Background: The City of Palm Coast has been offering the annual Cultural Arts Financial Assistance Matching Grant program since 2002.

Palm Coast, Florida 32164

On behalf of the African American Cultural Society, Inc. (AACS), we appreciate your consideration of this grant proposal as well as the Leisure Services Advisory Committee and the Palm Coast City Council.

The AACS is celebrating 30 years of service and continues to provide to the community of Palm Coast, programs and activities that reveal the history and culture of people of African descent and provide information about the African Diaspora experience. We have planned several celebratory programs in 2021 to commemorate this milestone.

Based on our past year's attendance and the growing interest of residents and other organizations to support AACS programs at both our Center and about the community, we anticipate an opportunity in the coming year to serve more in the community of Palm Coast particularly our youth. We plan to continue to present cultural exhibits, participate in town festivals and celebrations in addition to our center-based programs and events as health restrictions allow. The Corona Virus Pandemic has caused us to introduce Virtual Presentations that we have successfully executed since June 2020.

The continued support of the City of Palm Coast as a partner in the perpetuation of our many programs is appreciated. We have provided all the information required for the application through the DocuSign process. We are once again soliciting grant funds to support the "AACS Cultural Arts Series" referenced in our Financial Assistance Application.

Thank you for your review and consideration. Should you need to contact me, I can be reached at 386-586-1411 (H), 386-569-1212 (C) or at the AACS Center, 386-447-7030.

Sincerely,

William L. Seeney

REQUEST FOR CULTURAL ARTS FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE
Application

2021-2022

Describe the purpose of the organization: The African American Cultural Society, Inc. was established in 1991 to preserve and perpetuate the cultural heritage of the African Diaspora through educational, artistic, intellectual and social activities and services deemed to be in the best interest of the entire community. In doing so, the African American Cultural Society has often been recognized for its contributions in serving the community through its programs and events that perpetuate and embellish its mission.

Describe the purpose of the program being considered for funding: The "AACS Annual Cultural Arts Series" consists of programs that educate, enlighten, enrich and entertain the City of Palm Coast Community on the unique arts and history of the African American community and African Diaspora. The following programs are included and require Grant assistance: (Continued on separate attachment)

If awarded, describe how the City of Palm Coast's financial assistance will be used: The Grant will be spread across the four (4) programs in the following manner: Kwanzaa Program: Cost of materials, promotional materials and performer/facilitator fees. Youth Reality Program: Cost of materials (e.g. Stage Props, Costumes, Reference Sources, etc.), promotional materials, a month long AACS Center Exhibit Display: Cost to lease panel displays and the Juneteenth Celebration: Cost of materials, facilitator fees, promotional materials. See Operating Budget Attachments for each Program.

Explain why funding requested from the City is essential for development of the program: The AACS Operational Budget is not sufficient to provide full funding for the stated program requirements. Although we encourage donations and contributions, they fall short of enabling the AACS to sometimes present a full program of the event and at times we may have to defer the program for that year.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL SOCIETY, INC

"CULTURAL ARTS SERIES" DESCRIPTION - 2021/2022

KWANZAA PROGRAM – offers the general public an opportunity to be informed on the history and cultural significance of this African American Holiday Season that celebrates family, community and culture. It is celebrated from December 26 thru January 1 and it takes its name from the first harvest celebrations of Africa. The seven days are highlighted by ceremonies depicting seven communitarian African values, commonly referred to as the "Seven Principles." Namely, Umoja (Unity), Kujichagulia (Self-Determination), Ujima (Collective Work and Responsibility), Ujamaa (Cooperative Economics), Nia (Purpose), Kuumba (Creativity), and Imani (Faith). Our program generally encompasses 1-2 days but includes the celebration of each of the seven principles. This takes place with the tenants of each principle being explained by speakers (in-house and guest performers) supplemented with appropriate props and exhibits. All of the events take place at the AACS Center on US#1, Palm Coast. (Public attendance is expected to be 150-175.) Planning is now underway to format this year's program. Budget requirements are attached.

YOUTH BLACK HISTORY REALITY PROGRAM – enables the youth of our community to study and reenact significant prominent African Americans and their contributions to American history in a theatrical program format. They dress in costume and use various props to highlight their presentation of that person. A lot of rehearsing and the time of AACS volunteers are required to prepare for this event. A guest performer may also be engaged to further enhance the program. This program is offered to the general public at the AACS Center, US#1, Palm Coast. It is generally held the third Sunday in February (Black History Month) from 4pm to 7pm and the program generally exceeds "capacity turnout" from the community (over 250). To see our youth extolling the virtues of various African American heroes they have been taught to know or being exposed to for the first time is very memorable to everyone. The youth are recruited from our schools, churches, clubs and AACS member families. Because of the size of the audience, a light fare is offered at the end for fellowship and cordiality. Budget requirements are attached.

DocuSign Envelope ID: D232258B-7C5A-4578-A810-A8E22B195ACA

AACS CENTER EXHIBIT DISPLAY- Leasing a professional Traveling Exhibit display with approximately 10 panels to highlight African American contributions to American culture. Each panel tells a story on a famous historical African American through photos and written narratives and is supported by DVD/Audio commentary. The exhibit will be displayed over a Four (4) week period during February/March or September 2022. The exhibit will be open to the public (donations only) and special arrangements made with cultural groups in the school system and other organizations will be extended. This is an opportunity for the AACS to present an extended program to the community that allows flexibility for viewing over a period of time. The AACS plans to expand its normal operations to provide access to view the exhibit on a daily basis. Projected attendance is expected to exceed 500. Budget requirements are attached.

JUNETEENTH PROGRAM – is an indoor/outdoor program at the AACS Center set in a festival style format to commemorate the ending of slavery in the United States. On June 19, 1865, the Union soldiers landed at Galveston, Texas with news that the war had ended and all slaves were now free, even though this was two and a half years after President Lincoln's Emancipation Proclamation. Our program includes interactive children activities as well as informational speakers on the occasion, music performances, exhibits, artifacts, artwork, books, and light food sales. The program is held over 1-2 days and attracts a sizable following from community patrons and members. (Public attendance is expected to be 150-200) "Juneteenth" has gained in popularity nationwide and is a program that must be featured as a National African American Historical event. In June 2021, Congress made June 19th a National Holiday. Budget requirements are attached.
Of Note: Due to the Corona Virus Pandemic, the June 2020 and 2021 Programs were conducted as a Virtual Video Program with public access. Over 500 public contacts were counted.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL SOCIETY, INC

GENERAL STATEMENT

The Cultural Arts Programs held at the AACS Center are always open to the general public with no admission charge. Grant monies and donations, not operating funds, generally support these programs. That is why grant funds are so essential for the delivery of these and other cultural programs to our community. It is also important to note that most of the African American and African Diaspora Cultural Programs presented by the AACS are the only venue in the Flagler County area to offer these presentations to the community.

Dear TAXPAYER:

This is in response to your Aug. 25, 2010, request for information regarding your tax-exempt status.

Our records indicate that you were recognized as exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code in a determination letter issued in FEBRUARY 1993.

Our records also indicate that you are not a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code because you are described in section(s) 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi).

Donors may deduct contributions to you as provided in section 170 of the Code. Bequests, legacies, devises, transfers, or gifts to you or for your use are deductible for Federal estate and gift tax purposes if they meet the applicable provisions of sections 2055, 2106, and 2522 of the Code.

Please refer to our website www.irs.gov/eo for information regarding filing requirements. Specifically, section 6033(j) of the Code provides that failure to file an annual information return for three consecutive years results in revocation of tax-exempt status as of the filing due date of the third return for organizations required to file.

If you have any questions, please call us at the telephone number shown in the heading of this letter.

Sincerely yours,

Michele M. Sullivan

'THE BLACK CANDLE' SYNOPSIS

The Black Candle is a landmark, vibrant documentary film that uses Kwanzaa as a vehicle to explore and celebrate the African-American experience.

Narrated by world renowned poet Maya Angelou and directed by award-winning author and filmmaker MK Asante, The Black Candle is an extraordinary, inspirational story about the struggle and triumph of family, community, and culture.

Filmed across the United States, Africa, Europe and the Caribbean, The Black Candle is a timely illumination on why the seven principles of Kwanzaa (unity, self-determination, collective work and responsibility, cooperative economics, purpose, creativity and faith) are relevant today.

The first feature film on Kwanzaa, The Black Candle traces the holiday's growth from the first celebration in 1966 to its present-day reality as a global holiday embraced by over 20 million celebrants.

With vivid cinematography and an all star cast that features NFL Legend Jim Brown, Hip Hop icon Chuck D, Kwanzaa's founder Dr. Maulana Karenga, artist Synthia Saint James and many others, The Black Candle is more than a film about a holiday: it's a celebration of a people!

CAS was formed by Artistic Director Cheryl Robinson McGregor in 1999. A Palm Coast tradition, CAS is the premier performance choir in Flagler County. Members are amateur singers who maintain a high level of vocal artistry. Three major concerts are scheduled each year.

II. Spring: Music from the Stage (2 performances) Average attendance of 325 over 2 days
July 4th: Celebrate America with a rousing patriotic program Average attendance of 545 in one day
December: Sound of Christmas (2 performances) Average attendance of 520 over 2 days

III. There is no admission charge for our concerts, but a free will donation offering is received. Each year we donate a portion of its proceeds to the CAS Scholarship Fund for music education. We currently have 3 students on scholarship from Flagler Palm Coast High School - 1 attending Stetson University, 1 attending Florida Atlantic University and 1 attending Lynn University, Boca Raton. Each of the current students, as well as former students, perform at least 1 of our concerts each year during their 4 year scholarship term.

