TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Larceny-Petit Theft	19-106568	Waterside Pkwy	Vera Gazdzik advised while at this location appx. 2PM she was playing with children at the park and set her purse on a park bench, she then observed an unknown white female grab her purse and flee on foot. A short time later, private security located Vera's purse on the women's restroom floor. The purse was missing a debit card and $150.00 in cash.
Crash Hit and Run w/ injuries	19-106603	Belle Terre @ Kathleen Trl	Caller advised a motorcycle was possibly struck by another vehicle at this location, and the other vehicle fled the scene. The motorcyclist was lying in the roadway with severe injuries to his head. Units BOLO'd for the vehicle that fled the scene, but limited information was available, as the witness only heard the crash and did not observe it occur. The motorcyclist was not wearing a helmet and was transported by ground to Halifax.
Threats	19-106605		V1 stated her son, S1, sent her several text messages demanding money and stated if she did not give it to him, he was going to kill her. V1 stated she has been living with a family member down the road because she is afraid of S1 and what he might do if he does not get money for drugs. S1 was placed under arrest for written threats to kill.
