Non-Part One Crimes: Missing Persons, Traffic Fatality, Use of Force, Weapons

Aggravated Battery/2017-92619/Port Royal Dr, Palm Coast/Victim, V1, stated that his roommates arrived late at the residence and were being loud. V1 further advised that he asked them to be quiet or he was calling the police when D1 (defendant) became agitated. V1 stated that D1 barged in his bedroom placed his arm around V1's neck from behind in a headlock fashion constricting his airway. As that was occurring D1 was holding a large kitchen knife in his other hand and stated that he was going to cut V1's throat. V1 grabbed the hand with the knife twisted D1's arm and was able to get away and called 911. D1 was arrested for Aggravated battery, aggravated assault with a deadly weapon, and possession of marijuana under 20 grams. See Deputy Wall's report for further details.

Suspicious Incident/ 2017-92578/McDonalds SR 100/95 /The RP, a manager, stated a customer notified her that he witnessed a male walk into the women's bathroom. Manager made verbal contact with a male in a bathroom stall. The RP told the male that he was in the wrong bathroom. The male stated the men's bathroom was clogged so he was using this one. The customer saw this unknown male walk directly into the women's bathroom from the front of the store. After a few moments, the male exited the bathroom and proceeded to the front of the store. He exited a side door and walked to a vehicle and exited the parking lot. See Deputy Rossi's report for further. \
