(c)(3).

We have further determined that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, because you are an organization described in section 509(a)(2).

If your sources of support, or your purposes, character, or method of operation change, please let us know so we can consider the effect of the change on your exempt status and foundation status. In the case of an amendment to your organizational document or bylaws, please send us a copy of the amended document or bylaws. Also, you should inform us of all changes in your name or address.

As of January 1, 1984, you are liable for taxes under the Federal Insurance Contributions Act (social security taxes) on remuneration of $100 or more you pay to each of your employees during a calendar year. You are not liable for the tax imposed under the Federal Unemployment Tax Act (FUTA).

Since you are not a private foundation, you are not subject to the excise taxes under Chapter 42 of the Code. However, you are not automatically exempt from other Federal excise taxes. If you have any questions about excise, employment, or other Federal taxes, please let us know.

Grantors and contributors may rely on this determination unless the Internal Revenue Service publishes notice to the contrary. However, if you lose your section 509(a)(2) status, a grantor or contributor may not rely on this determination if he or she was in part responsible for, or was aware of, the act or failure to act, or the substantial or material change on the part of the organization that resulted in your loss of such status, or if he or she acquired knowledge that the Internal Revenue Service had given notice that you would no longer be classified as a section 509(a)(2) organization.

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the

Letter 947 (DD/CG)

RECEIVED

Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of Code sections 2055, 2106, and 2522.

Contribution deductions are allowable to donors only to the extent that their contributions are gifts, with no consideration received. Ticket purchases and similar payments in conjunction with fundraising events may not necessarily qualify as deductible contributions, depending on the circumstances. See Revenue Ruling 67-246, published in Cumulative Bulletin 1967-2, on page 104, which sets forth guidelines regarding the deductibility, as charitable contributions, of payments made by taxpayers for admission to or other participation in fundraising activities for charity.

In the heading of this letter we have indicated whether you must file Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt From Income Tax. If Yes is indicated, you are required to file Form 990 only if your gross receipts each year are normally more than $25,000. However, if you receive a Form 990 package in the mail, please file the return even if you do not exceed the gross receipts test. If you are not required to file, simply attach the label provided, check the box in the heading to indicate that your annual gross receipts are normally $25,000 or less, and sign the return.

If a return is required, it must be filed by the 15th day of the fifth month after the end of your annual accounting period. A penalty of $10 a day is charged when a return is filed late, unless there is reasonable cause for the delay. However, the maximum penalty charged cannot exceed $5,000 or 5 percent of your gross receipts for the year, whichever is less. This penalty may also be charged if a return is not complete, so please be sure your return is complete before you file it.

You are not required to file Federal income tax returns unless you are subject to the tax on unrelated business income under section 511 of the Code. If you are subject to this tax, you must file an income tax return on Form 990-T, Exempt Organization Business Income Tax Return. In this letter we are not determining whether any of your present or proposed activities are unrelated trade or business as defined in section 513 of the Code.

You need an employer identification number even if you have no employees. If an employer identification number was not entered on your application, a number will be assigned to you and you will be advised of it. Please use that number on all returns you file and in all correspondence with the Internal Revenue Service.

This determination is based on evidence that your funds are dedicated to the purposes listed in section 501(c)(3) of the Code. To assure your continued exemption, you should maintain records to show that funds are expended only for those purposes. If you distribute funds to other organizations, your records should show whether they are exempt under section 501(c)(3). In cases where the recipient organization is not exempt under section 501(c)(3), there should be evidence that the funds will remain to the required purposes and that they will be used for those the recipient.

indicated in the heading of this letter that an addendum closed addendum is an integral part of this letter.

Because this letter could help resolve any questions about your exempt and foundation status, you should keep it in your permanent records.

We have sent a copy of this letter to your representative as indicated in power of attorney.

If you have any questions, please contact the person whose name and phone number are shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Paul Williams
District Director

Addendum

THE FLAGLER AUDITORIUM GOVERNING

You are required to make your annual return available for public inspection for three years after the return is due. You are also required to make available a copy of your exemption application, and supporting documents, and this exemption letter. Failure to make these documents available for public inspection may subject you to a penalty of $10 per day for each day there is failure to comply (up to a maximum of $5,000 in the case of an annual return). See Internal Revenue Service Notice 88-120, 1988-2 C.B. 454, for additional information.

If your organization conducts fund-raising events such as benefit dinners, auctions, membership drives, etc., where something of value is received in return for contributions, you can help your donors avoid difficulties with their income tax returns by assisting them in determining the proper tax treatment of their contributions. To do this you should, in advance of the event, determine the fair market value of the benefit received and state it in your fund-raising materials such as solicitations, tickets, and receipts in such a way that your donors can determine how much is deductible and how much is not. To assist you in this, the Service has issued Publication 1391, Deductibility of Payments Made to Charities Conducting Fund-Raising Events. You may obtain copies of Publication 1391 from your local IRS Office. Guidelines for deductible amounts are also set forth in Revenue Ruling 67-246, 1967-2 C.B. 104 and Revenue Procedure 90-12, 1990-1 C.B. 471 and Revenue Procedure 92-49, 1992-26 I.R.B. 18.

