TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Baker Act	20-874	Woodpecker Ln	Juvenile female transported for baker act.
Disturbance (Domestic)	20-976	Freeport Lane	The suspect and victim were uncooperative during the investigation and gave limited information. The victim made a vague statement pertaining to not knowing if S1 broke his ribs. A witness was interviewed who advised that during an argument S1 used a large piece of wood, similar to a 2X4 (deadly weapon), to strike the victim. The victim had visible injuries that were consistent with the statements given. S1 was placed under arrest for aggravated battery (domestic) and was transported to the Flagler County Inmate Facility for booking after being medically cleared at Advent Health for her intoxication. Report by Deputy Spina
Assist Other Agency	20-122	Madison Green Cir	Juvenile female called on 911 advising that her mother was screaming at her for help, explaining that her mom could not see or hear. Upon arrival, adult female, who is blind, was having an unknown medical episode. She was transported by the rescue unit to Advent Health. Juvenile was taken to Advent to be with her mother and DCF was notified for an immediate response. Juvenile was left in the care of Advent Health case worker pending the arrival of DCF. Deputy Rosado.
Missing Person (Recovered)	20-940	Pittman Drive	Juvenile left on foot to an unknown location. The female was subsequently located and placed in custody under a baker act after being medically cleared. Report made by Deputy Dawson.
Assist Other Agency	20-920	Double Gate Road @ US1	St. Johns County / A mutual aid request was received from the St. Johns County Sheriff's Office to assist in locating a missing person. Corporal Gimbel and K9 Holmes (FCSO Bloodhound Team) responded and assisted with the search until it was determined the services were no longer needed.
Welfare Check	20-994	Town Ct (The Windsor)	Elderly female walked into the Windsor and appeared to be lost. She was unable to provide her name or address and appeared confused. Further investigation revealed that she lived at the neighboring facility, Las Palmas. She was returned there safely. DCF notified. Deputy Yeoman.
Overdose	20-909	Canal Ave	Twenty seven year old male possibly overdosed. EMS arrived and administered Narcan. The male was transported to Advent Health and was alert and conscious. Report by Dep. Seeley.
