MOTION BY INTERESTED PARTY FLAGLER COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS TO REVOKE DISCHARGE AND TO CONVERT CASE TO CHAPTER 7 AS A BAD FAITH FILING UNDER 11 U.S.C. §§ 1307, 1328

Interested Party, the FLAGLER COUNTY BOARD OF COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ("Flagler County BOCC") files its Motion to Revoke Discharge and to Convert Case to Chapter 7 as a Bad Faith Filing under 11 U.S.C. §§ 1307, 1328, and as grounds therefor would show:

I. Introduction

- 1. Through this Motion, the Flagler County BOCC seeks relief in the form of the revocation of the discharge granted to Debtor, Cynthia A. D'Angiolini ("the Debtor") on November 15, 2022 (Doc. 22) and the conversion of this case to one under Chapter 7. The basis for this significant tandem of remedies, as supported by the relevant provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and interpretative case law, is the occurrence of certain egregious acts and omissions of the Debtor which the Flagler County BOCC suggests amount to bad faith as that term is intended by the Bankruptcy Code and by interpretative case law.
- 2. Specifically, the Debtor failed to schedule or otherwise disclose the existence of two parcels of non-homestead beach front real estate ("the Beach Front Property") to the Court and to her creditors, either initially when required, or at any time thereafter during the three (3) year pendency of this case. Moreover, the failure of the Debtor to disclose the Beach Front Property is material for several reasons: first, complete disclosure is mandatory. But secondly, by failing to disclose the Beach Front Property, the Debtor escaped including its fair market value into the computation of her obligation in her confirmed and supposedly "completed" Chapter 13 Plan. Instead, the Debtor sought and obtained a discharge of approximately $37,000 in debt in exchange for making a total of thirty-six (36) monthly payments of $150 each, all the while possessing, but not disclosing, her real estate holdings consisting of the Beach Front Property.

- 3. Moreover, it would appear unlikely if not impossible that the failure to disclose the Beach Front Property was an inadvertent act by the Debtor. This is because the Debtor had retained separate counsel to represent her in negotiations with the Flagler County BOCC for easement rights concerning that very Beach Front Property, going back to approximately December 2020 when compensation offers were made on behalf of the County. Accordingly, the Debtor apparently sought to conceal her interest in the Beach Front Property and thus diminish her obligation to and prejudice her creditors, while hoping to capitalize on the funds she would presumably receive from the Flagler Beach BOCC through these negotiations, which, to date, have not been successful.
- 4. In view of the entirety of the surrounding facts of this case, the Debtor filed this case in bad faith, should have her discharge revoked, and should have this case converted to one under Chapter 7.

II. The Parties

5. Cynthia A. D'Angiolini ("the Debtor") is a Debtor before the Court, having commenced a Chapter 13 case on October 2, 2019. The Debtor owns and has owned the Beach Front Property since 1997. The Beach Front Property was not disclosed in this case until after the undersigned counsel for the Flagler County BOCC brought the Debtor's failure to disclose to the attention of Debtor's counsel on Sunday, December 4, 2022.

6. The Flagler County Board of County Commissioners ("the Flagler County BOCC") is a local governmental entity and is a party in interest, as it has a direct pecuniary interest in these proceedings by virtue of the necessity that it seek and obtain certain easement rights to the Beach Front Property as a matter of public safety to the residents of and visitors to the beaches in Flagler County.

III. False Filings in the Bankruptcy Case

- 7. The Chapter 13 petition and schedules were filed on the same date, October 2, 2019. They are attached as Exhibit "A". Nowhere within the petition and schedules and certainly not at Schedule A/B, is the Beach Front Property listed or otherwise disclosed.
- 8. Nor does the case docket on PACER reflect the amendment or supplementation of schedules to add or disclose the Debtor's ownership of the Beach Front Property prior to the notification by the undersigned counsel to the Flagler County BOCC to Debtor's counsel on December 4, 2022.
- 9. The Debtor filed a Chapter 13 Plan which provides for a bare minimum of creditor payments during the three-year span of the Chapter 13 Plan. Specifically, the Chapter 13 Plan provides for a $150 monthly payment to the Chapter 13 Trustee, totaling $5400. From that amount, the Debtor's bankruptcy lawyer received $1800, leaving $3600 to be divided up between the Chapter 13 Trustee for administrative fees and the Debtor's creditors, to pay a small portion of creditor claims totaling $37,000. The addition of the fair market value of the Beach Front Property in the computation of the Debtor's Plan payments, would have increased creditor

distributions significantly. 1

10. Conversely, due to the failure of the Debtor to disclose the Beach Front Property to this Court and her creditors, she enjoys a future savings of funds that rightfully should have been paid out to her creditors. Instead, the Debtor would hope to keep those funds for herself, and now seeks to boost her financial standing by holding the Flagler County BOCC hostage over matters of public safety, and for her own personal benefit—more on that, below.