Request for Cultural Arts Financial Assistance

The Flagler County Art League was established in 1978 and today boasts a membership of more than 400 artists and art lovers. As a 501 c 3 non-profit organization, our operations are managed by a volunteer board of directors. Our income is based on member dues, class and workshop revenues, show and exhibit income, membership appeal and fund-raising events.

1. Purpose of the Organization:

The mission of the Flagler County Art League (FCAL) is to promote the arts in our community and create an environment for artists to develop, collaborate and showcase their work. Unlike other arts organizations in other communities that focus solely on their artist members, FCAL strives to promote and perpetuate the arts for all ages throughout the entire community.

2. The Program for which the Funding is Requested:

Having a career in the arts can be broader and more encompassing than just being an “artist” as many students and parents think. There are many ways to have fulfilling and lucrative careers that involve the arts.

The goal of the program, “Art Works” is to give high school students the opportunity to explore potential careers through presentations and/or conversations with artists and other professionals in selected related fields as chosen by Flagler County Art League (FCAL) in collaboration with high school faculty.

The program, “Art Works”, will be a collaboration between FCAL and high school faculty. For a number of years, the schools have hosted speakers from various schools and colleges to talk to students about potential college majors and careers. However, they have never hosted a group of professional artists to talk about the “real world,” that is, what happens after college graduation. Some workshops will be held at the FCAL facility after the original Panel presentation at the schools.

The faculty has targeted April, 2018 for the program, which would be held in Flagler Auditorium, although a specific date has yet to be determined. The value of this program is that it encourages growth of the arts in our community by supporting students who are interested in pursuing careers in the arts. In 2016 and 2017 our speakers were successful artists who have graduated from Flagler Schools to whom students can relate.

In 2016 when presenting this program for the first time, we instituted the first “Fine Arts Hall of Fame” with the speakers/former FPC students being the first to be inducted. We hope to continue this as yearly event.

3. How financial assistance will be used: For speaker fees, workshop leader fees and workshop materials and printing of collateral materials and marketing. The format of the program we are planning will include both an assembly for all students interested in the arts with a panel of successful artists in selected careers who will not only provide an overview of their individual experiences, but will answer questions posed by the students in the audience. This segment will be followed by workshops offered at no cost to students. Students will learn more about the business aspect of working in the arts, and how the artists/guest speakers have turned their passions into lucrative careers. Some workshops will offer hands-on experience to students.

Funding for this program is essential as there is no funding available through school budgets and students do not have the personal resources to pay for such a program. Giving students the benefit of real life experiences from professionals will assist them in making good career choices. City funding will demonstrate to the Palm Coast community at large that the City is committed to supporting the arts for all ages in our community, whether it is through public events or educational events in our school system.

Watercolor Impressions - The Portrait

Janet Rogers, Instructor

Friday and Saturday, October 6 & 7, 2017 from 10am - 4pm

Web address: www.watercolorsbyrogers.com

Cost: Member $150.00 Non-Member $175.00

This dynamic workshop is designed to enable participants to quickly gain confidence in approaching the portrait and figure in a more spontaneous, intuitive and expressive way. Demonstrations, class instruction, individual assistance, "show and tell", and a series of "fun" exercises, (which will include drawing, color and paint application) will weave into class painting time. Special emphasis will be on achieving a fresh look of translucent flesh tones in the portrait with unique color changes, which will add to the excitement of capturing the essence of the subject. Many "features" will be covered, including an approach to children's portraits.

Students will have an opportunity to work from their photographs or Janet's. (some drawing helps and photos will be available for tracing if you need). Our goals will be to "see" in new ways -- bringing "life" and interpretation to the portrait and figure, and to discover intuitive color and design. All levels welcome.

A Signature Member of American Watercolor Society, Janet Rogers is an award-winning artist for both her floral and portrait paintings. Janet is also a signature member of Florida Watercolor Society, and South Carolina Watercolor Society. She is also a popular instructor and has taught extensively throughout the United States and also in Europe. Janet has had four DVD's produced by Cheap Joe's Art Stuff, Boone, NC - "Expressive Watercolor Portraits" and "Expressive Watercolor Florals", "Watercolor Rhythms - With Figures" and "Expressing the Bouquet in Watercolor". She has also been featured in the book "The One-Hour Watercolorist" by Patrick Seslar (North Light). Janet has also been included in several publications including a feature article in American Artist. Some short demos may be found on You Tube.

Portrait of an Artist: A Biography of Georgia O’Keeffe

Laurie Lisle

Georgia O’Keeffe, one of the most original painters America has ever produced, left behind a remarkable legacy when she died at the age of ninety-eight. Her vivid visual vocabulary -- sensuous flowers, bleached bones against red sky and earth -- had a stunning, profound, and lasting influence on American art. O’Keeffe’s personal mystique is as intriguing and enduring as her bold, brilliant canvases. Here is the first full account of her exceptional life -- from her girlhood and early days as a controversial art teacher...to her discovery by the pioneering photographer of the New York avant-garde, Alfred Stieglitz...to her seclusion in the New Mexico desert, where she lived until her death. And here is the story of a great romance -- between the extraordinary painter and her much older mentor, lover, and husband, Alfred Stieglitz. Fiercely independence, with an iron determination, and unique artistic vision, Georgia O’Keeffe is a twentieth-century legend. Her dazzling career spans virtually the entire history of modern art in America.