IV. All concerts are performed at St. Thomas Episcopal Church, 5400 Belle Terre Pkwy, Palm Coast, FL

V. Funding from the City of Palm Coast will be used to defray the cost of advertising and enhance our social media presence both of which continue to increase each year.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS
EV'RYWHERE YOU GO;
TAKE A LOOK IN THE FIVE AND TEN
GLISTENING ONCE AGAIN
WITH CANDY CANES AND SILVER LANES AGLOW.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS
TOYS IN EV'RY STORE
BUT THE PRETTIEST SIGHT TO SEE
IS THE HOLLY THAT WILL BE ON YOUR OWN FRONT DOOR.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS
EV'RYWHERE YOU GO;
THERE'S A TREE IN THE GRAND HOTEL,
ONE IN THE PARK, AS WELL,
THE STURDY KIND THAT DOESN'T MIND THE SNOW.

IT'S BEGINNING TO LOOK A LOT LIKE CHRISTMAS
SOON THE BELLS WILL START;
AND THE THING THAT WILL MAKE THEM RING
IS THE CAROL THAT YOU SING RIGHT WITHIN YOUR HEART

DECK THE HALLS

DECK THE HALLS WITH BOUGHS OF HOLLY,
FA LA LA LA LA, LA LA LA LA.
'TIS THE SEASON TO BE JOLLY,
FA LA LA LA LA, LA LA LA LA.

DON WE NOW OUR GAY APPAREL,
FA LA LA LA LA, LA LA LA LA.
TOLL THE ANCIENT YULE TIDE CAROL,
FA LA LA LA LA, LA LA LA LA.

SEE THE BLAZING YULE BEFORE US.

FA-LA-LA-LA-LA, LA-LA-LA-LA

STRIKE THE HARP AND JOIN THE CHORUS.

FOLLOW ME IN MERRY MEASURE.
FA-LA-LA-LA-LA, LA-LA-LA-LA
WHILE I TELL OF YULE-TIDE TREASURE.
FA-LA-LA-LA-LA, LA-LA-LA-LA

IRVING BERLIN'S WHITE CHRISTMAS

THE SUN IS SHINING, THE GRASS IS GREEN,
THE ORANGE AND PALM TREES SWAY.
THERE'S NEVER BEEN SUCH A DAY IN HAMMOCK DUNES FLA
BUT IT'S DECEMBER THE TWENTY-FOURTH,
AND I AM LONGING TO BE UP NORTH.

I'M DREAMING OF A WHITE CHRISTMAS,
JUST LIKE THE ONES I USED TO KNOW.
WHERE THE TREETOPS GLISTEN,
AND CHILDREN LISTEN,
TO HEAR SLEIGH BELLS IN THE SNOW.

I'M DREAMING OF A WHITE CHRISTMAS,
WITH EVERY CHRISTMAS CARD I WRITE
MAY YOUR DAYS BE MERRY AND BRIGHT
AND MAY ALL YOUR CHRISTMASES BE WHITE!

JOY TO THE WORLD

JOY TO THE WORLD, THE LORD HAS COME,
LET EARTH RECEIVE HER KING.
LET EVERY HEART PREPARE HIM ROOM
AND HEAVEN AND NATURE SING,
AND HEAVEN AND NATURE SING,
AND HEAVEN, AND HEAVEN, AND NATURE SING.

JOY TO THE EARTH; THE SAVIOR REIGNS;
LET MEN THEIR SONGS EMPLOY;
WHILE FIELDS AND FLOODS, ROCKS, HILLS, AND PLAINS
REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY,
REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY,
REPEAT, REPEAT THE SOUNDING JOY.

DocuSign Envelope ID: 9AA524FD-4CCB-42F6-83E7-8E29ECE78316

GOD REST YE MERRY GENTLEMEN

GOD REST YOU MERRY, GENTLEMEN LET NOTHING YOU DISMAY
REMEMBER, CHRIST, OUR SAVIOR WAS BORN ON CHRISTMAS DAY
TO SAVE US ALL FROM SATAN'S POWER WHEN WE WERE GONE ASTRAY
O TIDINGS OF COMFORT AND JOY, COMFORT AND JOY
O TIDINGS OF COMFORT AND JOY.

IN BETHLEHEM, IN JEWRY, THIS BLESSED BABE WAS BORN,
AND LAID WITHIN A MANGER UPON THIS BLESSED MORN;
TO WHICH HIS MOTHER MARY DID NOTHING TAKE IN SCORN
O TIDINGS OF COMFORT AND JOY, COMFORT AND JOY
O TIDINGS OF COMFORT AND JOY.

THE CHRISTMAS SONG

CHESTNUTS ROASTING ON AN OPEN FIRE,
JACK FROST NIPPING AT YOUR NOSE;
YULETIDE CAROLS BEING SUNG BY A CHOIR
AND FOLKS DRESSED UP LIKE ESKIMOS

EVERYBODY KNOWS A TURKEY AND SOME MISTLETOE
HELP TO MAKE THE SEASON BRIGHT;
TINY TOTA WITH THEIR EYES ALL AGLOW
WILL FIND IN HARD TO SLEEP TONIGHT.

THEY KNOW THAT SANTA'S ON HIS WAY,
HE'S LOADED LOTS OF TOYS AND GOODIES ON HIS SLEIGH,
AND EVERY MOTHER'S CHILD IS GONNA SPY
TO SEE IF REINDEER REALLY KNOW HOW TO FLY.

AND SO WE'RE OFFERING THIS SIMPLE PHRASE
TO KIDS FROM ONE TO NINETY-TWO;
ALTHOUGH IT'S BEEN SAID MANY TIMES, MANY WAYS;
"MERRY CHRISTMAS, MERRY CHRISTMAS,
MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU!"

DocuSign Envelope ID: 9AA524FD-4CCB-42F6-83E7-8E29ECE78316

SILVER BELLS

CITY SIDEWALKS, BUSY SIDEWALKS
DRESSED IN HOLIDAY STYLE
IN THE AIR THERE'S A FEELING OF CHRISTMAS
CHILDREN LAUGHING PEOPLE PASSING
MEETING SMILE AFTER SMILE
AND ON EVERY STREET CORNER YOU'LL HEAR
SILVER BELLS, SILVER BELLS
IT'S CHRISTMAS TIME IN THE CITY
RING-A-LING, HEAR THEM RING
SOON IT WILL BE CHRISTMAS DAY

RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER

RUDOLPH, THE RED-NOSED REINDEER
HAD A VERY SHINY NOSE.
AND IF YOU EVER SAW HIM,
YOU WOULD EVEN SAY IT GLOWS.

ALL OF THE OTHER REINDEER
USED TO LAUGH AND CALL HIM NAMES.
THEY NEVER LET POOR RUDOLPH
JOIN IN ANY REINDEER GAMES.

THEN ONE FOGGY CHRISTMAS EVE
SANTA CAME TO SAY:
"RUDOLPH WITH YOUR NOSE SO BRIGHT,
WON'T YOU GUIDE MY SLEIGH TONIGHT?"

THEN ALL THE REINDEER LOVED HIM
AS THEY SHOUTED OUT WITH GLEE,
RUDOLPH THE RED-NOSED REINDEER,
YOU'LL GO DOWN IN HISTORY!

JINGLE BELLS

DASHING THROUGH THE SNOW IN A ONE HORSE OPEN SLEIGH.
OVER THE FIELDS WE GO LAUGHING ALL THE WAY.

BELLS ON BOB-TAIL RING MAKING SPIRITS BRIGHT.
WHAT FUN IT IS TO RIDE AND SING A SLEIGHING SONG TONIGHT.

JINGLE BELLS, JINGLE BELLS, JINGLE ALL THE WAY.
OH WHAT FUN IT IS TO RIDE IN A ONE HORSE OPEN SLEIGH, O
JINGLE BELLS, JINGLE BELLS, JINGLE ALL THE WAY.
OH WHAT FUN IT IS TO RIDE IN A ONE HORSE OPEN SLEIGH.

DING DONG MERRILY ON HIGH

DING DONG MERRILY ON HIGH,

April 2021

Dear Friends and Family of the Choral Arts Society:

We hope you and your loved ones are safe, healthy, and well. Because of the COVID pandemic, this year has been difficult for us all. All performing arts organizations, including Choral Arts Society, have had to discontinue their concerts, plays, and performances. However, our Board of Directors has been meeting regularly, creating a pathway for the future. We had planned a wonderful season of concerts, celebrating what we do best – superb, fun, choral music in Flagler County.

We have had to cancel our first two concerts of our 2021 season: Our May Broadway Concerts and our Fourth of July Concert. It is just not safe yet to sing out openly. As the Choral Arts Board continues to work throughout this pandemic, we are hoping to start up rehearsals in early September to prepare for our Christmas Concerts in our usual fashion in December 2021. Fingers crossed!

A major source of our funding source each year is from generous donations provided by you our fans at all our concerts. With our concerts and sources of income canceled for 2020 and most of 2021, we need funding. We ask you now to show your endorsement of the Choral Arts Society and for our future. This is not an easy thing for us to ask! But we need your financial support. Please show your backing for the Choral Arts Society, what we stand for, and for the power of music in your life by donating or making a pledge.

We hope you will want to contribute to the future of music in the Palm Coast area and help us with a donation. All contributions are tax-deductible, and we are grateful for donations of any amount.

