Complainant,

Case No. SC11-834

v.

TFB File Nos. 2009-30,394(7B);
2009-31,340(07B)

CHARLES A. ESPOSITO,

Respondent.

---

PUBLIC REPRIMAND

Mr. Esposito, you are here today because of your violation of Rules 4-1.1, 4-1.3, 4-1.4(a), 4-1.4(b), and 4-1.16 of the Rules of Professional Conduct of The Florida Bar.

You come here today under order of the Supreme Court of Florida, which approved the Report of Referee that was submitted to the Court on June 14, 2012.

Mr. Esposito, your conduct shows a disregard for the Rules Regulating The Florida Bar. By engaging in such conduct, you have demeaned the legal profession. Such conduct will not be tolerated.

This REPRIMAND is now a part of your permanent Florida Bar record. You are further advised that while this REPRIMAND does not affect your privilege of practicing law, further misconduct will. The lawyers of Florida expect your future conduct to always be in compliance with your oath.