Tom and Jack: The Intertwined Lives of Thomas Hart Benton and Jackson Pollock

Henry Adams

The trailblazing drip paintings of Jackson Pollock, appear to be the polar opposite of Thomas Hart Benton’s highly figurative Americana. Yet the two men had a close and highly charged relationship dating from Pollock’s days as a student under Benton. Pollock’s only formal training came from Benton, and the older man soon became a surrogate father to Pollock. In true Oedipal fashion, Pollock even fell in love with Benton’s wife.

Pollock later broke away from his mentor artistically, rocketing to superstardom with his stunning drip compositions. But he never lost touch with Benton or his ideas—in fact, his breakthrough abstractions reveal a strong debt to Benton’s teachings. In an epic story that ranges from the cafés and salons of Gertrude Stein’s Paris to the highways of the American West, Adams unfolds a poignant personal drama that provides new insights into two of the greatest artists of the twentieth century.

The Vanishing Velasquez

Laura Cumming

This is the incredible true story—part art history and part mystery—of a Velasquez portrait that went missing and the obsessed nineteenth-century bookseller determined to prove he had found it. When John Snare traveled to a liquidation auction, he stumbled on a vivid portrait of King Charles I that defied any explanation. The Charles of the painting was young—too young to be king—and yet also too young to be painted by the Flemish painter to which the work was attributed. Snare had found something

Born and raised in Florida, Patrick Maxcy has always had a love for the arts. At the age of six he began to develop his talents when he started designing t-shirts. Ever since then, he has been pursuing his dream of being an artist. Maxcy studied painting at Florida School of the Arts and Florida Atlantic University. While at FAU he also received his teaching certificate and upon graduating began teaching high school art classes. Maxcy traveled to Jinja, Uganda where he was able to paint five separate murals at schools and other buildings.

Drawing from his personal experiences and the places he has traveled to, Maxcy highlights nature in the stories he tells.

Art Works

Flagler Palm Coast High School is proud to have a variety of art programs that not only broaden students' knowledge of the arts and the principles of design, but prepare them for professional careers in the art world. Students are challenged and encouraged to strive for excellence, being offered many opportunities and scholarships, and even occasionally competing for prize money. Over 50 FPC alumni have been accepted to colleges such as Savannah College of Art and Design, the Art Institute, Full Sail in Orlando, Florida School of the Arts in Palatka, and Ringling in Sarasota. Many of these students now are professionals and quite a few even own their own businesses. Over the years, FPC has and will continue to expand its art programs and to ensure its students' success.

Digital Design (I, II)

The digital design program involves assignments such as designing logos, packages, posters, advertisements, and other projects that reflect real situations in the business world that can be resolved with creative solutions using graphic design.

Drawing (I)

Students in this class will learn the fundamentals of drawing as well as experiment with illustrating with other media such as charcoal, colored pencil, ink, and watercolor.

Photography (I, II, III)

By learning to create unique and interesting compositions in addition to basic camera functionality and photo development, students in this class will gain useful skills to execute proper photography techniques.

AP Portfolio Art & 2D Design

The Advanced Placement courses are based upon the evaluation of a 24 piece portfolio centered around a subject matter and medium of the student's choosing.

Traditional Portfolio

Students create a portfolio including traditional styles of art such as drawing, painting, ink, and charcoal.

Photographic Portfolio

Students create a portfolio including photography styles of art like black / white and digital.

Art WORKS

Thank You!
Flagler County Art League
The City of Palm Coast

The Flagler County Art League (FCAL) is pleased to have received a grant from the City of Palm Coast for the second year in a row to help us sponsor ART WORKS for the art students in our high schools. The members of the Flagler County Art League believe it is imperative to enrich our community through the arts and to perpetuate the arts by encouraging our talented students to continue their involvement in the arts once they leave high school. One of the ways we do that is to provide scholarships to a student in each of our high schools who goes on to college to study art. We hope ArtWorks will be an annual event for our high school students - an opportunity to meet and learn about a variety of ca-arts from artists who have become successful in their art careers. And we offer our congratulations to the three artists who will be inaugurated into the Flagler Palm Coast High School's Arts Hall of Fame - Shanna Fortier, Matt Katsolis and Patrick Maxcy, each of whom enjoys success in the arts today.

The PURPOSE OF FLAGLER PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY is best summed up in our mission statement.

