6. Defendant Bernie Machen (Machen) is the president of UF, and as such is the chief administrative officer of UF, responsible for the operation and administration of UF and is ultimately responsible for all rules and regulations of UF, and is a public employee.

7. All actions, rules and regulations of UF in regards to the issues herein may be imputed to Machan as the agency head with the ultimate authority, to promulgate rules and regulations on behalf of UF, as its president and chief administrative officer, and as the party with administrative authority over the employees and agents of UF in its day-to-day operations.

8. All conditions precedent to the filing of this suit have occurred or have been waived.

9. Sec. 768.28, Fla. Stat., is not applicable to this action as it only waives sovereign immunity for the purposes of a tort action.

COUNT I- VIOLATION OF SEC. 790.33, FLA. STAT. BY UF

Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1-12 as if set forth in full and further says:

13. This is an action for damages, statutory fines and injunctive relief.

14. Pursuant to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., the Legislature has expressly preempted the entire field of firearms and ammunition regulation, including but not limited to, the definition, the method and place of carry, the manner of use, and who may posses firearms where firearms may be possessed.

15. Additionally, the Legislature has expressly preempted the carrying of both firearms and weapons, in regards to persons with a concealed weapon or firearm license pursuant to Sec. 790.06 Fla. Stat.

16. Article I, Sec. 8 of the Florida Constitution reserves to the Legislature the exclusive authority to regulate the manner of bearing arms.

17. UF has passed rules or regulations expressly prohibited by Fla. Stat.790.33 by:

- a. Publishing a Regulation 2.001 "Possession and Use of Firearms";
- b. UF attempts to define terms such as "campus", "firearms", and
   "antique firearms" contrary to the definitions set forth by the Legislature in Chapter 790, Fla. Stat.;
- Setting forth when, where and under what circumstances the University will permit firearms on campus and by whose discretion;
- d. Requiring that firearms transported from storage with the UF police department be transported immediately off campus;

- e. Requiring firearms transiting campus to be unloaded;
- f. Designating what intersection students must utilize when transporting firearms off campus, without regard to the student's plans;
- g. Prohibiting firearms on campus not specifically authorized by the UF police department;
- h. Regulating who is permitted to posses firearms on campus;
- Prohibiting the possession of firearms and defensive weapons in UF housing
- Requiring that employees who reside at a research center store their firearms unloaded, trigger locked and locked in a secure portion of the residence, rendering it useless for purposes of selfdefense;
- Attempting to impose administrative penalties for violation of their preempted regulations.

18. UF attempts to mitigate its violation of preemption with a footnote as to its intent.

19. The footnote claims that UF will comply with Florida law for firearms that are "securely encased" even though the statutory provision does not require all firearms to be securely encased, and cites a recent court decision, without providing a name of the decision, case number or case name, or other identifying information other than the date of the decision and the court which rendered the decision.

20. UF has further promulgated a work-place violence policy, that states that carrying a weapon (without limiting it to on the job possession) is a warning sign and an unacceptable behavior to address that should be reported, and equates carrying a firearm, as on par with being involved in fights, stalking family members, and making threats of violence or suicide. Additionally the policy states that "Florida Statutes and University Policy prohibit firearms and certain other articles that could be weapons on state property."

21. Upon information and belief, UF has previously punished and/or referred students for criminal prosecution for lawful possession or storage of a firearm in a private conveyance on campus.

22. The rules and regulations provided to students at the time of enrollment prohibit them from exercising their right to possess firearms in their vehicle.

23. Sec. 790.06(12)(b), Fla. Stat., specifically allows licensed persons to carry or store firearms in a vehicle for lawful purposes.

24. Sec. 790.25, Fla. Stat., specifically allows a person without a concealed weapon or firearm license to carry a firearm other than a handgun anywhere in a private vehicle or a "securely encased" concealed firearm in their vehicle.

25. Furthermore, Sec. 790.25, Fla. Stat., specifically provides that a person may possess a weapon in their home or place of business, and that the provisions of Sec. 790.25 are to be liberally construed in favor of the right to bear arms, and "shall supersede any law, ordinance, or regulation in conflict herewith."

26. While Sec. 790.115, Fla. Stat., does prohibit firearms and weapons on school campuses, Sec. 790.115 is clearly in conflict with Sec. 790.25, and the Legislature has made clear which statute is to control in case of a conflict.

27. There is no exception in the statutes which would allow a university to override Sec. 790.25, or Sec. 790.06, Fla. Stat., merely because it chooses to do so.

28. Despite the enactment of amendments to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., on June 2, 2011, to create an enforcement mechanism to the longstanding preemption of firearms law, UF continues to publish its preempted regulations and has made no effort to correct its mis-statements of the law to students by university wide communication.

