TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Disturbance Weapons	19- 40637	Debra Lane	Units responded to Debra Lane in regards to a caller who advised his neighbor was at his residence with a gun and threatened to kill him and his wife. S1 was placed under arrest for aggravated assault and transported to FCIF without incident.
Disturbance -Domestic	19-40726	N. I-95	O1 and O2 are traveling together, by bus , from Miami to Atlanta. O2 stated when O1 tried to get the phone charger, the bus driver hit the brakes causing O1 to accidentally hit her by her mouth. O1stated that he went to get the charger and she put him in a headlock. The other 40+ passengers advised they did not see anything. We could not determine who was the aggressor and had no independent witness. The bus driver stated he would have O2 sit right next to him and O2 would sit upstairs, keeping them separated until they arrive in Atlanta.
Threats	19-40655	Belle Terre (BTES)	3 Juveniles were involved in an altercation on the bus, which was called in by the Vice Principal, after she received an email from one of the parents. J1 parent emailed that J2 made mention of a gun during the altercation. Contact was made with J1 who advised J2 just said he had one at home. The parents all advised that the juveniles do not have access to any weapons. The school is going to view bus video surveillance and already has a meeting planned with all involved.
Narcotics	19-40732	Cherry Ln	Units were checking on a mentally ill call when contact was made with S1 who invited deputies onto his property. S1 was smoking marijuana out of a blue glass bowl and told deputies that he has a marijuana plant on his property. S1 then invited deputies to the corner of his property were he showed them a green plant approximately 2 foot tall, which tested presumptive positive for marijuana. S1 was cooperative throughout the CFS and was arrested.
