TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Larceny	20-52257	Garden St N Home Depot	A male was observed stealing a gray 2019 Santa Cruz Bronc C bicycle (valued at $5,300) from a bicycle hitch rack of a vehicle in the parking lot of Home Depot. The witness observed the suspect place the bicycle into a Ford Explorer. The witness followed the vehicle to Palm Coast Parkway and observed the vehicle travel southbound on I-95. A tag was obtained which came back to a residence in Ormond Beach. Ormond Beach Police Department was contacted and conducted a traffic stop on the vehicle (two hours after the bicycle was stolen), but the bicycle was not inside of the vehicle. A person inside of the vehicle matched the description of the suspect and a photo lineup will be obtained. The bicycle was entered into FCIC/NCIC as being stolen. Report by Dep. Doggett
Trespassing	20-52249	Ullian Trl	The homeowners of a new built home were moving in their belongings yesterday and left for the day. When they returned today, they discovered that a bed in the residence appeared as if someone slept in it and also the toilet appeared to have been used. The rear door was left unsecure and the residence did not have any signs of forced entry. Nothing was missing from inside the home and everything else appeared untouched. Report by Deputy Jurec
Trespassing	20-52329	Round Thorn Drive	S1 arrived at the above location after being previously trespassed by the property controller (2020-51194) and was still on scene when law enforcement arrived. S1 resisted arrest but was secured without further issue. S1 was placed under arrest for trespass after warning and resisting arrest without violence. He was transported to Advent Health for medical clearance and later transported to the Flagler County Inmate Facility without incident. Report by Deputy Kotowski