Our sincere thanks for continuing to be part of the Choral Arts family. Your gracious generosity helps ensure that we realize our top priorities: to sustain the Choral Arts Society of Palm Coast and continue to nurture good choral music in the greater Flagler County area. We are looking forward to seeing you at our Christmas concerts in December. Fingers and everything else crossed!

Many Thanks!

To All Members of the Choral Arts Society,

I really missed your concerts in 2020 but understand they had to be cancelled. We all have to keep safe. I am sending this donation so you can give the scholarships to the students you pick to help.

I am hoping to be enjoying the concerts this year but will understand if you feel you need to wait another year.

God Bless you all,

Isabel Culmone

Love your Concerts!

4/20/20 Cheryl,

I did not think I would be here for any of your 2020 concerts - such a disappointment for me. However now with no planes flying into New York my May 6th flight is a cancel. I may still be here for the May 24th Concert. Even if the situation improves I think I will stay until at least May 25th - I only hope the Concert will be held!

Hello!

My name is Emily Rosenberger and I am the Program Director here at Tuscan Gardens Senior Living of Palm Coast. A resident recently recommended the July 4th Choral Arts Society Concert as an outing for other residents here – I was wondering if it would be possible to reserve tickets for the event? A small group of us recently went to another concert and they absolutely loved it so I am trying to set up more opportunities for residents to enjoy the arts.
I appreciate any feedback! Thank you for your time,
Emily

Subject: Sunday's Concert

Hello Betty:

Just a few lines to tell you how much I enjoyed the concert on Sunday. In all the years I've been attending the CAS concerts, I think about (8 or longer), this is the first time I've ever heard your Director, Cheryl Robinson, sing a solo. I never knew she had such a beautiful voice and myself & my guests enjoyed the whole concert very much. I always love hearing your solos and Cynthia & Harriett's solos as well. I especially love how the group always sings songs that everyone is familiar with. Also, just to let you know, I invited 18 friends for Sunday's concert, and out of those 18, only 8 of us actually were able to attend. Most of those I invited were going out of town. I also announced it to our President of the Sunshine Social Club so she could announce it to our other club members. Anyway, please tell Cheryl how much my friends & I all enjoyed her singing & hope she will sing more often. I look forward to attending the 4th of July concert, and hope to bring more friends in the future. I use to march in the 4th of July parade in Flagler Beach with our Flagler Beach Yacht Club, but after a few years of marching in the terribly hot sun and hot afternoon picnics. I decided to attend your patriotic concerts and never looked back. Now I look forward to celebrating my Independence Day inside a cool church and enjoying the beautiful music of the Choral Arts Society. God bless you all for bringing so much enjoyment to others through music.

Yours truly,
Carol Caso

Re: Palm Coast Cultural Arts Grant

City Lites Inc is a non-profit, charitable organization that produces various musical and dramatic performances annually, as fundraisers, to provide scholarships for college-bound youth for the past ten years. City Lites Inc carried on the traditional Motown program started by the late Carlos Ann Butler in the the public schools during the late 1990s and has broadened it to reach a wide audience. We provide opportunities for community volunteerism and student education through cultural arts performance in Palm Coast and surrounding communities. Our organization's continuing success has been in part through the support of the Flagler Auditorium, Dennis Fitzgerald Performing Arts Center. On December 17 and 18, 2021 City Lites will perform a 2021 Motown and Mo' Christmas Show. We anticipate an attendance totaling more than 700.

Our program volunteers are a diverse group of people from varied backgrounds, ethnicities and ages. There are limited opportunities in the area for performances of the type that we provide and we need more. The community of Flagler county has always come out and fully supported our performances, which indicates the interest and need for more diverse entertainment offerings in our county. City Lites has been a vital resource in the community, providing arts education opportunities and growth experiences to youth, promoting volunteerism for youth and seniors alike, bringing diverse cultural arts entertainment to our area, which serves as a vital source of community building. Families and individuals who are residents and visitors to our area all benefit from our performances. Many of our out-of-town audience plan their return trip a year in advance to see our performances.. City Lites supports the Flagler Palm Coast School of Performing Arts programs providing an opportunity for youth to have a theatrical experience and hone their craft in lighting, staging and other performance support. The scholarships provided have aided youth in their college financial need.

The City of Palm Coast's financial assistance, if awarded, will be used to enhance promotion and marketing of the program, purchase needed costume accessories, stage props and cover some printing expenses. The funding is essential for development of the program because our volunteers donate their personal funds in order for the organization to meet its obligations. Although we have been able to exist, it places an undue burden on those who volunteer their time and resources to make the show a success. Since the pandemic we have been unable to do our normal fundraising. The grant funds will allow us to eliminate some of those our program costs and also extend our reach in marketing and promotion of the program to ensure ticket sales. Proceeds from the event will go toward scholarships after expenses. Therefore financial support will allow more funds to be allocated toward our next fiscal year scholarships to Palm Coast youth.

In Flagler County, the arts have been a powerful resource providing a social and cultural benefit that builds community and economic growth. The county is growing rapidly in its development and support of the arts and humanities. City Lites, Inc. has been an integral part of that growth providing a significant impact in our community and our schools.

Veteran performer Donna Decina will turn back time with the Motown vocals.

Showtimes: Oct. 18, 19

Artists who have graced the stage for the performances of Motown & Mo' are the Temptations, Patti LaBelle, Marvin Gaye, Aretha Franklin, Barry White, Whitney Houston, and others.

"I've been in the show since the original Motown," said Donna Decina. "I've been there since Day 1, and I love it.

"I don't look at the walls anymore. I look at the people's faces," she said emphatically. "And, I think what works with us is that we start with prayer and end with prayer.

"Every year, I wear more shinier outfits," she added.

After 10 seasons as director, the show's creator – the late Carlos Ann Butler – retired.

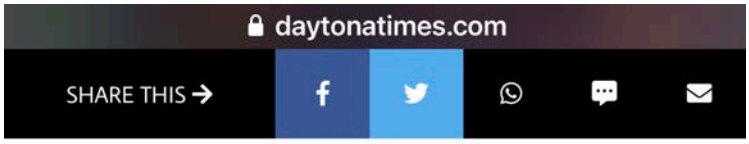

Motown & Mo' switched hands and became a City Lites production.

But, in April 2016, Carlos presented "Reunited," the Motown reunion, bringing the original cast to the stage.

Carlos unexpectedly passed away Sept. 18, 2016.

She introduced the performances the performances in 1998, just like the throwbacks of yesteryears when New

Alston joins cast

Interviewing a Motown newcomer, I asked:

"Give me your name."

"My name is Isaiah Alston."

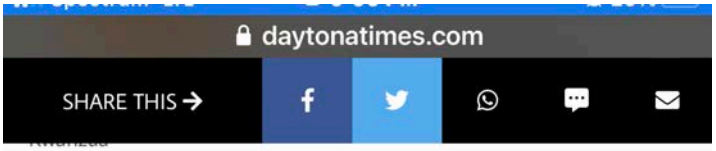

"Do you have a famous dad?"

"Yes. My father's name is Stanley Alston."

"Is this your first year on board with Motown?"

"Yes," he answered. "I did a Christmas show and a spring show with my friend, Luci Gillis, when we were in "A Taste of Broadway."' Luci then inquired whether he would have an interest in trying out for Motown & Mo,' wherein Isaiah's reply was in the affirmative.

"And everything else is part of the stage performance," Isaiah added, "the music and trying to work on the steps."

Memorable moments will gain energy and lyrical insight with a cast flaunting the stuff that Motown & Mo' is known for.

The best of Motown includes R&B, doo-wop, hip hop and jazz.

It's a showstopper for performances at Flagler Auditorium and among the year's highest achievements to arrive on the sound stage of the auditorium.

The show has gotten rave reviews from the community.

Some of the commentators announcing the smash hits have been Cynthia Black, Stacy Simpson, Donna Gray Banks, Jarred Armstrong and the late Willard Anderson.

I caught up with the cast in production at the Columbia Club, where new and veteran performers were turning back time with the Motown vocals and beyond.

Launching into "Jimmy Mack," the energy of Berdine Andrews flows thorough the microphone during a recent rehearsal as Charlene Adams and Chenita Johnson run through the choreographed steps behind her while the audience claps in sync.

"I truly love to dance and they've given me the opportunity to be the lead this year," said Andrews. "My confidence level has built up; I guess that's why they gave me a lead."

Andrews, Adams and Johnson are all part of the City Lites troupe that has been preparing for the 16th season of "Motown and Mo'," with shows set for Oct. 16-17 at the Flagler Auditorium.

Jimmy Sims, the troupe's director and president, said members really look forward to performing in the annual show.

It was an experience that probably would have pleased legendary Motown founder Berry Gordy as the local nonprofit organization City Lites delivered a two-day, three-show "Motown and Mo' " weekend at Flagler Auditorium.

Called "Drifting on a Memory," the weekend performances marked the first time that the show, now in its 15th year, was performed in Flagler County, a special and significant move for the group.

"This show is a bit more special than all of the preceding ones because we are home," Dr. Irving Robinson, president of City Lites, said in a written statement.

Perhaps even more special was that all proceeds from

Perhaps even more special was that all proceeds from the event will be used to fund two annual college scholarships for local high school students — one from Flagler Palm Coast High School and another from Matanzas – who are interested in the performing arts.

