TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Criminal Mischief	18-101382	Malacompra Road	FCSO pulled into the park and observed an unknown subject run from the female bathroom and onto the beach. When FCSD inspected the bathrooms, he noticed that both bathrooms had fresh spray paint on them. FCSD along with district two units checked the area and could not locate the subject.
Domestic Disturbance	18-101282	Bayside Dr	S1 has been staying with his ex girlfriend V1 and her new boyfriend V2 at the above address. Today they asked S1 to leave several times, but he refused. V1 was using her phone to text her mom, and S1 snatched it from her. She pushed him trying to get the phone back, S1 then pushed her against the wall. S1 was arrested for Battery domestic and transported to the inmate facility without incident.
Domestic Disturbance	18-101304	Palm Coast Pwy Shell Station	V1 called 911 because his wife S1 was beating his truck with a broom. One customer had video of her hitting the truck. Contact was made with S1 who stated it started at home because V1 refused to bring her to the hospital so she can have her self admitted for a Baker Act. V1 was taken into protective custody for a Baker Act. S1 and witnesses refused statements and didn't want her charged.
Baker Act	18-101386	European Village	W/F was taken into protective custody for Baker Act
Domestic Disturbance	18-101389	Pheasant Dr	O1 stated that his wife's son, J1 came home over an hour late for his curfew. His wife, O2 was telling J1 what his punishment would and J1 got mad. O1 was watching from his phone through a security camera in the home and he thought J1 hit his wife, so he called 911. It was also confirmed through it was never physical.
