CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-24216	Baker Act	Woodglen Place	A juvenile was placed under a Baker Act and transported to Halifax without incident.
18-24213	Disturbance Domestic	Fischer Lane	V1 stated she attempted to leave the residence after getting into a verbal argument with S1. S1 would not let V1 leave the residence and she then advised him she was calling 911. S1 then followed her and took her phone while hanging it up. Dispatch called the phone back and S1 answered and advised a child was playing on the phone. S1 was subsequently arrested for tampering with a witness and DWLS with knowledge.
18-24222	Disturbance Domestic	B Prosperity Lane	Deputies responded to residence after neighbors reported a disturbance. Contact was made with O1 and O2 who were having a verbal argument. O2 was upset after finding text messages on O1s phone and believed she was cheating on him. Nothing physical occurred and O1 left the residence without incident.
18-24200	Disturbance Domestic	Karat Path	V1 stated that she got into a verbal argument with S1 in reference to cheating. V1 stated that she picked up S1's IPAD and started to look through it. S1 then grabbed the IPAD and while doing so, twisted her arm. No visible injuries were observed from this altercation. DV paperwork and statements were completed and parties were separated. V1 wished to pursue charges for battery. A charging affidavit was completed and submitted to SAO.