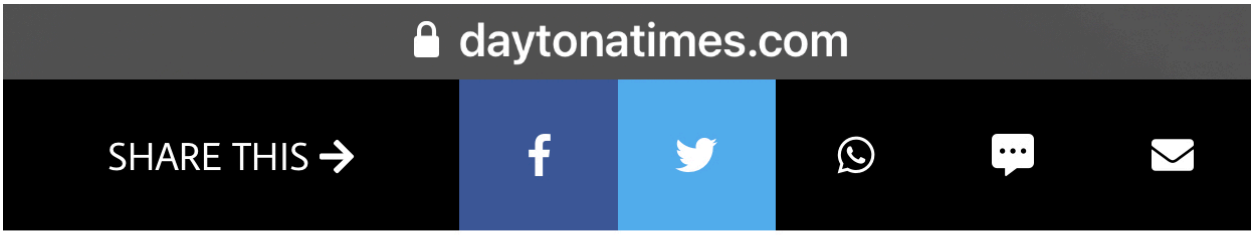

The show itself featured the sort of high-octane performances that any audience might expect from the likes of Motown icons such as the Temptations and Smokey Robinson and the Miracles as cast members of all ages took on the roles of these performers and several others.

Perhaps the most entertaining act of the night, judging from audience reaction, was cast member Michael Wyatt's interpretation of Michael Jackson performing "Billie Jean," complete with flashy dance moves that included Jackson's trademark "moonwalk."

It wasn't only Motown that carried the show as performers also took on more contemporary songs such as Adele's "Rolling in the Deep" and classics from other genres such as "It's Not Unusual" and "Burning Love."

In a 2017 interview regarding the cast, James L. Sims, director and City Lites president, said, "They work hard. They are local people that you see every day at the post office, the doctor's office, at Walmart. We walk among you, but we all come together for a common cause to support children."

City Lites, Inc., a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization, awards scholarships to graduating seniors transitioning into college and pursuing careers in the performing arts.

Marketing and Promotion Plan

We will market via a variety of print, online and traditional methods with flyers, posters, letters, email lists (targeting new and past attendees), public service announcements on commercial radio and on PBS radio and TV, press releases, paid media ads and phone calls. Paid newspaper, radio spots, and social media ads will be utilized. Also, promotions via organization newsletters, our website, Eventbrite and Facebook events pages as well as our organization page will advertise the event.

Direct contact with churches, schools, local organizations and governments will be made to encourage support, participation and assistance in spreading the word that our program is back. Volunteers and participants involved with the program will be asked to reach out by word of mouth and other methods to bring in ticket sales. In addition we participate in the Belk Charity event where we are able to approach a large potential audience in the Palm Coast community with advertising along with a fundraising opportunity. We hope to expand on that opportunity this year.

There will be a concerted effort to attract African American residents from underserved communities and to involve local families as well as students at the university level and young adults. Our program tends to attract a mainly white baby-boomer demographic, yet a survey indicates there is an interest in the programming by a wide variety of people; both baby boomers of any ethnicity and younger people who have discovered that much of their music was drawn from the 1960s and 1970s great musicians of the time.

Although a large percentage of audience participants are white, we do attract a diverse community following, which we will continue to seek in order to promote diversity, community and a better understanding of the musical history, culture and people of the African Diaspora (as well as those from other backgrounds who were well-known in the music industry of the time).

Dear Friend,

After six years of bringing the Flagler Playhouse to its highest point, Diane Ellertsen and John Sbordone founded a new theatre, City Repertory Theatre Inc., to fill an important function in the life of Flagler County.

OUR MISSION:

We establish a new theatre, unique in our community, to offer alternative entertainment; our plays and programs are intended to provoke the mind and the spirit, while providing excellent opportunities for serious actors to pursue their art. Further, we will explore new ideas in the community and create a forum for discussion. Our workshops will give students access to intensive training. And finally, we wish to generate an atmosphere for possibilities.

Surrounding themselves with a hard working and visionary Board of Directors,
CRT has already brought a most successful Poetry Clash to the County. This was followed by a student oriented workshop on Shakespeare culminating in an acclaimed, triumphant production of Rockabilliewillie.

In October, 2011 City Repertory Theatre officially opened with The Laramie Project, lauded as bringing a piece of New York City's Soho and Paris's Left Bank to Palm Coast.

CREATIVITY IS ALLOWING YOURSELF TO MAKE MISTAKES - ART IS KNOWING WHICH ONES TO KEEP

DIANE/JOHN

CO-FOUNDERS

With over 325 productions in academic, professional and community theatre, John Sbordone served as Director of Theatre and Head of Arts at the University of Maine, The Taft School and Wilbraham & Monson Academy, in addition to six years as Artistic Director for the Flagler Playhouse.

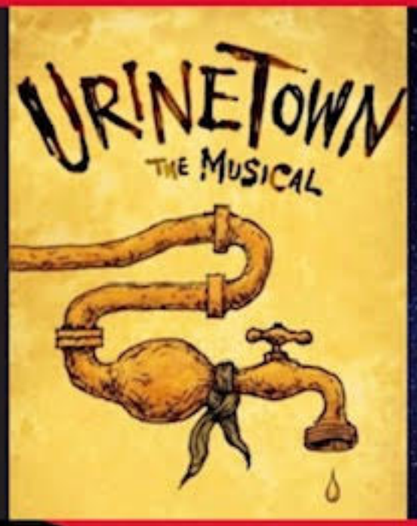

With a BFA in Dance from Boston Conservatory of Music and countless community theatre productions under her belt, Diane Ellertsen co-founded Theater Loft in Boston, MA. Diane worked as President and Choreographer for the Flagler Playhouse for four years in addition to running the Dance Dept. and overseeing the Pirate Theater at Matanzas High School last year.

Just saw "Avenue Q". What a wonderful way to spend the evening! This show is fun, irreverent, laugh-out-loud funny, touching, bawdy and the puppets seem like real people after a while. The actors are all amazing for not only remembering all those lines, but also for learning all the intricate movements of their puppet characters. Do not miss this show! Get your tickets now before it sells out! You will love it!

Amazing little theatre in the heart of our hometown!

Beau Wade recommends City Repertory Theatre.

This is one of the best places to see authentic, thought provoking, challenging shows in all of Northeast and Central Florida. If you love to see good theatre, come here. If you love to perform, this is the theatre you want to work at.

Larisa Palazzolo recommends City Repertory Theatre.

Wonderful job cast and crew! I arranged a field trip up to see your Sunday performance with a small group of my high school students and their parents. We just happened to be reading Taming of the Shrew this year. Thank you all for making their first exposure to a live performance of Shakespeare fun and engaging!! It was long drive for us from Port St Lucie and Stuart... but it was worth it!!

Fabulous local theater and venue. Lot's of new modern shows not the same old stuff. Intimate venue with a community feel, free parking, inexpensive tickets, great directing and interesting shows. I grew up in the theater and this is truly a unique 5 star theater.

At the auditions for this workshop, John and I acknowledged the use of a contract in order to fully understand the scope of this venture. We have put together the following in order to outline what this workshop is about. Please read it carefully and return to us, signed, at our next session. To put this into perspective, there are 23 sessions before we run the workshop production performance of THE SKINNY ON THE SKINNY.

Thank you,
Diane and John

CRT WORKSHOP

I understand that the workshop production is contingent upon the consistent participation and good will of the ensemble.

I understand I am an integral part of the ensemble and I have a responsibility to each of my fellow ensemble members as well as CRT.

I understand I am a vital part of this group and the whole group is vital to the production.

I understand I am committing to three sessions a week beginning June 11th, 2012 and culminating in the workshop productions Thursday, August 2nd and run thru the weekend.

I pledge not to miss more than two sessions over the course of the workshop and to be in attendance for all sessions beginning July 23rd.

By signing below, I accept the CRT Scholarship of $400.00 to participate in The Skinny on the Skinny Workshop.

I further understand that this scholarship makes me part of CRT's family and obligates me to participate in some aspect of at least two productions in the 2012/2013 season.

1. Describe the purpose of the organization.
   We created City Repertory Theatre (CRT)) to be a unique resource to our community, offering alternative entertainment. Playing to no less than forty, per performance, our plays and youth programs are intended to provoke both the mind and the spirit, while providing excellent opportunities for serious actors to pursue their art. Further, we explore new ideas in the community and create a forum for discussion. Our summer workshops give students access to intensive training culminating in public performances. Funding from The City of Palm Coast will be used to offset the royalty costs associated with our season productions.

2. Describe the program being considered for funding and its purpose.
   As we have for the past ten years, we will present a challenging program of plays and musicals, combining new, cutting-edge works with familiar classics, always keeping in mind our goals.

The 2021-2022 Season will include:

Lady Day at Emerson's Bar and Grill 9-26 thru 9-26-2021
The time is 1959. The place is a seedy bar in Philadelphia. The audience is about to witness one of Billie Holiday's last performances, given four months before her death. More than a dozen musical numbers are interlaced with salty, often humorous, reminiscences to project a riveting portrait of the lady and her music.

Urinetown 10-22 thru 10-31-2021
A sidesplitting sendup of greed, love, revolution (and musicals!), in a time when water is worth its weight in gold.
Urinetown* is a hilarious musical satire of the legal system, capitalism, social irresponsibility, populism, bureaucracy, corporate mismanagement, municipal politics and musical theatre itself!

Hilariously funny and touchingly honest, Urinetown provides a fresh perspective on one of America's greatest art forms.

Blithe Spirit 12-2 thru 12-5-2021
The smash comedy hit of the London and Broadway stages, this much-revived classic from the playwright of Private Lives offers up fussy, cantankerous novelist Charles Condomine, re-married but haunted (literally) by the ghost of his late first wife, the clever and insistent Elvira who is called up by a visiting happily wacky soothsayer, one Madame Arcati.

