TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Missing Juvenile	19-31362	Flat Rock Lane	A concerned citizen reported that she located a two-year-old female walking down the street with a dog. Contact was made with her father, O1, who stated he fell asleep and once he woke up realized the two-year-old was missing. O1 advised his dog opened a partially opened sliding glass door, which enabled his daughter to leave the residence. DCF was already notified and were responding due to not being able to locate a parent.
Baker Act	19-31384	Wellford Lane	Juvenile was placed under a Baker Act.
Baker Act	19-31366	Sea Trail	Female transported to FHF for medical treatment under BA.
Suspicious Incident	19-31387	Acorn Ave Bunnell	RP called the sheriff's office when he saw a vehicle drop of a male in front of a home has known to be vacant since he moved in across the street. RP said he heard noise like glass breaking come from the property. FCSO heard movement inside the residence and gave commands for the occupants to exit the residence. An intoxicated male came out and was secured before the residence was cleared for any other subjects. Investigation found that the male who was inside, was the owner of the property.
