TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Stolen Vehicle	18-122002	Pritchard Drive	V1 reported that her 2018 White Toyota Camry was stolen by her adult daughter, S1. The two exchanged text messages, asking for the vehicle to be returned over the last 24 hours. FCSO located the vehicle and followed it into the housing authority where he conducted a traffic stop once another unit arrived. The driver, S2 was found to be in possession of crack cocaine and was arrested for the same and a VOP. The front seat passenger, S3 was found to be in possession of less than 20 grams of marijuana and was arrested for the same. While on the stop S1 arrived on scene and was arrested for grand theft-auto. The vehicle was recovered and turned over to the owner.
Domestic Weapons	18-122035	Veranda Way	RP advised his room mate, S1, has been drinking all day. RP advised that S1 tried to choke him and was threatening to kill him. Upon making contact with the S1, she became uncooperative and aggressive with deputies. S1 was taken into custody and transported to FHF for medical clearance, then to the FCIF.