Wait Until Dark 1-21 thru 1-30-2022
A Broadway hit, this masterfully constructed thriller moves from one moment of suspense to another as it builds toward an electrifying, breath-stopping final scene. WAIT UNTIL DARK is a tense thriller. Playwright Frederick Knott is a master craftsman…This is a first rate shocker,the suspense drama we've long awaited eagerly.

The Revolutionists 3-11 thru 3-20-2022
Greetings from the French Revolution—where heads will roll. When you put former queen Marie Antoinette, assassin Charlotte Corday, playwright Olympe de Gouges, and Caribbean spy Marianne Angelle in a room together, literally ANYTHING can happen—especially big laughs! France's fight for equality and freedom propels itself to modern times with this bold, brave and blisteringly funny new work about feminism, legacy and standing up for one's beliefs. Who runs the world? The jury's still out, but these girls sure as hell changed it.

Waiting for Godot 4-29 thru 5-8-2022
WAITING FOR GODOT revolves around two seemingly homeless men simply waiting for someone—or something to happen. They wait near a tree, they talk. Nothing seems to happen. The result is a comical wordplay of poetry, dreamscapes, and nonsense, which has been interpreted as mankind's inexhaustible search for meaning. One of the great masterpieces of the 20th Century, Samuel Beckett's play is brought to you by Victoria Page, Earl Levine, Beau Wade and Bethany Stillion.

Dear Friends, September, 2020

We hope you are all well and safe. Many of us, as we are sure you are, are looking forward to the possibilities of our upcoming season. Beau, Angela, Agata, Diane and I have worked to find a way to safely open our 10th year in early October. We will be performing in an outdoor venue to ensure the safety and well being of our patrons and cast. Our good friends at The Palm Coast Arts Foundation have volunteered their space at Towne Center to assist our efforts.....

Dear Friends July, 2021

WOW!!!! Remember that? With all of the support we received through out the year, we are opening our 11th Season back at CRT'!! We are grateful for the encouragement and perseverance of you: our patrons and the support from The Palm Coast Arts Foundation and Flagler Auditorium. Our casts and crews did double duty transporting costumes, sets, props, lights and more from CRT to THE TENT. And from the tent to the storage area before and after each rehearsal and performance! We value their dedication to our mission and their desire to create art.

A Message from our Artistic Director: May, 2021:

I have been thinking hard over the last week to find an 11th season that meets CRT'S stated mission. That mission includes provoking the mind and the spirit and providing challenging acting vehicles for the dedicated actor/artists who choose to work with us. Over our first 10 seasons we've stayed fairly true to those goals producing groundbreaking plays; we've introduced Shakespeare in the Park and premiered original plays in Florida. We've nurtured the talents of many young actors and watched them grow into serious students of the theatre. We've worked with seasoned professionals and provided them the opportunity to stretch their creative muscles and thrive. I surely think CRT'S first 10 seasons have met the challenges of our mission and succeeded.

Our 11th season, following a devastating year of COVID and isolation, needs to reestablish our goals while providing access to funds so that we may survive financially. I propose the following season that is at once old and new, daring and challenging and continues to provoke the mind and challenge our actors. John Sbordone

We open our season September 17th and once again offer a Season Pass for our upcoming productions: six shows for the price of five @ a cost of $120.00. We hope you will join us as we continue to create for Flagler County and beyond

See you in the theatre, Diane, John and the entire CRT family!

To whom it may concern:

As the founder of Family Matters of Flagler, I am submitting a Request for a Cultural Arts Financial Assistance grant in the amount of $3,000. Our organization understands that it is an 80% contribution and our total event will cost $6,000.

Family Matters of Flagler Inc. is a small, volunteer run not for profit organization. We have a dedicated group of Board members and well over 60 volunteers who assist in our mission of serving the families of Flagler County. Since we are a small agency, we have a small budget, under $10,000 and we have no paid staff. We have several collaborative agreements with signed MOU's that offer our organization in-kind (free) full service office space, with telephone and electric bills being paid by volunteers and we are negotiating to rehire paid, part time staff in a job training program with AARP called Senior Corp of Employment (SCEP) which was suspended due to the pandemic.

Family Matters of Flagler has been in existence since 1998 and we founded several initiatives in our community, with many of them still in operation today. And we are proud to say that in 1999, we assisted the City of Palm Coast when it was first created by helping them establish their first parks and recreation programming by working in partnership to obtain a five year federal juvenile justice delinquency grant for $100,000 a year for five years. This award funded the creation and operation of the Flagler Youth Center.

Family Matters of Flagler is known as a very active advocacy organization and for the last year we have been advocating and providing direct services on behalf of the city's homeless population. We are proud to say that we cleaned up the area behind the library and relocated the

DocuSign Envelope ID: A19C1F02-56B3-43FD-AEEB-CBFBC1B426F7

38 people living there. We aided 13 of them to move out of the area, with five moving out of state, two moving to Jacksonville, four to Volusia County and two to Orlando and the rest remain in Flagler County, with a few of them still residing in tents scattered throughout the city. We actively provide case management, food, transportation and occasionally recreational activities to those affected by homelessness.

In addition, we have been actively educating our elected officials on the need for a dedicated senior center. We sponsor several senior groups and we are currently serving 300 seniors who want to socialize and gather together. Our goal is to provide services on a daily basis in our own facility that has the ability to serve food because our seniors still want to socialize and many are on fixed incomes, so going out to restaurants is a true luxury they can't afford. Twenty eight percent (28%) of our county's population is over 65 and the city has the highest concentration of seniors 90 and above and many of them are still active in community events.

Family Matters is known for their ability to create programs that meet our community's unmet needs and we design the programs with sustainability in mind from the beginning.

Examples of the programs we started are Flagler County Youth Center, Focus on Flagler Youth Coalition, the Palm Coast Historical Society, The African American Cultural Society Third Eye program, and the Flagler Chapter of the Boys and Girls Club. All of these programs are thriving today. We also assisted three times with the start up and fund development of a Flagler County YMCA. However, they are unable to continue to support programming in Flagler County without the County or City's help.

Our current initiatives include a senior employment program where we train and place senior citizens at not for profits or government agencies to upgrade their skills so they can re-enter the workforce.

In addition, we have embarked on our own food journey by acquiring a licensed food truck that we bring to community events to raise funds and to deliver the message that Disenfranchised Populations Matter!

Family Matters is a mobile organization registered in the City of Palm Coast. Our office is a rehabilitated former mobile pet diagnostic lab that we converted and have placed on the road as a mobile office. Attached is a picture of the office when acquired and a new picture of it as it stands now prior to us finding a sponsor which we are actively seeking.

One of the greatest unmet needs we face is transportation. Several of the City's residents are unable to drive so we ventured into the area of transportation and we take trips out of county at least twice a month to visit and partake in cultural events outside of our community. And we actively advertise and participate in the City's Cultural Arts funded program events as well as activities provided at the Palm Coast Community Center.

Please feel free to contact me at 386-225-3053 at any time or by email to discuss our organization and how we can work together to demonstrate to Palm Coast residents that we both care about our community and its Disenfranchised Populations.

Palm Coast Cultural Arts 2021-2022 Application

Cultural Immersion

Family Matters of Flagler with the sponsorship of the City of Palm Coast Cultural Arts program clearly recognized in all print and radio advertisements would like to bring a Cultural Immersion to the Palm Coast Community Center.

It is our mission with this program to educate and bring awareness of the vast cultural experiences that one can have right here in their own backyard. Some of the founders and Board members of Family Matters have lived in Palm Coast since its founding and it has been their combined experiences that have led them to design the Palm Coast Cultural Immersion program.

Palm Coast Cultural Immersion will be a one day training program that immerses participants in the cultural programs offered by the multitude of cultural arts organizations in Palm Coast. Participants will be able to explore the rich cultural history that Palm Coast offers and participants will be taken on a tour around the city to show off the organizations that have brick and mortar facilities, like the African American Cultural Society, the Palm Coast Arts Foundation, the Flagler County Art League and some of its newest art galleries that have opened up around the city. The program will also offer some one act theater performances and art exhibits from organizations that were founded in the city but had to relocate out of the city due to the inability to find affordable rental space. Example: The Flagler Playhouse and J.J. Graham of Salvo Art.

The program will highlight the accomplishments of all of the cultural arts organization despite the hurdles that they have each had to overcome to thrive.

Ask anyone who has been involved in the arts if they feel the city of Palm Coast has funded the arts to the proper funding level and if they were honest they would tell you that the amount of money offered is nothing compared to the amount of dollars the city budgets every year for the sports programs: the pool, the golf course, the tennis center, the community center, Holland Park and now, pickleball courts.

The Cultural Immersion program will highlight cities that have successfully integrated sports, arts and even social services together all within the same Parks and Recreation budget. For example, the City of Ormond Beach has several, thriving Sports complexes, including three physical gyms , a beautiful performing arts facility, and two senior centers that serve meals, operating all together with a smaller budget than the City of Palm Coast has currently. Another thriving example is the city of Winter Park, which has three community centers each with their own pools and gyms operating year round with each having active cultural, senior, and youth programming, with most of their activities being provided free of charge. Again both of these cities have a Parks and Recreation Budget smaller than the City of Palm Coast.

The founders and Board of Family Matters are truly grateful for the funds they have received in the past from the city and we look forward to working more closely with the city staff in the future.

We know from past experiences that by offering the Cultural Immersion program we will be able to educate and persuade the city's residents to get more actively engaged in the arts community and for them to embrace the Arts District that has been proposed for Town Center. We know this Cultural Immersion experience will make a difference and we are willing to put the time and effort into showcasing the Arts Community from an outsider's perspective.

