Operation D.R.I.V.E.

AVOID DISTRACTIONS WHILE DRIVING

The Flagler County Sheriff's Office, the Florida Highway Patrol, the Flagler Beach Police Department and the Bunnell Police Department are combining efforts to participate in Operation DRIVE.

Operation DRIVE is a countywide traffic education and enforcement operation focusing on Distracted & Reckless Intersection Violation Enforcement.

Operation DRIVE aims to reduce all crash types and aggressive/reckless driving. Flagler County experienced a decrease in fatal crashes and crashes with injuries in 2021 but the data revealed that no injury or non-life threatening injury crashes increased. The majority of these increased crashes occurred while entering, within, and while exiting intersections. This Operation is aimed at educating and enforcing traffic safety violations surrounding these locations.

Parent Reminders

REMINDER FOR PARENTS

Know what your child is doing and who they are with – Be the Sheriff in your home!

With children spending more time than ever on the internet and social media, it is more important than ever to be proactive in your child's life, even if they are teenagers. Use monitoring apps and talk with your children about staying safe online. Remind them that fighting someone is not the solution for an argument. And, making a threat, even if they claim it is a joke, will be investigated and they could be arrested.

Autism Awareness

In honor of Autism Awareness Month, the FCSO will be launching a new Autism Awareness program to help those with Autism in Flagler County

About the Program

Does someone in your home have autism? If so, you may be interested in the Flagler County Sheriff's Office (FCSO) Autism Awareness. This is a program developed to help keep your loved one with autism safe. The program is based on Project Guardian developed by the Newport News (VA) Police Department.

The program is a free, voluntary, and confidential database offered, managed, and maintained by the FCSO for Flagler County residents.

How Do I Join the Program?

Go to FlaglerSheriff.com. At the top of the page there is a drop down menu called "Programs". Scroll down and select "Autism Awareness". You will be taken to a page with information on the program and an online application.

Deputies often do not know if individuals they encounter have autism. Information is key in helping deputies respond safely and effectively. All deputies in the FCSO receive training on autism. Knowing the person has autism will help deputies utilize their training:

- Turning off flashing emergency lights, if safe to do so.
- Remaining calm.
- Speaking in a calm tone of voice.
- Speaking simply and briefly.
- Moving slowly.
- Not touching the individual with autism, unless necessary for safety.
- Being friendly, patient, accepting and encouraging.
- Reassuring the person that no harm is intended.
- Announcing actions before initiating them.
- Giving space; not crowding the person.
- Being patient.
- Realizing the person with autism may have limited or no verbal skills.

- Attempting to learn what the person with autism is interested in and talking about it to help facilitate discussion.
- Not taking a lack of eye contact as a sign of guilt.
- Realizing that interacting with law enforcement can be very traumatizing for individuals with autism.

Additional tools to keep your loved ones safe

SafeTrak: is a bracelet that when worn will identify and assist in the quick recovery of participants suffering from certain medical conditions or those with special needs.
