TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Disturbance (Domestic)	20-40830	S Central Ave	The victim reported while driving last night in the area of Palm Coast Parkway and Colbert Lane with her boyfriend, they were play fighting and hitting each other. The play fighting became serious and S1 grabbed and squeezed a sensitive area on the victim, leaving marks. The victim was also 6 months pregnant. S1 was placed under arrest for domestic aggravated battery on a pregnant person and transported to the Flagler County Inmate Facility without incident. Report by DFC Faircloth
Disturbance Domestic	20-40845	Farragut Dr	S1 was arrested for felony battery (DV) for pushing and grabbing the arm of her great grandmother (85 years old). Upon doing so, O1 began striking S1 to defend her grandmother. S1 was determined to be the primary aggressor. Report by Dep. Spina
Suspicious Incident	20-40877	Longview Way N	RP said that he was visiting 43 Longview Way N when he decided to smoke a joint. RP said that he is prescribed medical marijuana and produced a medical marijuana card to deputies. RP said that a male named "Zach" became angry with him because he did not offer marijuana to him or his girlfriend and that "Zach" grabbed him by his tank top and held a knife and brass knuckles to his throat and told him to leave the residence. RP said that "Zach" stole 5 grams of marijuana from him. O1 & O2 both said RP was at the home and was acting "creepy". During a verbal argument, RP left the home and left behind his 5 grams of marijuana. Both parties denied any involvement of a knife or physical contact. Due to conflicting stories and a lack of evidence, no charges have been filed at this time. Report by Dep. Gordon/ Fiveash
