

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT, SEVENTH
JUDICIAL CIRCUIT, IN AND FOR
FLAGLER COUNTY, FLORIDA

CASE NO.: 2022-CF-000251
JUDGE: PERKINS

STATE OF FLORIDA,

v.

DAMARI MARQUIS BARNES, Defendant.

DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO SET REASONABLE BOND

COMES NOW the Defendant, DAMARI MARQUIS BARNES, by and through the undersigned attorney of record, and files this, his Motion to Set Reasonable Bond. As for grounds, the Defendant would assert the following:

1. On or around February 5, 2022, the Defendant was charged by the State of Florida as an adult via Information for the offense of Manslaughter with a Firearm.
2. Defendant currently is in the custody of the Flagler County, being housed in Duval County and held on a $500,000.00 bond.
3. Mr. Barnes has been a long-time resident of Flagler, County Florida and has strong ties to this community which includes his immediate family,
4. Prior to his arrest Mr. Barnes was a high school student in Flagler County and resided with his mother.
5. Upon release he would reside in Flagler County, Florida with his mother.
6. Mr. Barnes would rely on the efforts of his family to post bond if given the opportunity and he would comply with any condition of release imposed by this Court including electronic monitoring.
7. Mr. Barnes is not a flight risk, has never failed to appear in Court, has never been adjudicated delinquent and has no felony history.

8. At its current amount, the bond as set is tantamount to no bond at all.

WHEREFORE, Defendant moves this Honorable Court for an Order granting his Motion to Set a Reasonable Bond because the bond as set is tantamount to no bond at all.
