TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Protest	18-110921	N Ocean Shore Blvd	About 30 people were protesting Captains Barbeque at Bings Landing holding signs and asking people to sign a petition. The protestors were not blocking access to the park. There was a minor crash (without injuries) as a result of a driver being distracted looking at the protesters (2018-110934). Shortly after the crash, most of the protestors dispersed.
Larceny	18-110904	Leaver Dr	V1 advised that an unknown person(s) stole the decal, 11727711, off her 2010 Chevy bearing Florida 2081VK on an unknown date. The decal, 11727711, was entered into NCIC/FCIC as stolen.
Death	18-110844	Fallwood Ln	99-year-old female found deceased by her daughter. No foul play suspected.
Disturbance Domestic Weapons	18-110854	Palmwood Dr	A neighbor advised they saw a female running around the above location with a knife, simultaneously an RP from within the residence called in advising that a female on scene was drunk and was causing a disturbance. The female, later identified as S1, tried to attack her son with two knives. S1 was subsequently arrested for DV agg assault. It was determined S1 was a threat to herself or others so a Baker Act was also completed.
Disturbance Domestic	18-110836	Pine Grove Dr	V1 advised that she allowed her biological sister, S1 to utilize her washer and dryer because she is homeless. S1 overflowed the washer which caused an argument. S1 then "smushed" her face against V1s face and shoved her. As V1 attempted to leave the room to avoid further conflict, S1 grabbed V1's shirt and pulled her backwards. V1 had slight redness on her face but refused to have photographs taken. S1 fled the area prior to LE arrival and was not located.
Death	18-110943	Woodguild Pl	67-year-old female found deceased by her husband; female had extensive medical history. No foul play suspected.