Our Board voted to develop an audit oversight committee that oversees the spending of the budget we have established and as a result, we have not conducted an audit. We do not have the financial resources to pay for a report. The committee, which comprises a member who was formerly a CPA can and will attest that we follow standard accounting principles and that we are in full compliance. Our books are available for review and we bank at Vy-Star Credit Union.

In the past, our organization had received numerous federal and state grants and when we had the funds we always had an audit completed and we were always in full compliance with our funders. We truly hope that you understand the reason we do not have an audit and we hope that you will still consider us for funding.

In the near future, when our financial capacity increases we will at that time obtain a full review of our procedures.

Sincerely,

Denise Calderwood Founder of Family Matters of Flagler

City of Palm Coast Parks and Recreation
305 Palm Coast Parkway, NE
Palm Coast, Fl. 32137

August 9, 2021

Dear Parks and Recreation:

The Flagler Auditorium is Flagler County's Premier Performing Arts Center for the community! Offering the latest technology and design, the Auditorium educates, enlightens, enriches, and exposes children and adults to the thrill of quality, live performances. The Flagler Auditorium Governing board is a direct support organization of Flagler County Schools and is a non- profit organization.

The Auditorium was created by a public bond offering to present a state-of-the-art performing arts center, having 1,000 seats and providing a venue for professional, school and community performances. It functions as a host for performing arts and technical theatre classes and is considered a teaching theatre. It offers everything from nationally touring Broadway to cultural programs, big band, family theater, symphonic and celebrity entertainment.

The Auditorium has contracted a schedule of professional shows for the 2021-22 season to begin in mid October. At the time of this application, these shows are expected to continue as planned. However, if these shows are postponed or cancelled, the Auditorium Governing Board will continue to encourage, and sustain the Arts as a unique cultural institution in Flagler County. We are dedicated to raising awareness and support for Arts Education, not only in Flagler Schools but for all ages. We hope to provide service, leadership and direction in planning, scheduling and promoting the Arts through the use of our facility for the welfare of our City.

We greatly appreciate your past support as we request your assistance again this season as we work to continue our purpose and mission. If you have any questions or concerns regarding this application, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Amelia W. Fulmer

Background Information:

The Flagler Auditorium has been the leading assembly venue in the area since 1991. Our organization seeks to endorse the development of the Arts both locally, regionally and statewide. We support the development of local performing and visual arts in various ways. One of the goals in our purpose statement is to make the Performing Arts available and accessible to everyone in the region.
The Flagler Auditorium presents live theatre, music, performing arts, and educational opportunities for the citizens of Flagler County and surrounding areas. We are requesting funds to sustain the marketing of our 2021-22 programming. We plan to present a diverse offering of world-class entertainment this year, offering professional shows, local, community, and school events. We plan to offer subscription and group sales in addition to single ticket sales online. It is our sincere intention to promote and raise the level of awareness for the Arts as a partner with the City of Palm Coast. We will also work with local businesses and arts groups. We intend to advertise inside and outside of the county, conduct performance surveys, and collect visitor information. Collecting data about our audiences is essential to our success. We also promote educational art activities, bringing students and parents from the region to participate in district and state events whenever possible.

Tracking Attendance:

The Flagler Auditorium will track its success through ticket sales and reports, corporate support, contributions, marketing results, budgeting, media coverage and reviews. In addition, we will report attendance from regional events held at the Auditorium. We will conduct surveys of audience members by email after every performance. Valuable information is gained from these surveys, which help determine show selection and customer service. Still, they also give us information on how the patron learned about our venue and our community. This creates valuable data for our success and for the Tourist Development Council.

Our Event Objectives:

Objectives:

1) To negotiate quality show contracts and performances at prices that are accessible to everyone in the community. We will work to serve our target audience to build revenue for our mission.

2) To present a season of performances appealing to our target audiences but to provide programming of all preferences and ages, therefore serving the community and supporting Arts education. We also present community and school performances throughout the year.

3) To support Arts education initiatives in Flagler county by scheduling shows and events with an educational and cultural component. Educating and introducing students to careers in the performing arts not only on stage but backstage and in the box office also create economic opportunity for our future.

DocuSign Envelope ID: BE1E98B3-C001-4308-80F1-AFD601B9F56C

4) To provide children, underserved populations, low income and special needs individuals with access to the performing arts through community outreach, arts initiatives, and charitable giving programs, including scholarships, summer camps, and art teacher assistance.

5) To serve as a major economic boost to Flagler County, making significant contributions to the economic health of our community by creating jobs, and creating opportunities for shopping, hotel and retail businesses. Booking Artist and fans in local hotels is a priority in our contracts.

Other Sources of Funding

The Flagler Auditorium receives support from the Division of Cultural Affairs and the Tourist Development Council. We are a direct support organization of Flagler County Schools but we rely on ticket sales, contributions and sponsorships for sustainability. The School district funds the majority of capital, maintenance and salaries for the venue. All of these contributions allow us to program shows that bring in audiences and have events that serve all ages.

What makes our event(s) Unique?

As a presenter, the Flagler Auditorium prides itself on the standard of excellence it has set for Flagler County and the surrounding communities. We take commitment to serving the local community seriously. We seek to offer something for every interest and every age group. The professional performers we have brought to our venue for the past 30 years have displayed the finest examples of classical/ country/ popular music, opera, ballet, modern dance, comedy, drama, jazz, and Broadway musicals and masterclasses. These offerings serve our community and our mission to inspire and educate. As a direct support organization of Flagler Schools, We are passionate about Arts Education and seek to include masterclasses and workshops. We seek to create opportunities for students to learn and grow in the arts, creating audiences and stakeholders for the future.

Our Pandemic story:

On March 1, 2020, all indicators showed our success as a thriving venue. In the 2019 - 20 season, the Auditorium had strong ticket sales and strong attendance. We recently completed a one million dollar expansion with a significant wing added, a box office and lobby improvements. We received support from the Department of Cultural Affairs, the school district the City of Palm Coast and the TDC. When the season was cancelled due to the pandemic we continued quality customer service with our staff working from home, granting refunds to our patrons from cancelled performances. Our board continued to meet and look for ways to serve the community through zoom. We offered our social media marketing channels and marquee to the community, supporting the TDC initiatives such as "Power to prevent "and advertising for the city to Buy Local. In September. We held a live outdoor concert with the funds from the “State of the Arts” plates Program. All of the net proceeds benefitted the three other Performing Arts organizations in Flagler County.

We did not give up on programming. We opened the theatre at 25% and joined resources with other organizations in the community from the historical societies, the business community and service organizations to create events to bring us together indoors and outdoors. The impact on our revenue last year could have been devastating without the assistance of the school district, state and local grants along with the patrons and businesses that remained committed to our mission and our future. The Auditorium served over 2000 audience members and the performing arts students in Flagler County Schools. We made new connections with people in the area online and in the theatre

The Arts create jobs, stimulate trade and attract investment to Flagler County. Building trust and creating strong bonds between people of different backgrounds enables all of our enterprises to grow. Our programs not only increase tourism, they increase community participation. This participation creates and bestows a stronger community identity. This identify rallies hope, productivity and economic vibrancy to our area.

Cultural organizations such as the Flagler Auditorium create activities that attract people and investment in our economy. The City of Palm Coast is supports a variety of businesses, organizations and arts organizations. In accepting financial support from the City of Palm Coast the Flagler Auditorium seeks to become an anchor arts institution in the community by advocating for and building cultural experiences while expanding Arts education for all.

Marketing and Advertising

Presently our target audience for professional shows are 55+ years old, living within driving distance of Flagler County with a modest income. This data is derived from our members, previous ticket sales, and data on our website, including followers on social media pages. However, the Flagler Auditorium has a broader audience due to student participation in recitals and concerts. Three of the shows this season will entice our target audience but they will also bring an educational component for our students by providing workshop opportunities with drama, chorus and band high school students.

Press releases distributed to a broad media list covering several counties, airtime on local and out of town radio--both for-profit and not for profit stations.

Print advertising via numerous newspapers, magazines, brochures, mailers and collaborative efforts with other organizations.

Presentations to local and regional groups, providing virtual and in person show announcements and tours of the Auditorium

Email marketing to our own dedicated subscribers and all school board employees, Facebook and social media promotion to our community of fans with detailed information on each show at our website, flagleauditorium.org. We use constant contact weekly and it has delivered the greatest results on ticket sales. We offer specials for returning patrons, discount codes for groups, and dynamic pricing with segmented audiences. The board has a commitment to developing more audiences from our community over the next year. We have continued our print advertising while also exploring new ways of spreading our message through social media and community building.

Community outreach helps to spread a spirit of community that leads to new audiences and new relationships. We will continue to highlight organizations in the community before our shows in an outdoor festival environment whenever possible, giving service organizations and other arts groups an opportunity to inform patrons and out-of-town guests about our unique assets. By helping the community we expand our outreach. .

We have recently rebuilt our website and our ticket system. (www.flagleraudi torium.org) with photos and detailed information on every show including promotional materials, video, sound clips, etc. We will be able to reach interested audiences 24 hours a day. Our ticket system assists us in development and customer service by showing patron values and providing online analytics on how patrons arrived at our site.

We will continue our previous marketing and advertising inside and outside the community, but we will be investing in data collection and focus groups to determine the motivation of audiences. In this way, we hope to better understand future show attendance. We will widen our target audience by researching and surveying new and current audiences. The City of Palm Coast will be a vital resource for us and our partnership within the Arts District and will be crucial to the future of our venue and our role as part of tourism in Flagler County.

