CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
68400-18	Burglary Commercial	Utility Drive (Palm Coast Signs)	48 Inch LG smart flat screen television ($600.00) and his Echo Leaf Blower ($100.00) were both stolen from the business at 3:00am on 7-23.
68474-18	Larceny (Grand Theft)	Utility Drive (Bug Guard Services)	$1,500.00 worth of fishing poles taken from an unsecured shed on the business property. Incident is believed to be related to above one.
68402-18	Larceny (Grand Theft)	Wood Arbor Drive	iPhone 8+ sent by Sprint showed delivered on July 12, 2018 but the phone was not in the victim's mailbox or at the front door when they arrived home.
68477-18	Suspicious Incident	E. Moody Blvd	Dispatch received several phone calls about residents being left a message to call the FCSO fugitive unit at 386 237 6392 extension 19. The missed phone call showed from 386 313 4911. The person said their name was Corporal Joseph Barile but when asked to spell the last name, the male hung up. The number was called and had a recorded message claiming to be the Flagler County Sheriff's Office and when extension 19 was pressed it went to the "Fugitive Unit" but no one answered. The number was eventually disconnected after it was called several times.
68560-18	Disturbance Domestic	Old Kings Rd (McDonald's)	S1 was with his girlfriend and family member traveling from Miami back to New York where they reside when they stopped at McDonald's and began physically fighting with his girlfriend. S1 was placed under arrest for domestic battery and violation of injunction when it was discovered there was one in place out of New York.