Mission statement: the mission of Flagler Performing Arts Academy summer intensive is to provide a high quality musical theater education to children and youth in a safe, positive environment, fostering teamwork, self-discipline, and sense of accomplishment while bringing exposure to the arts in our community. VALUE TO THE CITY OF PALM COAST

- 1. Professional Staff: We are committed to quality performances, directed by professionals in the field. We strive to raise the quality of performance here in Palm Coast by focusing on improving skills related to all forms of the performing arts.
- 2. Exposing the community to the Arts: We strive to attract audience members of all ages, cultural background, and experience to our shows by producing literature that will be entertaining and culturally stimulating to ALL.
- 3. Increasing awareness of the performing arts: Our goal is to be able to offer scholarships to more of our cast members so performers at all experience levels and socioeconomic backgrounds can participate.
- 4. Offering a variety of educational experiences to the community: Another goal we have is to be able to expand our educational services to include classes and workshops for our growing senior citizen population, adults, as well as children throughout the year, more than just the summer musical theater camp. This includes possible dance classes, voice workshops, acting workshops, improvisation, music reading classes. etc. We would like to listen to the pulse of what the community wants to learn, and be able to provide a professional staff to teach classes that interest members of the community.

5. Providing an Arts Educational Facility: Another future goal would be to obtain a permanent facility where the summer camp can be housed, as well as ongoing classes for all ages. Our vision is a place where the arts are available for all members of the community.

Mr. Boyer and Committee:

July 29, 2017

Thank you for the opportunity to put in a request for funding for our tax-deductible arts organization, Flagler Performing Arts Academy. Since part of our mission statement is professionalism, we are at a stage where we really need to hire some more professionals as we see the interest in our organization exploding. It is a good problem to have, but we are requesting your assistance.

Some of the needs we have for funding include, but are not limited to:

- *Paying professional, experienced, and creative top-quality staff for their time
- *Being able to offer scholarships to deserving young performers
- *Royalties, Costumes, Sets, and Props
- *Helping pay for the rental of facilities, and saving up for a future permanent facility

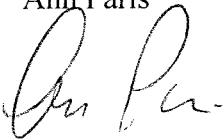

Last summer every student was required to pay full tuition in order to be a part of the program. Luckily, I had fantastic volunteers to help me with the productions. I would like to expand it and allow more children to take part, but I would need to hire more staff. We got by with donations for props and costuming, but we have many needs in order to serve the children in our community by providing a quality arts education here in Palm Coast.

With over 40 years of experience in the performing arts, it is my mission to share what I know. I am an author and have been teaching chorus, dance and drama from K-college age throughout Florida since the 1980's, after performing professionally throughout the world for years before that. You can read a more complete biography on the websites listed below. Please consider supporting the performing arts by supporting us.

Let me know who I need to contact further or if you would like to meet with me. Thank you very much.

Sincerely,

Ann Paris

GAF's proposed bronze sculpture "PEACE" by Ormond Beach Artist Joan Baliker for Town Center Sculpture Garden. "PEACE" is in the public collections of Ormond and Deland and will be displayed at the Daytona Beach Museum of Art and Science in the fall of 2017.

"PEACE" SHOULD BE EVERYWHERE

SUPPORT MATERIALS: Gargiulo Art Foundation, Inc. Town Center Sculpture Garden

Since 2005, the Gargiulo Art Foundation has gained considerable experience installing 14 outdoor public sculptures in the City of Palm Coast. Our grant for 2018, if approved, will be used to advertise the installation of a sculpture garden in Town Center. Our Foundation is committing $100,000 over a period of four years to this project.

Well known Deland Sculptor Harry Messersmith will head this project. The former Deland Museum of Art Director has considerable expertise working and directing community projects. His sculptures adorn many private and public collections throughout Deland including the brick façade of Deland City Hall. The Artist is familiar with Palm Coast and has met with Ken Jones, Arts' Commission Chairman and Beautification Committee Member on the Town Center Lake site.

Excitement is building among area sculptors for the proposed Sculpture Garden in Palm Coast. Artist Harry Messersmith and the Gargiulo Art Foundation, aware of problems associated with public outdoor sculptures in other cities have a new approach for sculptors' concerns. Palm Coast financial assistance was granted to install the loan of an interactive sculpture IMAG NE), at the Flagler County Public Library and Town Center in Palm Coast for two months. The sculpture was well received at both sites. An opportunity was missed to purchase the sculpture from the artist at a greatly discounted price to the GAF for lack of funds. The sculpture went on to Georgia for a two month loan and was purchased by a town in Georgia.

We were recently contacted by Palm Coast officials to consider a Key West Sculptor's work. So it is obvious to us that the City is aware of the value of Art in Public Places in Palm Coast. Full financial support, if awarded, will be used for advertising the program.

The GAF will purchase the loaned pieces in four years or less and gift them to the City. This will provide sculptors the opportunity to show their costly art at less expense. GAF will match contributions 50 – 50 for purchases of sculpture. A plaque will accompany all donated work with contributor names listed. This will give patrons and businesses incentive to match the Foundation's contribution. For example . . . a sculpture costing $16,000 (Paul Baliker's Florida Panther at Linear Park) would be $4,000 a year for four years. The Foundation would pay $2,000 each year and the sponsor(s) will contribute 50%. A plaque will be installed listing contributors in year five.

My dream is to recognize Palm Coast, not only for its beautiful palm trees, but as a destination for visitors and tourists to view our city's arts and culture.

We hope LSAB will support our project and award GAF the maximum financial assistance.

