TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Burglary Commercial	19-101607	Palm Coast Parkway (Palm Coast Pawn and Jewelry)	Deputies responded to an alarm call and upon arrival, observed a smashed front window to the business. A perimeter was established and building was cleared without incident. The power was shut off on the side of the building at 0400 hours, which disabled surveillance cameras. The business owner arrived on scene and does not believe anything was stolen. He verified no firearms were stolen. Report completed by Dep. Smith
Missing juvenile	19-101594	Westmill Lane	Deputies responded to address after family members reported 4-year-old missing. Contact was made with RP, who stated when she woke up, her daughter was missing and the front door was open. A perimeter was established and a thorough search of the residence was conducted. RING camera video was viewed immediately, which showed the juvenile walk out of the residence approximately a half hour before Deputies responded. Dep. Lentino located the 4-year-old in the roadway at the intersection of Westfield and Westhampton. Child was in good health and turned over to family without further incident. Report completed by Dep. Hill.
Disturbance Physical	19-101603	Farrington Lane	Deputies responded to residence after multiple neighbors reported hearing yelling in neighborhood. Contact was made with O1 who stated that O2 attacked her and left the residence on foot prior to our arrival. While on scene, O2 came back to the residence and stated that O1 attacked him. Both subjects had injuries consistent with being in a disturbance but gave completely different statements. Charges forwarded to SAO for battery on both, not domestic violence. See report by Dep. Beane.
Misc.Compl aint	19-101584	Remington Rd (Eagle Rock)	Neighbors called in reference to a large party with underage drinking. Units responded and discovered several juveniles running from the residence. There was a large house party with no responsible adults on scene. Parents were contacted to pick up juveniles that had consumed alcohol. Field sobriety exercises were conducted on every vehicle operator leaving the party. Charges against the juvenile host of the party, for contributing to the delinquency of a child will be forwarded to the SAO. Report Made.