IV. The Army Corp of Engineers Project

A. Historical Background

- 11. Flagler County suffered significant damages to State Road A-1-A after Hurricane Matthew in October 2016. The road was closed at the south end of the City of Flagler Beach. The road collapsed from the force of the storm waves.
- 12. Later, on September 26, 2022, Flagler County declared a local state of emergency, in conjunction with the state of emergency declared by the governor two days earlier, so that timely precautions could be taken to protect the community from the anticipated impact of Hurricane Ian. Hurricane Ian struck Flagler County on September 29, 2022, flooding neighborhoods and eliminating vast swaths of the entire Atlantic coastline dune system of Flagler County. The County has extended that local state of emergency every seven days to this date and expects its continuation because the damage Hurricane Ian caused to the dune system exposes residents and neighborhoods to a greater chance of catastrophic damage from future storms.
 - 13. Only weeks later, on November 8, 2022, while still in this precarious situation, the ¹ On December 7, 2022, and after Debtor's counsel was notified of the Debtor's failure to disclose the Beach Front Property, the Debtor finally amended her schedules to disclose the Beach Front Property. Notably, the Debtor valued those properties in an amount the Flagler County BOCC believes to be the value of easement rights, only, rather than the actual fair market value of the Beach Front Property, which is a considerably higher amount.

County declared a local state of emergency for then Subtropical Storm Nicole in conjunction with the governor's declaration of a state of emergency. As it evolved to a major hurricane, Nicole impacted Flagler County the following day, further decimating entire swaths of the County's already damaged dune system, flooding dozens of homes, and severely damaging public infrastructure including portions of State Road A1A. With no dune to protect State Road A1A, an arterial roadway and evacuation route, portions of the asphalt collapsed onto the beach, closing off the route to residents and businesses. The County has extended the local state of emergency every seven days as Nor'easter season approaches with virtually no dune system to protect the community. Attached hereto as composite Exhibit "B" are photographs of the storm erosion damage in Flagler Beach which in turn prompted the necessity of the Army Corp of Engineers Project.

- 14. Flagler County sought funding from a variety of sources to repair dunes along its coastline. Because the Hurricane Matthew damage in Flagler was widely broadcast, Flagler was catapulted into national news, bringing much attention to Flagler. Notably, all of A-1-A in Flagler County is a national landmark, especially in Flagler Beach where direct visual access to the beach is its hallmark. It is a designated National Scenic Byway and, more recently this year, also designated an All American Road. Designation as an important national resource added impetus for grant funding agencies to consider aiding Flagler.
- 15. The Army Corps of Engineers received congressional authorization to perform a beach restoration plan in the City of Flagler Beach. A grant agreement with the Corps established its Coastal Storm Risk Management Project in July of 2019. The Army Corps selected 2.6 miles of A-1-A to be renourished costing approximately $17.6 Million by 2019 estimates. The Florida Department of Transportation (FDOT) agreed to help contribute to the match. Other partners included the Florida Department of Environmental Protection (FDEP) and the City of Flagler Beach.

- 16. This 2.6-mile segment for the project is designated as "Critically Eroding," an official determination by FDEP that this segment of the beach is highly vulnerable to storm damage and upland property losses. Having the agreement with the Army Corps included access to offshore sand owned by the United States made available at no cost to Flagler or the Corps or other agency partners except for dredging it and placing it on the beach. The volume has been approved up to 1.33 million cubic yards of sand. To quantify the dollar value of this contribution, one must use the latest bid prices for compatible sand material to be hauled from upland mines for repairs following Hurricane Nicole. That value is about $25 per cubic yard of the raw material. That means that the in-kind of value of the sand contribution by the United States to Flagler Beach is $33.25 million, on top of the construction costs.
- 17. Notably this sand borrow site was evaluated and tested. It has no rubble or organics, the latter of which causes a stench as the organics decay in the sun. There are also no historical resources that will be impacted. Part of the reason for this stellar sand source is that it is outside the shipping channels and most other boat traffic, being that the sand source is almost near a midpoint between the two nearest inlets, Ponce and Matanzas Inlets.