Art WALK

The Flagler County Art League, Salvo Art Project and Gargiulo Art Foundation are teaming up to show "ARTISTS' WORK". The Show will feature work of six professional artists. Each of the exhibiting artists work full time earning and/or attempting to earn their living creating fine art. The idea for this show was developed by Tom Gargiulo, CEO and Founder of the Gargiulo Art Foundation. A professional artist himself, Gargiulo feels that too many people in Flagler County see art as merely a pleasurable endeavor. Many of the award winners at FCAL monthly shows are the works of talented, local amateur artists who paint and share their experiences with other artists.

Painting is not always joyful. It takes sacrifice and is stressful for artists who are making a living from their art. Their canvases sometimes takes them to another level of creativity yet to be explored and/or understood by the collector. Professional artists selected for the show will discuss these challenges.

GAF received an Arts and Cultural Grant from the City of Palm Coast that will help recognize the serious business side of art. Work for the show will be created in three, 3 hour long workshops at SALVO ART PROJECTS in Bunnell, itself a creation of two full time working artists John (JJ) Graham and Petra Iston.

The show opens with a public reception at FCAL, Friday, July 8th, 6 - 8 PM. Gallery Hours are Monday - Fridays- noon to 4 PM - Saturdays 10 AM to 1 PM. There will be an Artists' Panel and Q & A on Tuesday, August 8th 6 PM and closing ceremony with audience participation following at 7 PM.

FCAL is located at City Market Place, 160 Cypress Point Parkway - suite 207C. All events are open to the public Free of charge. For more information on Flagler County Art League and/or the show (386) 986 4668- or call GAF (386) 446-0617

Gallery show puts local artists to 'Work'

By Danielle Anderson
Correspondent

What can seem like a hobby to some is a livelihood for others and Tom Gargiulo, CEO of the Gargiulo Art Foundation, is gearing his most recent show to convey that message.

Unveiling "Work" Saturday night at the Flagler County Art League in conjunction with the league's Summer Gallery Sale, where artists can showcase and offer for sale various pieces, Gargiulo hoped guests would get the hint that artists can't give everything away for free.

"This is a show we are doing, in part, with a grant from the city of Palm Coast," said Gargiulo. "The work was done by artists who are looking to supplement their income or earn a living doing their art. Each artist got minimum wage, which is unique because no one expects artists to get paid. I wanted to put the emphasis on work that the artists do work."

The seven participating artists are mostly well known in local art circles and each was drawn out of their artistic comfort zones for the three-challenge series overseen by Gargiulo.

"We did three workshops and I tried to get them out of their comfort zone, doing things that they haven't done prior, and then we critiqued the art and had discussions on the business side of art," said Gargiulo.

The show will close Aug. 8 with an artist panel discussion starting at 6 p.m. at the Flagler County Art League.

In the main gallery, artists from various cities display their work for the summer gallery sale, comprising an eclectic mix of art, from handcrafted jewelry by Linda Gordon to Rose Hawley's distinctive glass work.

GAF NEWS LETTER

GAF purchases art directly from artists for public (and private) art collections benefiting artists and enhancing our community. One hundred percent of Gargiulo's art sales and fifty percent of all artists' works benefit Art in Public Places. More than 200 public art works have been installed in collections at the Flagler County Library, DSC, Linear and Waterfront Parks, City Market Place, Palm Coast Community Center and Wadsworth Elementary School (partially funded by GAF)..

In 2018 GAF will commence with a campaign to spearhead a sculpture garden around the lake and City Hall in Town Center. Sculptor Harry Messersmith, experienced in creating public art projects, will work with the public and chair the project. The artist has viewed the site, met with artists and a member of the Palm Coast Beautification Committee. He is excited about working on this project. GAF will contribute $100,000 over a four year period and hopes to encourage matching funds from individuals and businesses.

It's About "Work": Palm Coast Artists Hold Their Heads Up In New Art League Exhibit

At a recent series of workshops, facilitator and artist Tom Gargiulo presented a simple assignment for his six fellow local professional artists: Create "simply a head – a single head."

As the results of those workshops were being hung at the Flagler County Art League for an exhibition titled "Work," which opens with a reception from 6 to 8 p.m. Saturday, Gargiulo lamented with faux exasperation: "You can see artists don't follow directions. So, we have some that are different."

As Gargiulo certainly knew, the results would have been substantially, even radically different even if photographer and digital artist Charlie Badalati hadn't violated the assignment's limits by fashioning multiple heads for his "Social Stress at the Cabbage Patch."

Indeed, that is the intention of "Work" – to reveal the richness, chaos and variety of the artistic process by having different artists create from the same set of explicit parameters.

The workshop series was initiated by the Gargiulo Art Foundation using a $2,320 arts and cultural grant from Palm Coast government. Seven professional artists participated in the three workshops: photographer Charlie Badalati, fabric artist and painter Carol Baker, painter and digital artist Petra Iston and painters Diana Gilson, Betty-Jo Sansbury, J. J. Graham and Gargiulo himself. (Gargiulo, his partner Arlene Volpe and Gargiulo's brother, Frank Gargiulo, created the Gargiulo Art Foundation in 2000 as a not-for-profit organization to support area artists. Its main activities include its Art in Public Places program, annually recognizing a Flagler County Artist of the Year, and staging exhibitions.)

