TYPE	CASE#	LOCATION	SUMMARY
Disturbance Weapons	19-76909	Pershing Lane	S1 placed under arrest for aggravated assault with a deadly weapon. S1 had flooded to street with water from his residence and when a neighbor asked him to shut it off, he became irate and charged her with an axe. He was placed under arrest without incident. Upon arriving at the jail, S1 advised the staff that his right foot had been run over by a car a week ago. He was transported to Advent Health for medical clearance. Upon arrival at Advent Health they advised that his foot was severely infected and possibly broken. They also advised that it is so infected that one of his toes may need to be amputated and he is going to be admitted and won't be seen by a podiatrist until the morning to decide exactly what needs to be done. 707 completed and turned over to the jail so he can be booked and have first appearance. At this time S1 is still at Advent Health. The jail will be standing by with S1 after first appearance. Report made by Deputy Pierre
Disturbance Domestic	19-76976	Pinetree Drive	S1 placed under arrest for domestic battery due to striking his girlfriend in the face and hands during an argument. Report made by Deputy Lewis
