10/13/19 @ 4:35 pm / Disturbance Physical / 19-22165 / 215 South Ocean Shore Boulevard (under pier): Officer responded reference to a disturbance at the pier between a group of minors. Upon arrival contact was made with the victim as the other half had already left the scene. The victim advised that a girl that she has already in a fight with at school came up to her and sprayed her with pepper spray and started fighting her. The victim was only able to provide a name and nothing further and was not cooperative with the investigation. Due to the female being a minor contact was made with her mother who advised that the minor stays with the grandparents who could not be reached. The mother arranged a ride home for her daughter. The mother was advised that contact will be made with the grandparents on 10/16/19 for follow-up and possible charges being submitted. Report to be made. S.R.D. emailed with information
