Assist Other Agency	18-101667	FHF	Deputies responded to FHF as a result of BPD case #18-18496.
Assist Public	18-101664	Point Pleasant Dr	O1 reported J1 had left the home in an unknown direction because O1 was attempting to discipline him due to him accessing inappropriate websites on the computer. A short time later, FCSO located the juvenile in the area of Walmart, and returned him to his residence without further incident.
Larceny-Shoplifter	18-101598	Palm Coast Pwy Kohls	Loss Prevention reported that a white male stole 2 pairs of socks, a grey shirt and hand towels. Once outside loss prevention made contact and the male ran off.
Robbery Commercial	18-101675	South Old Dixie Hwy	At approximately 11:45pm two employees just locked the doors to Dakota Joe's and were walking to their cars when an unknown black male approached them pointing a silver handgun at them and demanded to reopen the business and give him the money. The two employees opened the store and went back inside with the suspect. The male employee retrieved the money from the hiding spot and the suspect began to hit him several times in the head with the handgun until he fell to the floor. The female employee was able to call 911 as the suspect ran out the store with the money and got into the passenger side of a newer model black four-door vehicle.
