CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-77477	Baker Act/	Old Kings Rd S	13 y Baker Acted. Direct transported to Halifax Hospital for evaluation.
18-77514	Residential Burglary/	Slingshot Ct	V1 advised that an unknown person(s) unlawfully entered his home on today's date between 8:00A-6:00P and stole numerous items from his residence. It should be noted there was a language barrier and communication was made through translation app, however V1 believes that a maintenance man from his rental company, entered his house stole his rent money, approximately $455.00, then entered his bedroom closet and stole jewelry items. V1 provided a text message where the maintenance company provided 24 hour notice that they would be coming to the property, however he did not given them permission to take his property. V1 did not wish to provide a statement or DNA. No latent prints were located and no forced entry into the residence, as the home was unlocked. An online check of LEADs for the stolen jewelry items were met with negative results.
2018-77516	Disturbance Domestic	Eastlake Drive	Intoxicated S1 attacked his 14 yoa daughter by striking her numerous times during an altercation over a cellphone. While being escorted to a nearby patrol vehicle, S1 violently elbowed one Deputy and then violently kicked the Deputy in his shin and attempted to escape the escorting Deputies. Deputies then escorted S1 to the ground in order to regain control of him. No major injuries were reported. S1 was transported to FCIF without further incident and charged with Child Abuse (DV), Resisting with Violence, and Battery on Law Enforcement.
18-77523	Trespassing	Treetop Cir/	S1 (18 yom) recently moved back into his mother's house. His mother reported that S1 was being aggressive and disruptive and was asked to leave, but refused. It was determined that Devon met the criteria of a transient occupant and his mother completed a sworn affidavit to this effect. After the situation was explained to him and he was given numerous opportunities to vacate, Devon refused to leave and was ultimately arrested for trespass after warning.
