TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Civil Service	19-101526	Belleaire Drive	O1 requested that Deputies respond to residence and attempt to contact O2. O2 was served earlier today with an Injunction in Pinellas County, which gives O1 full custody of their 1-year-old child until further notice. The child was not removed at the time he was served for unknown reasons. O1 believes O2 and the child may be at his mother's address listed above. Deputies attempted contact but nobody appeared to be home. Contact was made with O1, who advised she would be driving to Flagler County in the morning. O1 does not believe the child is in danger. Pinellas provided a copy of the served Injunction and advised they do not have any charges at this time.
Police Vehicle Damage	19-101801	Belle Terre Parkway and Parkview Drive	Vehicle #6418 was traveling south bound on Belle Terre Parkway when it struck a deer.
Domestic Disturbance	19-101757	Lyons Place	RP reported that she got into a physical disturbance with her Son after he attacked her from trying to take electronics out of his room. RP was upset with S1 after she noticed he purchased video games with her debit card. RP confronted S1 about the purchase and after he ignored her, she proceeded to remove items. S1 grabbed RP, which caused a further struggle. S1 was arrested for DV battery after it was determined he was the primary aggressor. See report by Dep. S. Smith
Domestic Disturbance	19-101791	Underwood Trail	V1 reported that her boyfriend punched her and caused a back injury resulting in her having to go to Advent Health. Charges were completed on S1 for DV battery. S1 left the residence prior to our arrival and traveled to the Port Orange area (unknown exact location). Dep. Ray completed a 707 charging affidavit. Forwarded to Dayshift incase contact made.
Baker Act	19-101763	Patric Drive	A juvenile male was placed under a Baker Act
DUI	19-101825	I-95 at the 284 mile marker	S1 was arrested for DUI after she was stopped traveling south bound in the north bound lanes of I-95. Dispatch received several calls regarding the vehicle traveling in the wrong lanes.
Assist Other Agency	19-101785	N Fig Street	Bunnell PD responded to a reported disturbance at 210 N. Fig Street. Deputy J.G. Smith responded as back-up and assisted securing the suspect S1. The subject began resisting Deputy Smith and Officer Baker. Deputy Smith's protective glove ripped open during the scuffle. The suspect began convulsing, and Deputy Smith became nauseated before vomiting. Due to the suspect's admitted heroin use, emergency opioid antagonist was administered to Deputy Smith as a precautionary measure. He was transported to Advent Health where he was treated and released. Bunnell PD charged the suspect with burglary, theft, possession of paraphernalia and resisting arrest.
