TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Death	19-44618	Tanglewood Court	O1 was found deceased in his bed by his wife. Nothing suspicious was observed.
Suspicious Person	19-44714	Westminster Dr	RP advised that a w/m wearing all black was in her back yard and on the golf course property acting strangely. The male, later identified as S1, was located near the intersection of Westminster Dr and Westhampton Dr. Upon contact with law enforcement he was on the golf course property and refused to identify himself. He then made an attempt to flee and resisted arrest. S1 was charged with loitering and prowling and resisting without violence.
Criminal Mischief	19-44746	Barrington Dr	S1 was seen destroying mailboxes in the area and yelling in the street by residents. When Deputies attempted contact, he locked himself in his home at Barrington Place. S1 then fled out of the back door on foot towards Bayside Drive. A foot pursuit ensued and he was secured behind 139 Bayside Drive. S1 was arrested for criminal mischief.
Burglary Residential	19-29382	County Road	Deputy flagged down in reference to a burglary reported on 3/27/2019. Deputy conducted an investigation and after speaking with the victim at FCIF, he identified S1 as the suspect. Contact was made with S1 at her residence who denied being involved and requested an attorney. Due to the photograph of S1 only being a side shot and LEO not being able to positively identify S1 as the suspect, a charging affidavit will be forwarded to SAO.
Criminal Mischief	19-44596	US1	O1 advised that four pieces of heavy equipment were put into a pond overnight and the job site was damaged, causing an estimated $800k in damages.