"I think the show will be exiting for visitors because they will see seven of us each doing the same assignment," Tom Gargiulo said.

Creating on 12-inch-square canvases, all seven artists tackled two other assignments along with that head. One was to incorporate a piece of grass-green corrugated cardboard and a piece of string.

The other was to use a shape that Gargiulo traced from one of his works in progress: a human shape that looks like one of those body outlines marked off by police at a murder scene. However, Gargiulo confessed, the eerie shape is from an installation he is working on that was inspired by a 2014 accident in which he was struck by a car while bicycling, leaving his neck fractured in three places.

While Gargiulo speculated that the workshop may have shoved participating artists out of their comfort zones, Graham noted that he is "pretty comfortable with whatever is thrown at me in this point of the game. It didn't necessarily get me out of my comfort zone, but it made me engage in something that I wouldn't have engaged in otherwise."

That four-letter word that is the title of the "Work" exhibit carries numerous connotations, each evoked by the art show and-or the workshops that spawned it: the business side of art, the work ethic of artists, the work of hanging and dismantling a show (patrons will be able to participate in the latter).

And the exhibit may invite associations with Studs Terkel's 1974 book, "Working: People Talk About What They Do All Day and How They Feel About What They Do."

Although "Work" also features other, larger pieces by its seven artists, the workshop pieces are hung together, thus giving patrons side-by-side glimpses into how different artists work their muses.

hobbyists or students and they do very good artwork. But their concerns are quite different from the professional artist who is trying to sell his work, trying to get a livelihood through art.”

And “Work” will invite patrons to, well, work during the exhibition’s closing reception from 6 to 8 p.m. on August 8.

That reception will feature not only a panel discussion and Q&A session with the participating artists, but also patrons will be able to “participate in taking down the show, help the artists take their works to their van or car,” Gargiulo said. “Many people have no idea what it takes to hang a show — they’ll see it in reverse.”

Each of the workshop pieces will be on sale for $100, with 50 percent of proceeds benefiting the Flagler County Art League and 50 percent going to the Gargiulo Foundation’s Art in Public Places program.

“Work” will be on exhibit from July 8 to August 8 at the Flagler County Art League in the City Walk complex, 160 Cypress Point Parkway, Suite 207C, Palm Coast. An opening reception with the artists will be 6-8 p.m. Saturday, July 8. Closing reception, including an artists discussion panel, will be 6-8 p.m. August 8. All events are free and open to the public free. Information: Gargiulo Art Foundation at 386-446-0617, or the Flagler County Art League at 386-986-4668 or flaglercountyartleague.org.

Palm Coast, FL 32164

Dear Alex,

Enclosed is the cultural grant application for the Palm Coast Arts Foundation for a February 2018 production of MACBETH kicking off an annual series of Shakespeare in the Park.

This is a new idea and has been met with much enthusiasm within the community as we plan four performances of MACBETH, hoping to reach a wide audience.

Shakespeare in the Park will be a collaboration between the Palm Coast Arts Foundation and the City Repertory Theatre, with local director, John Sbordone.

Should you have additional questions regarding the application, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

(1) Purpose of Palm Coast Arts Foundation

The Palm Coast Arts Foundation established in 2004 as a public, non-profit organization focuses on bringing quality entertainment and cultural arts to our community. The Foundation has continued to build on a unified vision – to design and build a Center for the Arts that will establish the Palm Coast/Flagler beaches area as a world-class forum for the arts.

A 13-acre cultural arts complex is being developed here in Town Center. The Palm Coast Arts Foundation (PCAF) has put in place a strategy in which to phase funding and construction of the project. Phase I commenced February 2016 with a ground-breaking ceremony and in December we had the official ribbon cutting of our new outdoor stage. Our annual Picnic and Pops concert was held on this new stage May 7 to a guest list of 1,100 in attendance. Phase II of this project is a Raise the Roof campaign to provide necessary funds to construct a permanent roof structure over the stage. Phase III will be a 19,000 sq/ft events center with a catering kitchen; and Phase IV will be a 2,200 performing arts center with the capability of all types of performances from Broadway to Opera, to music of all genres, dance, theatre, etc.; all over time as funding is secured.

(2) Program description

Shakespeare in the Park will be a sophisticated theatre performance performed “in the round” on the large outdoor stage of the Palm Coast Arts Foundation under a tent. MACBETH is the play chosen for this inaugural performance. It is our hope to offer the community a different Shakespeare performance each year. Dates of the performances will be: February 22-25, 2018 allowing flexibility in the schedule for our guests. If funding can be secured, it is hoped that a “student show” can be organized for high-school and college theatre students in the area at an extreme discounted rate.

The importance of the program is an introduction to arguably the world’s most famous playwright, William Shakespeare whose works have been performed in England since their debut in the 16th and 17th centuries. The earliest known staging of Shakespeare here in the U.S. (then the colonies) was 1750 and theatre companies and performances have been produced ever since.

We hope to attract a minimum of 100 guests per performance for a total of 400.

(3) How Proceeds will be utilized:

Our goal is to improve the quality of life for residents and visitors alike by providing access to high quality and challenging performing and visual arts events. By igniting the mind, the arts have taught us new ways of thinking, communicating, and doing business.