Form W-2 2020

OMB No. 1545-0008 Department of the Treasury – Internal Revenue Service

Instructions for Employee

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 8. This amount is not included in box 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

You must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove with adequate records that you received a smaller amount. If you have records that show the actual amount of tips you received, report that amount even if it is more or less than the allocated tips. Use Form 4137 to figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on tips you didn't report to your employer. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 10. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan, or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount. This box shouldn't be used if you had a deferral and a distribution in the same calendar year. If you made a deferral and received a distribution in the same calendar year, and you are or will be age 62 by the end of the calendar year, your employer should file Form SSA-131, Employer Report of Special Wage Payments, with the Social Security Administration and give you a copy.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and EE) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $19,500 ($13,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $22,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $19,500. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2020, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,500 ($3,000 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

Note: If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, BB, or EE, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

Include tips reported by the employee to the employer in railroad retirement (RRTA) compensation.

Note: Keep Copy C of Form W-2 for at least 3 years after the due date for filing your income tax return. However, to help protect your social security benefits, keep Copy C until you begin receiving social security benefits, just in case there is a question about your work record and/or earnings in a particular year.

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you don't have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2020 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2020 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2020 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/EITC. See also Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you aren't subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213. You may also visit the SSA website at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2020 and more than $8,537.40 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $5,012.70 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you may also be able to claim a credit. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions for Employee

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 8. This amount is not included in box 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

You must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove with adequate records that you received a smaller amount. If you have records that show the actual amount of tips you received, report that amount even if it is more or less than the allocated tips. Use Form 4137 to figure the social security and Medicare tax owed on tips you didn't report to your employer. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 10. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan, or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount. This box shouldn't be used if you had a deferral and a distribution in the same calendar year. If you made a deferral and received a distribution in the same calendar year, and you are or will be age 62 by the end of the calendar year, your employer should file Form SSA-131, Employer Report of Special Wage Payments, with the Social Security Administration and give you a copy.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and EE) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $19,500 ($13,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $22,500 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $19,500. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2020, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,500 ($3,000 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

Note: If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, BB, or EE, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.

A—Uncollected social security or RRTA tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040 or 1040-SR. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

B—Uncollected Medicare tax on tips. Include this tax on Form 1040 or 1040-SR. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR.

C—Taxable cost of group-term life insurance over $50,000 (included in boxes 1, 3 (up to social security wage base), and 5)

D—Elective deferrals to a section 401(k) cash or deferred arrangement. Also includes deferrals under a SIMPLE retirement account that is part of a section 401(k) arrangement.

E—Elective deferrals under a section 403(b) salary reduction agreement

F—Elective deferrals under a section 408(k)(6) salary reduction SEP

G—Elective deferrals and employer contributions (including nonelective deferrals) to a section 457(b) deferred compensation plan

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you don't have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2020 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You can't take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2020 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2020 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/EITC. See also Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you aren't subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but aren't the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 800-772-1213. You may also visit the SSA website at www.SSA.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2020 and more than $8,537.40 in social security and/or Tier 1 railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $5,012.70 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you may also be able to claim a credit. See the Instructions for Forms 1040 and 1040-SR and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Flagler Performing Arts Academy

Aug. 1, 2021
City of Palm Coast,
Re: Request for Cultural Arts Financial Assistance

Dear Committee,

The Flagler Performing Arts Academy (a 5013c nonprofit) greatly appreciates the opportunity to apply for grant assistance from the City of Palm Coast. Our program received funding from your organization last summer and as a result we were not only able to provide 50 children and 5 interns with a 4 week professional quality musical theater training, but over 500 community residents were able to enjoy the magic of 2 high quality theatrical experiences. Thanks to you, we were able to expand this highly beneficial experience to the children and residents of Palm Coast.

We are hopeful that we will be granted funds to continue to provide an enriching artistic experience to many more young people in our community.

We are seeking funding to provide a 3 week musical theatre camp and 6 performances in June 2022. We anticipate the participation of 40 performers ages eight to eighteen, 10 student and adult volunteers, a possible technical stage crew camp, and 500+ community and visitor audience members. Grant funds will be used to offset the cost for Royalties, Costumes, Sets, and Props.

Ann Paris will serve as the program director. Mrs. Paris is currently teaching chorus, dance, drama and musical theater in Flagler County Schools, she has been an adjunct instructor at Daytona State College, teaches private voice students, has authored a book (Vocal Relaxation System) and has many years of performing professionally throughout the world. (find full bio at http://palmcoastsummercamp.com/about-the-director/).

I am happy to meet with the selection commitee if necessary, Thank you.

THE VALUE OF CAMP TO THE CITY OF PALM COAST RESIDENTS AND VISITORS:

Multiple studies show that both making of theatre, and attending live theatre, contribute to educational and social development, yet often these are the first programs that are cut from many schools.

Research shows that students involved in drama performance outscore non-arts students on the SAT by an average of 65 points in the verbal component and 34 points in the math. Drama students also demonstrate improved school attendance and have lower dropout rates. Performing arts programs have proven to be particularly beneficial to students with learning difficulties.

Drama teaches children to listen, observe and empathize with those around them. Drama students learn to cooperate and collaborate with the other participants through the rehearsal and performance process. Musical theatre fosters a social awareness through exposure to the social issues, events and cultures portrayed in the scripts. Performing on stage requires tremendous concentration and sustained mental focus which is a skill that carries over to all aspects of life.

Furthermore watching live theatre also has numerous benefits. According to a 2014 study at Arkansas, watching live theatre enhances literary knowledge, tolerance and empathy of students to a far greater degree than reading or watching a movie can produce. The inclusion of human conflict in many plays increased individuals ability to comprehend and empathize with other people's feelings and reactions, and helps people relate to each other.

Theatre not only entertains and enchants the audience, it fires the imagination, giving children the skills, curiosity and creativity they need to understand the complex world we live in, and music in a live show sparks something in children that is difficult to extinguish.

Finally, having live theatre events, especially those that cater to families and children of all ages, promotes our community. Programs like ours is what attracts visitors and potential home buyers. By exposing the community to the Arts, we strive to attract audience members of all ages, cultural backgrounds, and experiences.

3. HOW THE CITY OF PALM COAST'S FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE WILL BE USED AND WHY FUNDING FROM THE CITY IS ESSENTIAL FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PROGRAM.

The financial assistance from the City will be used for Royalties, (which includes: rights, scripts, and musically arrangements) and Supplies (which includes: props, sets, and costumes and as required 20% of grant money will be used for advertising.

Funds from the City are essential for The Summer Musical Theatre Program to take place. The children in our community deserve the most thoughtful, careful, and developmentally appropriate instruction that we can provide. Yet, we need to keep camp fees and ticket prices reasonable so that those with limited funds might still participate. The only way we can accomplish this is through assistance such as the City of Palm Coast offers. We will also be seeking donations and volunteer help, do fundraising, and look for other grant opportunities.

THE GARDEN CLUB AT PALM COAST - AUDIT COMMITTEE REPORT - 11TH MARCH 2021

Check Pay Pal account on a daily basis - especially during the Membership Renewal, Spring Festival and other important activities throughout the year.

Set up policy on Pay Pal Account to include other members access to the account, as deemed necessary by the President and Board Members.

Discrepancy with Pay Pay Account of $1,500 (which was credited to the account twice in 2019), should be carried as a liability on our financial reports.

Keep a paper trail of all cash receipts from each meeting (especially from the 50/50), so we can reconcile to all bank deposits.

To included for the Arrangers Guild accounts to be in audited in 2022. There was no activity for this, due to Covid restraints.

The Treasurer and Assistant Treasurer recommended the Garden Club change to a different bank. The current bank, Intracoastal Bank in Palm Coast, has no weekend service.

On behalf of the entire Board, we wish to thank Susan McConnell for her service as Treasurer and Tom McKean as Assistant Treasurer, and for all their assistance and financial expertise. We would also like to thank all the Audit Committee as listed above for attending and helping with this Audit.

Sincerely,

Lorraine Beagley
Audit Chair

Festival & Plant Sale Back Again!

by Carol Geran

The Garden Club at Palm Coast is pleased to announce the Annual Spring Festival & Plant Sale is back this year. It will be held on Saturday, April 17, 2021 from 9 am - 4 pm at the Palm Coast Arts Foundation, 1500 Central Avenue, Palm Coast Town Center. We are thrilled to offer a beautiful, spacious outdoor venue for this year's festival. Parking and admission are free.

Our vendors feature an assortment of talented artisans whose offerings include: recycled glass garden art, pottery, hypertufa pots, fused glass, wind chimes, plant stakes, dried herbs & spices, freshly harvested micro greens, and so much more. And of course, there will be a huge selection of plants at great prices.

Proceeds from this event benefit the Club's high school scholarship fund as well as student community projects. For example, the club provided a scholarship to a boy scout who designed and planted the butterfly garden around the Garfield turtle in front of the Palm Coast Historical Society in James Holland Park.

The Garden Club will be following all Covid-19 safety protocols, (requiring masks, social distancing and limiting participants) while browsing our vendors and the Club' s plant sale.

Come enjoy the shopping with live music by local musicians and stop by the food trucks on the street for a bite to eat. There is something for everyone, so come enjoy a great day of fun for the whole family.

SUPPORT MATERIALS: Gargiulo Art Foundation, Inc. Town Center Sculpture Garden

Since 2005, the Gargiulo Art Foundation has gained considerable experience installing 14 outdoor public sculptures in the City of Palm Coast. Our grant for 2022, if approved, will be used to advertise the installation of a sculpture garden in Town Center. Our Foundation is committing $100,000 over a period of four years to this project.

