TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Narcotics	19-28423	Rockefeller Drive	Deputies responded to residence after reports of a disturbance between a male and female where the male was blocking in the female's vehicle. S1 was detained and subsequently arrested for possession of Hashish Oil. While being escorted to a patrol vehicle for transport, S1 pulled away from Deputy and took off running. He was located in the wood line on Rolling Sands. A Taser cartridge was deployed but did not strike subject. No injuries were sustained to anyone. S1 was arrested for possession of hashish oil, resisting arrest w/out violence, and escape.
Baker Act	19-28401	Heroes Park	Adult male taken into custody under the Baker Act.
Domestic Disturbance	19-28456	Ryberry Drive	S1 hit V1 multiple times in the back of his head. Children inside the residence witnessed the disturbance and corroborated V1's statement. S1 was uncooperative and refused to provide a statement. S1 was placed under arrest for DV battery.
Death (Accidental)	19-28403	Bill Court	Deputies responded to an assist other agency call for service reference a male who fell in the bathroom. Upon arrival, contact was made with Rescue 24 who were already on scene and had the male on the stretcher. Adult male had a large laceration across the top his forehead consistent with hitting it on a hard surface. No foul play was suspected.
Disturbance Domestic	19-28434	Cypress Point Pkwy	Multiple calls from witnesses stating male was grabbing female against her will and she was screaming and struggling to get away. Contact made with female RP who gave a voluntary witness statement and wishes to pursue battery charges. Other witness statements also obtained. Male was located at his residence approx. 1.5-2 hours later. Male taken into custody and transported without incident. Report made Deputy Ocampo
Baker Act	19-28465	Radcliff Drive	Juvenile taken into custody under the Baker Act.
Disturbance Domestic	19-28471	Ehrling Lane	Disturbance between male and female over the female taking a drug test and showing positive for THC. The female was determined to initially be the primary aggressor after she threw two shoes at the male, hitting him in the head with the second shoe and leaving a mark on his forehead. The female then slapped the male and was screaming at him. The male grabbed the female and pushed her away and left the room. The male then returned a short time later and became the aggressor when he cornered the female in the walk in closet and struck her multiple times in the head and face. A large red mark was observed on the right cheek of the female. Due to the fact that both parties were victims and mutual combatants, they were both taken into custody and charged with battery domestic.

Follow-up	19-27081	Bayside Drive	Missing juvenile returned. He was in good health. Removed from NCIC/FCIC by Dispatch. See supplement report by Deputy Held.
