TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Disturbance (Domestic)	20-1611	Farmsworth Lane	The victim reported that during an argument over trust issues, her boyfriend choked her and battered her. The suspect left the scene prior to law enforcement's arrival. Report by Deputy Faircloth
Suspicious Incident	20-1589	Blare Castle Drive	A 911 call was received in reference to the caller's elderly husband who fell and began hallucinating and then grabbed a gun. The elderly male did not make any threats with the firearm, however he was incoherent and the caller was concerned. The male was cleared by medical personnel on scene and was able to recover from his earlier episode. Report by Deputy Spina
Overdose	20-1636	Ranber Lane	White male found in the garage unresponsive. Hypodermic needle and unknown brown substance found nearby (suspected cathinones). Narcan deployed by Deputy Dawson and the male became responsive. He was evaluated by rescue on scene but denied further medical treatment and claimed that he did not know what type of substance he took. Deputy Dawson/ Deputy Schmidt
Assist Other Agency (Mutual Aid)	20-1474	SR 100 West	Putnam County Sheriff's Office requested Marine Unit deployment due to their Agency attempting to locate two boaters who had capsized their canoe. PCSO safely recovered the two boaters prior to any FCSO asset deployment.