Grant funds will go directly toward performance expenses (sound, lighting, rentals, actors, costumes, marketing). External funding is imperative in order to keep ticket costs to a minimum.

Concert Series*

"Excellence in all things and all things to God's Glory"

August 10, 2017

Describe the purpose of the organization:

The Palm Coast United Methodist Church concert Series exists as an outreach ministry dedicated to the community. It presents programs for the enjoyment, education and personal enrichment of the greater Palm Coast community. It supports multicultural performing artists in interactive relationships with the residents of our community. Our program expands the arts experience of the community with access to high quality performing arts and related learning experiences. Participants witness a live performance and are able to immediately interact with the artists and with others in the audience. We provide a catalyst for students of the arts and the community who live vastly different lives in different parts of our community to appreciate and experience each other. The series has multiple and diverse audience for its culmination performances. Our audience consists of three quarters from the Palm Coast community and on quarter from the host church. We are addressing challenges in the field of access to music education, economic access for persons of limited means, and physical access for persons with disabilities.

Describe the purpose of the program being considered for funding:

The program being considered for funding is the schedule of concert events that educate, enlighten, enrich and entertain the residents of the City of Palm Coast. The 2017-2018 seasons will present a varied schedule of fine concerts for our community. The entire schedule is enclosed on a separate page.

Estimated number of attendance at each program:.

Christmas Concert (800) Youth Orchestra (200)

Chamber Players (400) Concert Harpist Melody Anglin (250)

RythmTrail Steel Drum Band (300) Cloud Ssu-yun Wang (200)

Why funding is essential:

A Cultural Arts Financial Grant from the City of Palm Coast will be necessary to achieve our purpose and goals to present quality events for the residents of the city. While the Palm Coast United Methodist Church concert series is an outreach ministry of the church, the concert series receives only the use of the building as the church's contribution. Hence the continuation of this ministry is largely dependent on support from the City Grant, friends of the concert series, donors and fund-raising events.

Audit Committee Report – April 13, 2017

Committee Members: Thomas McKean, Sue Bennett Bara, Edwina Tabit, excused Maureen O'Hara

The committee met on April 13, 2017 to review the Treasurers records for the 2016/2017 season.

The review included:

1. Reconciling Bank Statements with Treasurers Reports based on the check register balances.
2. Sampling deposit records and corresponding bank records.
3. Sampling expense disbursement records with check register and bank records
4. Reviewing record keeping processes and methodology

Results:

1. All monthly records since the last audit reconcile to bank statements based on a sampling.
2. Adequate deposit documentation was available and records matched. However, there were some issues:
 - a. auditors had some difficulty matching records with bank statements and check register due to "posting date" mismatches.
 - b. There is no documented link between the amount of deposited funds and the original source of the funds.
3. All expense disbursements were supported by invoices or other supporting documentation.
 - a. One outstanding check over 6 months (Wells Fargo account)
4. All record keeping was computerized and supporting hardcopy documentation was kept by month in a large binder.
 - a. Manual check register documentation regarding description of transactions was limited.
5. Record keeping processes and methodology were disconnected and failed to work smoothly.
 - a. A new process was implemented this season to keep both manual and computer records simultaneously. The process is cumbersome and increases the risk of data mismatches due to communication lapses
 - b. Wells Fargo Bank account is still open and must be closed to reduce administrative time and potential errors

6. We did not reconcile restricted vs non-restricted deposits or expenses. Review of restricted deposits will be completed at a later date.
7. Previous audit recommendations were partially implemented.
 - a. All deposits are confirmed with corresponding bank receipts
 - b. Continued digital records and took extra care in allocating income and expenses to the correct accounts.
 - c. Reviewed all categorization and ensured record keeping corresponds to the approved budget categories.

Recommendations:

1. Follow up, or reissue, outstanding Wells Fargo check and close the Wells Fargo account.
2. Complete reconciliation of restricted and non-restricted funds at close of season.
3. In order to address the documentation issue related to the initial source of deposited funds, issue a receipt for all income with a copy for the club records.
 - a. Receipts for funds generated from fund raisers, plant sales etc. should be issued to the chairperson. If bank deposits are “batched”, maintain detail of each deposit including the source and amount. This detail must be recorded and filed with deposit receipt. Documents related to restricted funds should be marked “R”
4. Record additional documentation for each transaction manually in the check register.
5. The Chairperson for each major event (with expected revenue generation over $3000) must submit a summary budget to the Board for approval prior to authorization of funds. The treasurer must keep a record of the budget approval document.
6. Each Chairperson is responsible for funds received or disbursed by their specific committee. The chairperson should provide adequate documentation to the treasurer. In addition, each chairperson should be required to maintain their own document file for this purpose.

ON BEHALF OF THE ENTIRE BOARD, WE WISH TO THANK SUSAN McCONNELL AND ANDY McCONNELL FOR THEIR SERVICE AS TREASURER AND ASS'T TREASURER AND FOR “A JOB WELL DONE”

Flagler Spring Festival: Change of venue helps annual plant sale branch out

Visitors, vendors hail event's move to Town Center in Palm Coast

By Mark Estes, Correspondent

PALM COAST — Vendor tents lined the walkway along the north shore of Central Park Lake in Town Center on Saturday as members of the Garden Club at Palm Coast took full advantage of lovely weather at their new venue during the club's annual Spring Festival and Plant Sale.

