DEFINITIONS

Filing Officer	The election official to whom a candidate submits his qualifying papers and campaign reports: for county-wide offices, the filing officer is the Flagler County Supervisor of Elections; for multi-county, state or federal offices, the filing officer is the Florida Department of State (F.S. 99.061). Municipal candidates file with their City Clerk.
In-Kind Contribution	A gift of goods, services or anything having attributable monetary value to a campaign, the value of which is determined by the person making the contribution (F.S. 106.011, 106.055).
Non-Partisan Office	An office for which a candidate is prohibited from campaigning or qualifying for an election or retention in office based on party affiliation (F.S. 97.021).
Petition Process	A method of qualifying for office which requires obtaining a pre-determined number of voter signatures on petitions (F.S. 99.095).
Political Advertisement	A paid expression in any communications media, whether radio, television, newspaper, magazine, periodical, campaign literature, direct mail or display or by means other than the spoken word in direct conversation, which supports or opposes any candidate, elected public official or issue (F.S. 106.011).
Qualifying Period	The dates set by law during which the final paperwork and a qualifying fee (if required) is filed with the candidate's filing officer (F.S. 99.061).

WHAT IS A CANDIDATE?

A candidate is defined in 97.021(4) & 106.011(16), Florida Statutes, as any person who:

- Seeks to qualify for nomination or election by means of a petitioning process;
- Seeks to qualify for election as a write-in candidate;
- Receives contributions or makes expenditures or gives his or her consent for any other person to receive contributions or make expenditures with a view to bringing about his or her nomination or election to, or retention in, public office;
- Appoints a treasurer and designates a primary depository; or
- Files qualification papers and subscribes to a candidate's oath as required by law.

WHO CAN BE A CANDIDATE?

Candidates for county and special district offices must be registered voters in Flagler County. Those seeking a partisan office may not have been a registered member of any other political party, including those running under No Party Affiliation (NPA), for 365 days before the beginning of qualifying preceding the General Election for which the person seeks to qualify (Deadline: June 11, 2023).

If required, one's current position or office must be resigned under the "resign to run" law and in accordance with section 99.012(3), Florida Statutes.

PRE-FILING FORMS

Candidates can file their DS-DE 9 and DS-DE 84 at any time before qualifying week. Nothing prohibits a person from announcing his or her intention to become a candidate prior to filing a Form DS-DE 9, as long as no contributions and expenditures have been made and a bank account has not been opened.

Form DS-DE 9, Appointment of Campaign Treasurer and Designation of Campaign Depository

- MUST be filed with the filing officer prior to opening the campaign banking account.
- DO NOT collect contributions or make expenditures until the form is filed.
- This form is not effective until fully completed, signed and filed with the filing officer.
- This form is not considered "filed" upon mailing.

Exception: Special district candidates who do not collect contributions and whose only expense is the signature verification fee for the petition method or qualifying fee are not required to file the DS-DE-9 [99.061(3)].

DO NOT OPEN YOUR CAMPAIGN BANK ACCOUNT UNTIL YOU FILE THE DS-DE 9 FORM WITH OUR OFFICE!

QUALIFYING BY PETITION METHOD

Local and judicial candidates will need 954 valid signatures.
Special district candidates will need 25 valid signatures.

A signature verification fee of $0.10 (ten cents) per each petition to be verified must be paid in advance out of the candidate's campaign account or petty cash (except for certain special district candidates). The candidate will receive a certification once petition requirements have been met. The petition certification is required during the official qualifying period. Write-in candidates are not required to collect petitions or pay a qualifying fee.

PETITION SUBMISSION DEADLINE:

Candidates for local office must submit the required number of valid petitions to the Supervisor of Elections prior to NOON on May 13, 2024.

It is recommended that you plan to collect more petitions than the requirement and submit them to the Elections Office in batches. We will verify the petitions as you collect them and provide a running total. Do not wait until the last minute to submit petitions! Candidates who fail to qualify by the petition method will be required to pay the qualifying fee.

QUALIFYING BY FEE

Any candidate, who does not obtain a Petition Certification in May 2024, must pay the qualifying fee to the Supervisor of Elections by the end of the qualifying period. The total amount of the fee is based upon a percentage of the annual salary of the office sought. A filing fee of 3% and an election assessment fee of 1% must be paid by all candidates for county office who qualify by fee method. Partisan candidates pay an additional 2% party assessment fee. Special districts pay $25.00. Write-in candidates pay no fee and are not required to obtain the petition certification.

A properly executed check drawn upon candidate's campaign account and signed by the campaign treasurer must be used to pay the qualifying fee.

What's My Qualifying Fee?

6% of annual salary	4% of annual salary	$25	$0
Partisan candidates for partisan offices	Nonpartisan candidates for partisan office and all nonpartisan offices	Special district offices	Write-in candidates for any office
