TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Vehicle Burglary (Delayed)	19-35006	Sunset Inlet	RP advised their Infinity Q50 (FL tag 637EE) was broken into on 4/13/19 at approximately 0244 hours. Two phone chargers were stolen from the vehicle.
Stolen Vehicle (Recovered)	34497-19	Eastwood Drive	The stolen Honda CRV bearing Florida tag Y12RNR was observed pulling into the RaceTrac Gas Station (5893 East SR 100) by Deputy after a BOLO from dispatch. The vehicle appeared to attempt to flee the area at the sight of Law Enforcement before stop sticks could be set up and threw an object out the window. A traffic stop was attempted on Colbert Lane but it fled and units did not pursue but maintained a visual on the vehicle. The vehicle continued to travel throughout the county until a successful stop stick deployment was made on Old Dixie Highway at US1 deflating both front tires. The vehicle stopped approximately 1 mile south of Belle Terre Pkwy on US1 northbound and a felony stop was conducted. The driver, S1 was arrested for Grand theft auto, burglary of a conveyance, and aggravated fleeing and eluding. The passenger, O1, was unaware the vehicle was stolen, and was taken back to his residence.
Narcotics	35039-19	Woodfair Lane	A suspicious person call was received about a male jumping the fence and entering the rear of the residence. A Ford Focus with Florida temporary tag CKJ5344 was observed in the driveway. The vehicle was observed leaving the residence and S1 was observed driving with S2 in the passenger seat. S1 was known to only have a learners permit and S2 was only 18. A traffic stop was conducted and a probable cause search revealed a locked backpack in the trunk that contained over 20 grams of cannabis and a .25 caliber handgun. S1 was charged with possession of marijuana over 20g and two counts of possession of weapon/ammunition by Florida delinquent adult felon and S2 was charged with possession of marijuana over 20g.
