CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-35233	Disturbance Domestic	Richland Lane	V1 reported a physical disturbance that occurred with S1 (boyfriend). V1 advised that S1 questioned where she was after she returned home from shopping. He proceeded to push her against a stove and rip her glasses off the top of her head. S1 then took her car keys and blocked the hallway after V1 told him she wanted to leave. S1 was placed under arrest and transported to FCIF without incident. V1 completed a statement and was issued DV paperwork. See report by Dep. Finn for further details.
18-35221	Disturbance Domestic	East Moody BP gas station	V1 reported that she and her boyfriend S1 were discussing their relationship issues in the car at the gas station. S1 then grabbed her by the throat, 2 different times. S1 was later arrested. See Dep. Champions report for further
18-35286	Overdose	Carlson Court	RP located a subject O1 unresponsive on the bedroom floor. Rescue treated O1 on scene and transported him to FHF. See report by Dep. Colson for further details.
18-35290	Death	Fenhill Lane	RP reported that her husband was unresponsive in the bed. Rescue responded and pronounced him deceased. The death appeared natural with nothing suspicious observed. See report by Dep. Shaughnessy for further details.
18-35289	Traffic Crash-THI	I-95 289mm South	Head on collision between 2 vehicles, both vehicles were on fire. Dep. Chris Taylor and Dep. Lima arrived on scene, extinguished some of the fire and pulled a male from the burning vehicle. Dep Lima and Dep. Finn pulled an unresponsive female from the other vehicle. Traffic was diverted at exit 293 south bound until one lane was able to be opened at the scene. Scene was turned over to FHP and fire police.
