Part One UCR Crimes: Type of Call / Case Number / Address / Case Summary

Burglary Residential/ 2016-51701/ Zone 5/ Seward Trail W, Palm Coast. An adult female called 9-1-1 stating she was at home with her two young children when a male suspect began checking her doors and windows. The victim (V1) stated she put her children in a room and retrieved a firearm while the suspect pried open the rear slider to enter the home. V1 stated the suspect entered her living room while still holding a crowbar; she pointed the firearm at him and ordered him to leave. The suspect left in a red SUV and the victim took a picture of the suspect vehicle and provided the tag to dispatch. Units followed the vehicle at a safe distance until Daytona Beach PD and VCSO conducted a traffic stop in Daytona without incident. Suspect was taken into custody after a positive ID. See report by Deputy Petkovsek for further.

Burglary Residential/ 2016-51698/ Seaman Trail, Palm Coast. Units responded to an alarm and located evidence of a forced entry. No items of value noted as missing and believed to be related to the above incident. See report by Deputy Bell for further. ISD responded and took over investigation.

Burglary Residential/ 2016-51727/ Utah Trail, Palm Coast. Units responded to an alarm and located evidence of attempted forced entry. No entry was made and appeared to be deterred by the audible alarm. Incident is related to the above two incidents. See report by Deputy Cangioli for further. ISD responded and took over investigation.

Non-Part One Crimes: Missing Persons, Traffic Fatality, Use of Force, Weapons

Follow-up/ 2016-51571/ Bear Trail, Flagler Beach. A neighbor notified dispatch that the male suspect from an incident the night before was
