CASE #	TYPE	LOCATION	SUMMARY
18-27486	Disturbance-Domestic	US1 and Seminole Woods	Deputy was travelling on US1 south when he observed a disturbance in the vehicle directly in front of him. The deputy stopped the vehicle and the driver exited vehicle and walked toward him. Dep. West observed a knife on his waist, so he had him prone out on the ground. While on the ground the male took the knife from the sheath and threw it at the deputy, missing him. The male, S1, was arrested for Domestic Battery and Agg assault on LEO.
18-27175	(Follow Up) Disturbance Physical	Tangerine Avenue	V1, stated that S1, struck him with a baseball bat on the head, face, and leg during an altercation at V1's residence. S1's injuries and evidence on scene were consistent with his statements. S1 was unable to be located and a charging affidavit will be turned over to dayshift in reference to Aggravated Battery with a Deadly Weapon. S1 was located on Pecan Ave and placed under arrest.
18-27522	Shooting	Hickory Street	O1 stated he heard people outside of his residence and he went and got his .22 handgun because he feared for his life. O1 stated somehow the gun discharged and he was shot in the left thigh. O1 was transported to Halifax Hospital in Daytona with a non-life threatening injury. Evidence on scene supported O1's statement of being accidentally shot.
