CALLS FOR SERVICE	129	REPORTS WRITTEN	10	TRAFFIC STOPS	28	BAKER ACTS	3
WATCH COMMANDER: Cmdr. Welker				DATE: 12/16/2019

TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Disturbance Domestic (Baker Act)	19- 115724	Woodpecker Lane	V1 reported that S1 struck her and bit her during an altercation. Investigation revealed S1 met baker act criteria and was transported to SMA. No serious injuries were reported from this incident and all parties involved refused medical treatment and/or evaluation. Charges for DV battery will be forwarded to the SAO for review. Report by Deputy Seeley.
Disturbance Domestic	19- 115719	Zephyr Lily Place	The victim and suspect were involved in a verbal argument about the household dog having an ear infection and how the victim touched the dog's ears. During the argument S1 shoved the victim into a wall. S1 was subsequently placed under arrest for domestic battery and was transported to the Flagler County Inmate Facility without incident. Report by Deputy Jurec.
Traffic Stop	19- 115730	Belle Terre Pkwy @ SR 100	Deputy Rossi attempted a traffic stop on a Suzuki motorcycle at Belle Terre Pkwy southbound and SR 100 for a speeding violation, however the motorcycle accelerated and fled from Deputy Rossi. Deputy Rossi immediately terminated the attempted traffic stop and within minutes a motorist flagged down Deputy Stogdon about a motorcycle that crashed on Belle Terre Blvd near Zebulahs Trail. Upon units responding that that area, the motorcycle and its operator that fled from Deputy Rossi were located at the curve on Belle Terre Blvd in between the north and south intersections of Zebulahs Trail. The operator failed to negotiate the curve, hit a street sign and crashed the motorcycle (only vehicle involved). The operator, S1, was uninjured and placed under arrest for fleeing and eluding, driving while license suspended with knowledge and no motorcycle endorsement. Case report by Deputy Rossi / Crash report by Deputy Stogdon
Larceny	19- 115742	Florida Park Drive (James Holland Park)	O1 called 911 advising that someone had threatened to shoot him while he was walking near James Holland Park but no firearm was seen. During the investigation it was revealed that O1 and his friend had taken a juvenile female's purse from a bench and when the uncle realized it was taken he confronted the males. The money and wallet was recovered after the two admitted to taking the items. Contact was made with the father of the victim but he did not want to pursue charges against either male due to recovering all of the stolen property. Report made by Deputy Faircloth

Baker Act	19- 115803	Pine Cone Drive (Post Office)	Adult female placed in custody under a baker act.
Assist Other Agency	19- 115763	SR 100 @ 284 MM	FHP was in pursuit of a 2003 gray BMW for traffic related charges (reckless driving and fleeing and eluding). FHP pursued the vehicle southbound on Seminole Woods and then northbound on US1. Officer Zapata observed the vehicle "blackout" in the city of Bunnell and then enter the housing authority. Cpl. Groth located the vehicle in question unoccupied behind the Riverside Apartments. Air One was enroute, but was cancelled due to the amount of subjects in the area of the Riverside Apartments. The driver of the vehicle is unknown. The vehicle was towed by FHP.