Well known Deland Sculptor Harry Messersmith will head this project. The former Deland Museum of Art Director has considerable expertise working and directing community projects. His sculptures adorn many private and public collections throughout Deland including the brick façade of Deland City Hall. The Artist is familiar with Palm Coast and has met with the late Ken Jones Arts' Commission Chairman and Beautification Committee Member on the Town Center Lake site.

Excitement is building among area sculptors for the proposed Sculpture Garden in Palm Coast. Artist Harry Messersmith and the Gargiulo Art Foundation, aware of problems associated with public outdoor sculptures in other cities have a new approach for sculptors' concerns. Palm Coast financial assistance was granted to install the loan of an interactive sculpture IMAG NE), at the Flagler County Public Library and Town Center in Palm Coast for two months. The sculpture was well received at both sites. An opportunity was missed to purchase the sculpture from the artist at a greatly discounted price to the GAF for lack of funds. The sculpture went on to Georgia for a two month loan and was purchased by a town in Georgia.

We were recently contacted by Palm Coast officials to consider a Key West Sculptor's work. So it is obvious to us that the City is aware of the value of Art in Public Places in Palm Coast. Full financial support, if awarded, will be used for advertising the program.

The GAF will purchase the loaned pieces in four years or less and gift them to the City. This will provide sculptors the opportunity to show their costly art at less expense. GAF will match contributions 50 – 50 for purchases of sculpture. A plaque will accompany all donated work with contributor names listed. This will give patrons and businesses incentive to match the Foundation's contribution. For example . . . a sculpture costing $16,000 (Paul Baliker's Florida Panther at Linear Park) would be $4,000 a year for four years. The Foundation would pay $2,000 each year and the sponsor(s) will contribute 50%. A plaque will be installed listing contributors in year five.

Harry Messersmith's 3 outdoor bronze relief sculptures at the Publix Shopping center, Palm Coast Parkway between Firehouse Subs and Pizza Hut is the result of a collaboration of GAF, the artist, Palm Coast Landscape Architect Bill Butler, and property owner can promote art and culture in Palm Coast.

My dream is to recognize Palm Coast, not only for its beautiful palm trees, but as a destination for visitors and tourists to view our city's arts and culture.

We hope the City of Palm Coast Cultural Arts Financial Assistance Grant Committee will support our project and award GAF the maximum financial assistance.

Thank you.

RE: 2021 Financial Assistance Grant

Dear Cultural Arts Review Members:

The Gargiulo Arts Foundation (GAF) opened the Flagler County's first and only art gallery and recognized its first Artist of the Year in 2000. GAF supports the arts in Palm Coast through varied art shows, including poetry, music, art performances and "Art in Public Places" which are open to the public free of charge.

Our request for financial assistance if granted would be used for "Art Shows and Sculptures". GAF will produce 3 to 4 month long art shows and install sculptures approved by the City of Palm Coast in the Town Center Park.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Tom Gargiulo

The Green Room
Farm to Table Dinner Theatre

43 Belvedere Ln, Palm Coast, FL 32137

The purpose of THE GREEN ROOM is to enhance the culture of our community by supporting, encouraging and showcasing local artists and agriculture through the presentation of high-quality theatrical productions paired with first class farm-to-table cuisine. As we are still in our start-up phase, the agricultural/food aspect is added whenever possible.

We are asking for funding for our 2021 Tree of Lights.

Event Description:

Tree of Lights is an outdoor contemporary Christian Christmas cantata celebrating the birth of Christ. This 45 minute concert tells the story of Christ's birth through music and narration. A 30-foot computerized "Tree of Lights" adds to the festivities. All performers are volunteers from our local community. The singers are accompanied by fully orchestrated tracks.

Last year our production was held in the large field at the Florida Agricultural Museum. Due to Covid, it was a drive-in concert where attendees could either remain in their cars or set up chairs and blankets in front of their cars. A per car fee was charged to help offset the cost.

This year, we would love to offer this as a FREE concert in TOWN CENTER. At this point in time, we have not reached out to the city to discuss this possibility. It is our hope that this grant application will open that dialogue.

Event Dates:

Early December 2021 for 3 nights

Event Location:

Town Center

Anticipated Attendance:

100 people per performance

Why this program is important:

This event is a celebration of the true meaning of Christmas. It is appropriate for all ages and a wonderful family activity. We plan on this becoming a yearly family tradition.

As a new nonprofit with a genuine goal of supporting our community, we would love to be able to offer this as a free concert. With Town Center trying to become a "destination" for families, businesses and arts/artists, we can think of no better place to hold this event. As Town Center grows, so will participation in the Tree of Lights.

As a side note, our ultimate goal is to be able to raise enough funds to build our Farm-to-Table Dinner Theatre in Town Center.

This event is important to our organization as it will bring more exposure to our growing company.

Why funding from the City of Palm Coast is important:

In order to present this as a FREE concert, we will need the support of the City.

About The Green Room

The Green Room is a one-of-a-kind farm to table dinner theatre that celebrates the merging of local arts and agriculture. Formed as a 501c3 charitable organization, its mission is to enhance the culture of our community by supporting, encouraging and showcasing local artists and agriculture through the presentation of high-quality theatrical productions paired with first class farm-to-table cuisine.
It will be the first dinner theatre in the country to operate solely farm-to-table.
We are currently seeking Founding Donors to kick our project into high gear. A location has been found that will suit our current needs and also allow room for expansion. We need to raise $2.5 million for the purchase of the property. If you would like to learn more, please feel free to contact Terri Williams, President, at info@thegreenroomfarm2table.org
Or visit our website:

From the President

Welcome to the first production of The Green Room, Inc!

While starting a nonprofit organization is a challenge at any time, starting one during a pandemic is especially challenging! I need to thank our Board of Directors for their tireless support and dedication to this project. I also need to thank Kara Hoblick and the Florida Agricultural Museum for their help in making this concert a reality! The performers you will hear tonight have spent countless hours rehearsing on their own and their talents and love of music will shine just as bright as our tree. I thank them for all the hard work they have put in. I also need to thank my Mom who has always supported my dreams. Tonight would not have been possible without you! Lastly, I need to thank my late husband, Larry Williams, who showed me that with faith, confidence and determination, “Anything is possible...even Miracles”. Enjoy the concert!

Dear Applicant:

Our letter dated November 2005, stated you would be exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and you would be treated as a public charity, rather than as a private foundation, during an advance ruling period.

Based on the information you submitted, you are classified as a public charity under the Code section listed in the heading of this letter. Since your exempt status was not under consideration, you continue to be classified as an organization exempt from Federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

Publication 557, Tax-Exempt Status for Your Organization, provides detailed information about your rights and responsibilities as an exempt organization. You may request a copy by calling the toll-free number for forms, (800) 829-3676. Information is also available on our Internet Web Site at www.irs.gov.

FIRST SATURDAY
CREATIVE BAZAAR

First Saturday Creative Bazaars were created in 2019 as a consistent outlet for area artisans to showcase their creations.

Since 2019 PCAF has hosted nearly thirty of these monthly events, postponing at times due to inclement weather or of course the COVID crisis. Vendors vary and has included beautiful creations of wood working products; jewelry; children's illustrators; hand-made quilts and stuffed animals; to ceramics, photography, and paintings.

The Creative Bazaars offer these vendors inexpensive space and it is our intention to keep these costs to a minimum for our vendors.

We have opened these monthly Bazaars for musicians to perform as well. Another opportunity for musical artists to perform to a shopping audience.

Applications are required of all vendors and musicians.

The Bazaars are held each month on the site of the Palm Coast Arts Foundation in Town Center, 1500 Centra Avenue.

Number of vendors vary depending on the month with the holiday months showing the most activity. Anywhere from 12 to 35 vendors register for these monthly Bazaars and attendance of shoppers also varies to a high of 300 in peak months.

The City of Palm Coast cultural arts grant will be used mainly for advertising. We advertise on the radio, social media, area signage, and print ads for these Creative Bazaars.

Purpose of the organization:

The PCUMC Concert Series purpose is to provide programs for the enjoyment, education and personal enrichment of the greater Palm Coast community. It supports multicultural performing artists in interactive relationships with the residents of our community. Our program expands the arts experience of the community with access to high quality performing arts and related learning experiences. Participants witness a live performance and are able to immediately interact with the artists and with others in the audiences. We provide a catalyst for students of the arts and the community who live vastly different lives in different parts of our community to appreciate and experience each other. The series has multiple and diverse audiences for its culminating performances. We are addressing challenges in the field of access to music education, economic access for persons of limited means, and physical access for persons with disabilities.

Describe the purpose of the program being considered for funding:

The program being considered for funding is the schedule of concert events that educate, enlighten, enrich and entertain the residents of the City of Palm Coast. The 2021-2022seasons will present a varied schedule of fine concerts for our community. The entire schedule is enclosed on a separate page.

Estimated number of attendances at each program:

Renese King (125)

Chamber Players (125)

Flagler Youth Orchestra (130)

Bethune-Cookman University Concert Chorale (200)

Mardi Gras Scholarship Fund Raiser Dance (160)

RythmTrail Steel Drum Band (200)

Why funding is essential:

A Cultural Arts Financial Grant from the City of Palm Coast will be necessary to help achieve our purpose and goals to present quality events for the residents of the city. The concert series receives only the use of the building as the church's contribution. Hence the continuation of this cultural arts program is largely dependent on support from the City Grant, friends of the concert series, donors and fund-raising events.

Location:

All concerts are held in the church sanctuary.
The community center ballroom is the venue for the Mardi Gras celebration.