B. Critical Importance of Required Easements

- 18. To conduct the project, the Army Corps project requires easements across the entire segment length. These are non-buildable parcels east of A-1-A that consist of sand dune and beach. They provide view to their owners and also the opportunity to construct a dune walkover subject to permitting.
 - 19. Flagler's task has been to procure a line of continuous easements along the segment, Debtor. The Army Corps is reluctant to construct the project at such great expense while leaving two holes in the sand/dune renourishment that will be armoring of the beach. The Debtor's two parcels are not contiguous and thus not restoring them will leave two potential breach points. This situation creates a long-term vulnerability that is not acceptable to the Army Corps or the other agency partners, or the property owners of the community. The project simply cannot proceed without these two remnants, and the offshore sand source likewise will not be available for beach repair and restoration.

- 20. This is particularly important because the Army Corps continues its role for 50 years over this segment. After every presidentially declared storm it will rebuild the beach exclusively at the cost of the United States, including access to the offshore borrow site. On a cycle of every 10 or 11 years it will renourish the beach with a 50-50 split of those costs.
- 21. Viewed as a whole, the public is receiving almost a limited performance warranty.

 The advantages of this 50-year program do not materialize, however, if the project is not built. It is therefore critical to the survival of the project that the land interests of the Debtor be secured.
- 22. For that reason, the Flagler County BOCC has in good faith negotiated with the Debtor for a span of nearly two years to obtain easement rights to the Beach Front Property. The Debtor remains the lone non-participant of 140 property owners. The Debtor's refusal to negotiate in good faith and to instead attempt to hold Flagler County and its residents hostage concerning the grant of money for the project was frustrating enough. But to now learn through Flagler County's own diligence that the Debtor is operating in bad faith in the Federal Bankruptcy system is an abomination of the highest order. Even since the courtesy disclosure by the undersigned to the Debtor's counsel on this past Sunday and, separately, a disclosure by the County Attorney to her counsel on the Beach Front Property sale this past Saturday, the disclosures have yielded no concrete effort to properly resolve the issue of the omission of the Debtor's Property from required disclosures. Moreover, the Debtor's proposed remedial measures to solve the substantial issues created by her tardy (by three years) disclosure of the Beach Front Property are woefully inadequate. Specifically, through her Motion to Amend Confirmed Plan, filed December 7, 2022, the Debtor proposes that she pay her creditors with "borrowed money" in an amount that approximates the value of easement rights to the Beach Front Property, rather than the actual fair market value of the Beach Front Property, as required.

Summary

assets from her creditors and from this Court from the moment she filed this case, until three years later. Disclosure was made only after the undersigned counsel to the Flagler County FBCC notified her bankruptcy attorney about the Debtor's failure to disclose. All the while, the Debtor had other legal counsel seeking to negotiate the payment for easement rights on property hidden from the Bankruptcy Court. Moreover, the remedy now offered by the Debtor—that she be permitted to obtain borrowed funds to pay her creditors substantially less than required under the Bankruptcy Code, offers too little, too late. The Debtor should not be permitted to disobey the mandatory provisions of the Bankruptcy Code and then profit from her own disobedience. Congress enacted the Bankruptcy Code with the intention to provide the honest but unfortunate debtor with a fresh financial start—not to give a dishonest or noncompliant debtor with an undeserved jump start.

V. Claims for Relief

A. Revocation of Discharge

- 24. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 23 are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.
- 25. Section 1328(e) of the Bankruptcy Code provides in part: "On request of a party in interest before one year after a discharge under this section is granted, and after notice and a hearing, the court may revoke such discharge only if (1) such discharge was obtained by the debtor through fraud; and (2) the requesting party did not know of such fraud until after such discharge was granted.
 - 26. The Debtor received a discharge in this case on November 15, 2022.
- 27. The Debtor received her discharge by fraudulent means, by failing to disclose the Beach Front Property, by representing to the Court and her creditors that all of her assets were disclosed, when they were not; and by filing a deficient Chapter 13 Plan, which prejudiced creditors by providing for a falsely reduced distribution while the Debtor benefited financially from her misdeed, at the expense of her creditors.
 - 28. This Motion is filed within one year of the date the discharge was granted.
- 29. The Flagler County BOCC was unaware of the fraudulent actions of the Debtor of concealing the Beach Front Property from the Court and her creditors until after the discharge was entered.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Flagler County Board of County