To the south, kites swooped in the sky as passersby stepped aside to let a children's train come through, all to a soundtrack provided by local entertainers and broadcast throughout the park.

Flagler County Commissioner Nate McLaughlin opened the day's entertainment, singing and playing the guitar. He was followed by Reuben "Lounge Lizard" Morgan of Daytona Beach. Seona McDowell and Sunshine Mafia were also on the bill.

McCrary's Sunny Hill Nursery of Eustis and Adamson's Orchids of Cocoa were next to each other, as they have been in previous years, dazzling the eye with brightly blooming bromeliads and orchids of all colors. Daphene Adamson was pleased with the new location for the festival.

"We do a lot of indoor orchid shows, garden club conventions, outdoor arts and crafts fairs," Adamson said. "This new location has been fantastic. It reminds me a lot of Lake Eola, but Lake Eola's a nightmare to get into and this is wonderful. We try to have a large selection, and I'm always of guilty of bringing too much. It's mostly orchids, I have a few tropical hanging plants as well."

Spring fest, plant sale get room to grow

By Mark Estes
Correspondent

For those looking to get into the spirit of spring and the outdoors, the Garden Club at Palm Coast is planning its annual Spring Festival and Plant Sale at Town Center in Palm Coast from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. April 8.

The change of venue is partially to accommodate the expanded event.

"We moved for two reasons," event coordinator Denise Garcia said.

"We wanted to continue to grow and the parking situation had gotten out of hand. We also want to show Palm Coast that we are a community event and we felt that Town Center would be more appropriate to bring in more citizens to learn about the Garden Club."

The Garden Club at Palm Coast Spring Festival and Plant Sale at Town Center on April 8 will feature plenty of plants and related goods. The anchor of the sale will be hundreds of plants produced by the club's Propagation Guild. (NEWS-TRIBUNE FILE/MARK ESTES)

The Garden Club anchors the show. The club's Propagation Guild produces popular, curious and unusual plants during the year for sale at the event, at unbeatable prices. Come early for the best selection, some of the rarer plants don't last long.

"The Propagation Guild will be there, and they've been working strong and hard with hundreds of plants for sale," Garcia said.

"The Arrangers Guild will be doing demonstrations, and will also have a children's activity."

The Kite Warehouse in Flagler Beach will be hosting kite-building for the kids, and given a good wind the sky could be full of kites.

Garcia says the new venue has allowed the club to add vendors, including larger vendors. There will also be a plant clinic hosted by Lowes.

This year there will be entertainment throughout the day, starting with Commissioner Nate McLaughlin at 9 a.m.

He'll be followed by Lounge Lizard at 10 and Australia's Seona McDowell at 11. KIX Country will take over at noon, and the afternoon will be covered by Sunshine Mafia.

Getting a bite to eat will be easier this year.

"We have a food court section with a tent, tables and chairs for people to sit down and enjoy," Garcia said. "Captain's BBQ is our main food vendor, and we have a couple of food trucks we're still acquiring."

Every year local high school students compete to produce the poster to be used at the following year's event. This year's three winners will be announced at 2:30 p.m.

Drawings will be held throughout the day. Garcia noted that there are more prizes than ever before and vendors were encouraged to donate prizes.

Dear Students,

As you may know, each year we engage in several fund-raising activities to be able to offer several college scholarships to graduating Palm Coast seniors who are interested in pursuing a career in the environmental sciences, horticulture and / or conservation. These activities are consistent with our mission which is to: "To aid in the protection and conservation of plants, birds, trees, air, and water; to stimulate a knowledge and love of horticulture and floral design; to educate members to participate in the environmental affairs and to encourage civic pride."

This year we are inviting all students to participate in a poster contest for the Garden Club at Palm Coast 2018 Festival to be held on April 7, 2018. This year is the fourth year for our poster contest. We plan to sell the winning poster artwork at the April 7th event. Our plan is to have a new poster design each year announcing and promoting the annual Festival event.

We plan to have 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners. We also plan to display all artwork entered at the Festival event.

- We would like the artwork to be representative of native plants, nature scapes and or wildlife in Palm Coast.
- To give the students a full month to create the artwork, we are proposing an entry deadline of March 1, 2018.
- We plan to have 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place winners. We also plan to display all artwork entered, displayed at the Festival event and interpreted into floral design.
- The winning artwork students will be invited to attend our regular Garden club meeting on March 12, 2018 for the unveiling of the artwork to our members. This will include their pictures to be entered local newspapers.
- The poster that will be sold at the Garden Club Festival will be approximately 11 x 17 in size. Students are welcome to create the poster in the medium they prefer.
- We also are asking that on the bottom of the poster artwork to include the announcement phrase as written below:

'The Garden Club of Palm Coast presents Garden Festival and Plant Sale April 7th, 2018

We are excited to discuss this new opportunity for you and look forward to seeing your final artwork.

We appreciate your time and consideration on this matter.
