CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-63192	Burglary Commercial	S. Old Kings Road	The Maintenance Manager stated an unknown person entered three unoccupied rental cabins sometime during the night. Six TV's (two in each cabin) were taken and no serial numbers were provided. No signs of forced entry was made and all the cabins were still locked when the complainant checked on them.
18-63315	Missing Person Adult	Farraday Lane	Katherine Lopez called to report her daughter missing. She stated that M1 needs multiple medications throughout the day, and had not taken any yet. Shortly after we received a call that M1 was at the Microtel. M1 was returned to her family.
18-63340	Suspicious Person	Clubhouse Dr	Anonymous RP called ref. a W/F O1 and a W/M O2 at the community pool at this location. Stated they are not residents. Contact made with the 2 subjects as well as O3 who advised they were currently staying at O2's sister residence at Clubhouse Dr. FI completed and information emailed to "TIPS".
18-63409	Notification/Welfare Check	Comanche Ct.	RP called from St. John's advising a co-worker – O1 was recently separated from his wife and had numerous medical ailments. RP stated she was communicating with O1 via text message and was concerned for his well-being after he stopped responding to her and was not answering his cell phone. Contact made at the residence with O1, who did not meet BA criteria at this time.
18-63369	Disturbance Domestic (verbal)	Westbriar Lane	O1 called stating that when she returned home, her boyfriend was taking her things from the home and then hit her car with his while leaving. It was determined through the investigation that her boyfriend actually lived there and was moving out. O1 tried blocking him in with her car and that's when the cars crashed. We were unable to determine ownership on some of the property at this time. No crime was committed