Commissioners respectfully requests that this Motion be granted; that the discharge issued on November 15, 2022 be revoked; and for any and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

B. Conversion to Chapter 7

- 30. The allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 23 are realleged and incorporated herein by reference.
- 31. Section 1307(c) provides in part: "On request of a party in interest or the United States trustee and after notice and a hearing, the court may convert a case under this chapter to a case under chapter 7 of this title, or may dismiss a case under this chapter, whichever is in the best interests of creditors and the estate, for cause.
- 32. As cause warranting dismissal, the Debtor willfully failed to disclose the Beach Front Property in her schedules or by any other fashion in this case, for which failure to disclose, she unfairly financially benefited at the expense of her creditors.
- 33. It would be in the best interest of creditors that the case be converted rather than dismissed in order that all assets including the Beach Front Properties are fully administered.

WHEREFORE, for the foregoing reasons, the Flagler County Board of County Commissioners respectfully requests that this Motion be granted; that this case be converted to one under Chapter 7, and for any and such other and further relief as this Court deems just and equitable.

The bankruptcy forms use you and Debtor 1 to refer to a debtor filing alone. A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case—and in joint cases, these forms use you to ask for information from both debtors. For example, if a form asks, "Do you own a car," the answer would be yes if either debtor owns a car. When information is needed about the spouses separately, the form uses Debtor 1 and Debtor 2 to distinguish between them. In joint cases, one of the spouses must report information as Debtor 1 and the other as Debtor 2. The same person must be Debtor 1 in all of the forms.

Be as complete and accurate as possible. If two married people are filing together, both are equally responsible for supplying correct information. If more space is needed, attach a separate sheet to this form. On the top of any additional pages, write your name and case number (if known). Answer every question.

Part 5:

Explain Your Efforts to Receive a Briefing About Credit Counseling

 Tell the court whether you have received a briefing about credit counseling.

The law requires that you receive a briefing about credit counseling before you file for bankruptcy. You must truthfully check one of the following choices. If you cannot do so, you are not eligible to file.

If you file anyway, the court can dismiss your case, you will lose whatever filing fee you paid, and your creditors can begin collection activities again.

About Debtor 1:

You must check one:

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy. If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

☐ I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver credit counseling with the court.

About Debtor 2 (Spouse Only in a Joint Case):

You must check one:

□ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, and I received a certificate of completion.

Attach a copy of the certificate and the payment plan, if any, that you developed with the agency.

☐ I received a briefing from an approved credit counseling agency within the 180 days before I filed this bankruptcy petition, but I do not have a certificate of completion.

Within 14 days after you file this bankruptcy petition, you MUST file a copy of the certificate and payment plan, if any.

I certify that I asked for credit counseling services from an approved agency, but was unable to obtain those services during the 7 days after I made my request, and exigent circumstances merit a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement.

To ask for a 30-day temporary waiver of the requirement, attach a separate sheet explaining what efforts you made to obtain the briefing, why you were unable to obtain it before you filed for bankruptcy, and what exigent circumstances required you to file this case.

Your case may be dismissed if the court is dissatisfied with your reasons for not receiving a briefing before you filed for bankruptcy.

If the court is satisfied with your reasons, you must still receive a briefing within 30 days after you file. You must file a certificate from the approved agency, along with a copy of the payment plan you developed, if any. If you do not do so, your case may be dismissed.

Any extension of the 30-day deadline is granted only for cause and is limited to a maximum of 15 days.

I am not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling because of:

☐ Incapacity.

I have a mental illness or a mental deficiency that makes me incapable of realizing or making rational decisions about finances.

☐ Disability.

My physical disability causes me to be unable to participate in a briefing in person, by phone, or through the internet, even after I reasonably tried to do so.

☐ Active duty.

I am currently on active military duty in a military combat zone.

If you believe you are not required to receive a briefing about credit counseling, you must file a motion for waiver of credit counseling with the court.