29. UF's failure to correct these inaccurate statements, repeal the regulations, or notify students of the inaccurate information being published, is an unlawful attempt to continue to enact, enforce, and promulgate rules and regulations in violation of Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat.

30. There is no basis for any rule or regulation regarding firearms by UF, no matter how well intentioned or reasonable where the legislature has expressly preempted such rules and regulations.

31. UF's footnote appears to be nothing more than an attempt to continue to mis-lead student's, employees, and visitors as to the law of the state of Florida.

32. This blatant attempt to continue to regulate the use and possession of firearms in light of recent court decisions is a willful and knowing violation of the statute by UF.

33. Plaintiff contacted the vice president and general counsel of UF and informed her that UF's attempt to state an intent was insufficient given the language of their preempted policy, and failure to repeal or modify said polic would result in legal action.

34. Additionally, UF, continues to promulgate a "Weapons on Campus" policy statement and a "Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code" that prohibits possession use, sale or distribution of any firearm, referencing UF Regulation 2.001, with no indication that said regulation contains any exception.

35. Despite each of these policies that were promulgated by UF and provided by notice to the students at the beginning of the academic year, UF has made no effort to notify students that the previously promulgated policy has been modified in any way.

36. Despite the enactment of amendments to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., on June 2, 2011, to create an enforcement mechanism to the longstanding preemption of firearms law, UF continues to promulgate it's Regulation 2.001, (Exhibit A), "Weapons on Campus" policy statement (Exhibit B) and the "Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code" (Exhibit C) on UF's website and has taken no action to withdraw the rules and regulations or to correct the mis-statements of the law to students.

37. Further UF claims the right to a waiver under Sec. 790.115, Fla. Stat., which waivers are limited to school districts, a term defined by the Florida Constitution, which does not include colleges or universities, and which has already been ruled not to apply to universities.

38. If plaintiff prevails in this matter, plaintiff is entitled to attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks

a. An award of actual and statutory damages;

b. An injunction against the enforcement of any firearms rules or regulations, by UF other than those contained in chapter 790, Fla. Stat., and against any disciplinary action against any student for possession of a firearm in a private conveyance, use of a firearm in lawful self defense, or possession of an operable firearm or weapon in UF owned housing;

c. An order to remove any university rules and regulations regarding firearms from any university publication except as specifically provided for employees by Chapter 790, Fla. Stat.;

d. Ordering the repeal of all preempted and unauthorized Florida Administrative Code regulations regarding the possession of firearms on public university campuses;

e. An award of attorneys fees and costs and all other relief deemed just and equitable.

COUNT II- VIOLATION OF SEC. 790.33, FLA. STAT. BY MACHEN

Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1-12 as if set forth in full and further says:

39. This is an action for damages, statutory fines and injunctive relief.

40. Pursuant to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., the Legislature has expressly preempted the entire field of firearms and ammunition regulation, including but not limited to, the definition of firearms, the method and place of carry, the manner of use, and who may posses firearms where firearms may be possessed.

41. Article I, Sec. 8, of the Florida Constitution reserves to the Legislature the exclusive authority to regulate the manner of bearing arms.

42. Machen, as the chief administrative officer of UF has passed, authorized, and/or allowed the passage of rules or regulations expressly prohibited by Fla. Stat. 790.33 by:

- a. Publishing a Regulation 2.001 "Possession and Use of Firearms";
- Attempting to define terms such as "campus", "firearms", and
   "antique firearms" contrary to the definitions set forth by the Legislature in Chapter 790, Fla. Stat.;
- Setting forth when, where and under what circumstances the University will permit firearms on campus, and by whose discretion;
- Requiring that firearms transported from storage with the UF police department be transported immediately off campus;
- e. Requiring firearms transiting campus to be unloaded;
- f. Designating what intersection students must utilize when transporting firearms off campus, without regard to the student's plans;
- g. Prohibiting firearms on campus not specifically authorized by the UF police department;
- h. Regulating who is permitted to posses firearms on campus;
- Prohibiting the possession of firearms and defensive weapons in UF housing;
- Requiring that employees who reside at a research center store their firearms unloaded, trigger locked and locked in a secure portion of the residence, rendering it useless for purposes of selfdefense;
- Attempting to impose administrative penalties for violation of their preempted regulations.

43. UF attempts to mitigate its violation of preemption with a footnote as to its intent.

44. The footnote claims that UF will comply with Florida law for firearms that are "securely encased" even though the statutory provision does not require all firearms to be securely encased, and cites a recent court decision, without providing a name of the decision, case number or case name, or other identifying information other than the date of the decision and the court which rendered the decision.

45. UF has further promulgated a work-place violence policy, that states that carrying a weapon (without limiting it to on the job possession) is a warning sign and an unacceptable behavior to address that should be reported, and equates carrying a firearm, as on par with being involved in fights, stalking family members, and making threats of violence or suicide. Additionally the policy states that "Florida Statutes and University Policy prohibit firearms and certain other articles that could be weapons on state property."

