Death	20-17738	Cypress Point Pkwy (Superwash)	Palm Coast Fire Department responded to a brushfire east of the Superwash. Upon combating the fire they discovered a deceased person within the fire location. ISD, CSI and State Fire Marshal responded. Report by Deputy Sanchez.
Traffic Stop	20-17763	Palm Coast Parkway and Old Kings road	Sergeant Goncalves attempted a traffic stop on a black Camaro which had a stolen license plate on it which fled. The vehicle became disabled on I95 and three males were detained. The vehicle matched the description of one used in a Commercial Burglary in Gainesville on 2/23/20 to Fluvent Cannabis Dispensary. Within the vehicle a cannabis tube belonging to Fluvent Cannabis Dispensary was located. Attempts were made to contact an Emergency Contact from Fluvent to attempt to confirm the tube was stolen from the burglary but no contact was able to be made. Also inside the vehicle was a large pouch of assorted credit cards, driver's licenses and social security cards belonging to smash and grab vehicle burglaries from 2018 and 2019 cases from Polk County, Orlando PD, Orange County, Highlands County, Hillsborough County, Manatee County, Citrus County, Altamonte Springs PD, Pasco County, Plant City PD and Osceola County. Reports by Deputy Denker and Deputy Patel.
Narcotics	20-17744	County Road 304	Sergeant Weaver performed a traffic stop on vehicle due to an inoperable brake light. S1 was observed within the vehicle who Deputy Patel had felony charges for under case 2020-00014441 for uttering counterfeit pay instrument. S1 was placed under arrest and a small baggie of methamphetamines was located in his wallet. As S2 was exiting the vehicle he was observed clenching something in his hand which was later found to be a baggie of methamphetamines. S2 and S1 were both charged with possession of methamphetamines and both were found to be out on bond. Reports by Deputy Patel and Deputy Prevatt.