Notice Required by 11 U.S.C. § 342(b) for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Form 2010)

This notice is for you if:

You are an individual filing for bankruptcy, and

Your debts are primarily consumer debts. Consumer debts are defined in 11 U.S.C. § 101(8) as "incurred by an individual primarily for a personal, family, or household purpose."

The types of bankruptcy that are available to individuals

Individuals who meet the qualifications may file under one of four different chapters of Bankruptcy Code:

Chapter 7 - Liquidation

Chapter 11 - Reorganization

Chapter 12 - Voluntary repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

Chapter 13 - Voluntary repayment plan for individuals with regular income

You should have an attorney review your decision to file for bankruptcy and the choice of chapter.

C	hapter 7:	Liquidation
	$245	filing fee
	$75	administrative fee
+	$15	trustee surcharge
	$335	total fee

Chapter 7 is for individuals who have financial difficulty preventing them from paying their debts and who are willing to allow their nonexempt property to be used to pay their creditors. The primary purpose of filing under chapter 7 is to have your debts discharged. The bankruptcy discharge relieves you after bankruptcy from having to pay many of your pre-bankruptcy debts. Exceptions exist for particular debts, and liens on property may still be enforced after discharge. For example, a creditor may have the right to foreclose a home mortgage or repossess an automobile.

However, if the court finds that you have committed certain kinds of improper conduct described in the Bankruptcy Code, the court may deny your discharge.

You should know that even if you file chapter 7 and you receive a discharge, some debts are not discharged under the law. Therefore, you may still be responsible to pay:

most taxes:

most student loans;

domestic support and property settlement obligations;

most fines, penalties, forfeitures, and criminal restitution obligations; and certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers.

You may also be required to pay debts arising from:

fraud or theft:

fraud or defalcation while acting in breach of fiduciary capacity;

intentional injuries that you inflicted; and death or personal injury caused by operating a motor vehicle, vessel, or aircraft while intoxicated from alcohol or drugs.

If your debts are primarily consumer debts, the court can dismiss your chapter 7 case if it finds that you have enough income to repay creditors a certain amount. You must file Chapter 7 Statement of Your Current Monthly Income (Official Form 122A–1) if you are an individual filing for bankruptcy under chapter 7. This form will determine your current monthly income and compare whether your income is more than the median income that applies in your state.

If your income is not above the median for your state, you will not have to complete the other chapter 7 form, the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2).

If your income is above the median for your state, you must file a second form —the Chapter 7 Means Test Calculation (Official Form 122A–2). The calculations on the form— sometimes called the Means Test—deduct from your income living expenses and payments on certain debts to determine any amount available to pay unsecured creditors. If your income is more than the median income for your state of residence and family size, depending on the results of the Means Test, the U.S. trustee, bankruptcy administrator, or creditors can file a motion to dismiss your case under § 707(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. If a motion is filed, the court will decide if your case should be dismissed. To avoid dismissal, you may choose to proceed under another chapter of the Bankruptcy Code.

If you are an individual filing for chapter 7 bankruptcy, the trustee may sell your property to pay your debts, subject to your right to exempt the property or a portion of the proceeds from the sale of the property. The property, and the proceeds from property that your bankruptcy trustee sells or liquidates that you are entitled to, is called exempt property. Exemptions may enable you to keep your home, a car, clothing, and household items or to receive some of the proceeds if the property is sold.

Exemptions are not automatic. To exempt property, you must list it on Schedule C: The Property You Claim as Exempt (Official Form 106C). If you do not list the property, the trustee may sell it and pay all of the proceeds to your creditors.

Chapter 11: Reorganization

$1,167 filing fee

$550 administrative fee

$1,717 total fee

Chapter 11 is often used for reorganizing a business, but is also available to individuals. The provisions of chapter 11 are too complicated to summarize briefly.

Read These Important Warnings

Because bankruptcy can have serious long-term financial and legal consequences, including loss of your property, you should hire an attorney and carefully consider all of your options before you file. Only an attorney can give you legal advice about what can happen as a result of filing for bankruptcy and what your options are. If you do file for bankruptcy, an attorney can help you fill out the forms properly and protect you, your family, your home, and your possessions.

Although the law allows you to represent yourself in bankruptcy court, you should understand that many people find it difficult to represent themselves successfully. The rules are technical, and a mistake or inaction may harm you. If you file without an attorney, you are still responsible for knowing and following all of the legal requirements.

