AFFIDAVIT
VIOLATION OF CONDITIONAL RELEASE

Before me this day personally appeared Melissa Eugley., SMA Forensic Case Manager, who being duly sworn, says that Richard Dunn hereafter referred to as the defendant, was placed on an Order of Conditional Release by Judge Raul A. Zambrano , having been found Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity, Case #2006-034-CFFA , in the Circuit Court of Volusia County, in accordance with the provisions of Rule 3.219, Florida Rules of Criminal Procedure. This case is currently under jurisdiction of Judge J. David Walsh

Forensic Case Manager received a phone call from the Defendant's caregiver, Pastor Ruth Plummer on 11/15/13 stating he had tested positive for cocaine. Forensic Case Manager spoke directly with Ms. Plummer on 11/18/13 and confirmed that he tested positive with two different tests for cocaine. Ms. Plummer has removed client from 538 Foote Court and placed him back at 126 Marion St where he can be monitored more closely. Ms. Plummer has placed further restrictions on Defendant's use of his vehicle and where he is allowed to go in the community. The Defendant will attend AA or NA meetings weekly. He will be attending an intake appointment at Cantley Outpatient center-SMA Behavioral on 11/19/13. He has violated his conditional release, specifically by:

General Conditions-6. Not to take or possess any illegal drugs or prescribed medications unless prescribed by my treating physician.

Special Considerations-1. Not to consume alcoholic beverages or use illegal substances of any kind.
