Commanders Report

owner/manager initially called LEO because a customer, O-2, was refusing to leave the business. Upon LEO arrival, O-2 stated that O-1 pulled out what she thought was a stun gun during a dispute over an unsatisfactory pizza order. O-1 clarified that he actually pulled out a 9mm firearm from his waistband. O-2 stated that O-1 only displayed the weapon, that no threats were made. Charges will be forwarded to the SAO on O-1 for Improper Exhibition of a Firearm. O-2 was trespassed from the business.