You should not file for bankruptcy if you are not eligible to file or if you do not intend to file the necessary documents.

Bankruptcy fraud is a serious crime; you could be fined and imprisoned if you commit fraud in your bankruptcy case. Making a false statement, concealing property, or obtaining money or property by fraud in connection with a bankruptcy case can result in fines up to $250,000, or imprisonment for up to 20 years, or both. 18 U.S.C. §§ 152, 1341, 1519, and 3571.

Chapter 12: Repayment plan for family farmers or fishermen

	$200	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
_	$275	total fee

Similar to chapter 13, chapter 12 permits family farmers and fishermen to repay their debts over a period of time using future earnings and to discharge some debts that are not paid.

Chapter 13: Repayment plan for individuals with regular income

	$235	filing fee
+	$75	administrative fee
	$310	total fee

Chapter 13 is for individuals who have regular income and would like to pay all or part of their debts in installments over a period of time and to discharge some debts that are not paid. You are eligible for chapter 13 only if your debts are not more than certain dollar amounts set forth in 11 U.S.C. § 109.

Under chapter 13, you must file with the court a plan to repay your creditors all or part of the money that you owe them, usually using your future earnings. If the court approves your plan, the court will allow you to repay your debts, as adjusted by the plan, within 3 years or 5 years, depending on your income and other factors.

After you make all the payments under your plan, many of your debts are discharged. The debts that are not discharged and that you may still be responsible to pay include:

domestic support obligations,

most student loans,

certain taxes,

debts for fraud or theft, debts for fraud or defalcation while acting in a fiduciary capacity, most criminal fines and restitution obligations,

certain debts that are not listed in your bankruptcy papers, certain debts for acts that caused death or personal injury, and certain long-term secured debts.

Warning: File Your Forms on Time

Section 521(a)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code requires that you promptly file detailed information about your creditors, assets, liabilities, income, expenses and general financial condition. The court may dismiss your bankruptcy case if you do not file this information within the deadlines set by the Bankruptcy Code, the Bankruptcy Rules, and the local rules of the court.

For more information about the documents and their deadlines, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/bkforms/bankruptcy_form s.html#procedure.

Bankruptcy crimes have serious consequences

If you knowingly and fraudulently conceal assets or make a false oath or statement under penalty of perjury—either orally or in writing—in connection with a bankruptcy case, you may be fined, imprisoned, or both.

All information you supply in connection with a bankruptcy case is subject to examination by the Attorney General acting through the Office of the U.S. Trustee, the Office of the U.S. Attorney, and other offices and employees of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Make sure the court has your mailing address

The bankruptcy court sends notices to the mailing address you list on Voluntary Petition for Individuals Filing for Bankruptcy (Official Form 101). To ensure that you receive information about your case, Bankruptcy Rule 4002 requires that you notify the court of any changes in your address.

A married couple may file a bankruptcy case together—called a joint case. If you file a joint case and each spouse lists the same mailing address on the bankruptcy petition, the bankruptcy court generally will mail you and your spouse one copy of each notice, unless you file a statement with the court asking that each spouse receive separate copies.

Understand which services you could receive from credit counseling agencies

The law generally requires that you receive a credit counseling briefing from an approved credit counseling agency. 11 U.S.C. § 109(h). If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must receive the briefing. With limited exceptions, you must receive it within the 180 days before you file your bankruptcy petition. This briefing is usually conducted by telephone or on the Internet.

In addition, after filing a bankruptcy case, you generally must complete a financial management instructional course before you can receive a discharge. If you are filing a joint case, both spouses must complete the course.

You can obtain the list of agencies approved to provide both the briefing and the instructional course from: http://justice.gov/ust/eo/hapcpa/ccde/cc_approved.html

In Alabama and North Carolina, go to: http://www.uscourts.gov/FederalCourts/Bankruptcy/Bankruptcy/BankruptcyResources/ApprovedCredit AndDebtCounselors.aspx.

If you do not have access to a computer, the clerk of the bankruptcy court may be able to help you obtain the list.

Several segments of State Road A1A in Flagler Beach and south of the city were carved out by waves unleashed by Tropical Storm Nicole, just three years after the Department of Transportation completed a $22.4 millio project to rebuild the road and add a sea wall further north. The sea wall held. The road did not. Two DOT contractors were already at work during the storm Thursday, dumping sand on breaches to stabilize what was left of the road.