46. Upon information and belief, Machen, or his agents have previously punished and/or referred students for criminal prosecution for lawful possession or storage of a firearm in a private conveyance on campus.

47. The rules and regulations provided to students at the time of enrollment prohibit them from exercising their right to possess firearms in their vehicle.

48. Sec. 790.06(12)(b), Fla. Stat., specifically allows licensed persons to carry or store firearms in a vehicle for lawful purposes.

49. Sec. 790.25, Fla. Stat., specifically allows a person without a concealed weapon or firearm license to carry a firearm other than a handgun anywhere in a private vehicle or a "securely encased" concealed firearm in their vehicle.

50. Furthermore, Sec. 790.25, Fla. Stat., specifically provides that a person may possess a weapon in their home or place of business, and that the provisions of Sec. 790.25 are to be liberally construed in favor of the right to bear arms, and "shall supersede any law, ordinance, or regulation in conflict herewith."

51. While Sec. 790.115, Fla. Stat., does prohibit firearms and weapons on school campuses, Sec. 790.115 is clearly in conflict with Sec. 790.25, and the Legislature has made clear which statute is to control in case of a conflict.

52. There is no exception in the statutes which would allow Machen to override Sec. 790.25, or Sec. 790.06, Fla. Stat., merely because he chooses to do so.

53. Despite the enactment of amendments to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., on June 2, 2011, to create an enforcement mechanism to the longstanding preemption of firearms law, UF continues to publish its preempted regulations and has made no effort to correct its mis-statements of the law to students by university wide communication.

54. UF's failure to correct these inaccurate statements, repeal the regulations, or notify students of the inaccurate information being published, is an unlawful attempt to continue to enact, enforce, and promulgate rules and regulations in violation of Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat.

-55. There is no basis for any rule or regulation regarding firearms by UF, no matter how well intentioned or reasonable where the legislature has expressly preempted such rules and regulations.

56. UF's footnote appears to be nothing more than an attempt to continue to mis-lead student's, employees, and visitors as to the law of the state of Florida.

57. This blatant attempt to continue to regulate the use and possession of firearms in light of recent court decisions is a willful and knowing violation of the statute by UF.

58. Plaintiff contacted the vice president and general counsel of UF and informed her that UF's attempt to state an intent was insufficient given the language of their preempted policy, and failure to repeal or modify said policy would result in legal action.

59. Additionally, UF, continues to promulgate a "Weapons on Campus" policy statement and a "Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code" that prohibits possession use, sale or distribution of any firearm, referencing UF Regulation 2.001, with no indication that said regulation contains any exception.

60. Despite each of these policies that were promulgated by UF and provided by notice to the students at the beginning of the academic year, UF has made no effort to notify students that the previously promulgated policy has been modified in any way.

61. Despite the enactment of amendments to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat., on June 2, 2011, to create an enforcement mechanism to the longstanding preemption of firearms law, Machen continues authorize and allow the promulgation of UF's Regulation 2.001, (Exhibit A), "Weapons on Campus" policy statement (Exhibit B), the "Student Honor Code and Student Conduct Code" (Exhibit C), and UF's "Workplace Violence Policy" on UF's website and has taken no action to withdraw the rules and regulations or to correct the mis-statements of the law to students.

62. Machen's failure to correct these inaccurate statements, repeal the regulations, or notify students of the inaccurate information being published, is an unlawful attempt to continue to enact and enforce rules and regulations in violation of Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat.

63. There is no basis for any rule or regulation regarding firearms by Machen no matter how well intentioned or reasonable where the legislature has expressly preempted such rules and regulations.

64. Further Machen claims the right to a waiver under Sec. 790.115, Fla. Stat., which waivers are limited to school districts, a term defined by the Florida Constitution, which does not include colleges or universities, and which has already been ruled not to apply to universities.

65. If plaintiff prevails in this matter, plaintiff is entitled to attorney's fees and costs pursuant to Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks:

a. An award of actual and statutory damages;

b. An injunction against the enforcement of any firearms rules or regulations, by Machen or his subordinates other than those contained in chapter 790, Fla. Stat., and against any disciplinary action against any student for possession of a firearm in a private conveyance, use of a firearm in lawful self defense, or possession of an operable firearm or weapon in UF owned housing;

c. An order to remove any university rules and regulations regarding firearms from any university publication except as specifically provided for employees by Chapter 790, Fla. Stat.;

d. Ordering the repeal of all preempted and unauthorized regulations and policies regarding the possession of firearms on public university campuses;

e. An award of attorneys fees and costs and all other relief deemed just and equitable.

COUNT III- DECLARATORY JUDGMENT FOR VIOLATION OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS BY UF

Plaintiff re-alleges paragraphs 1 through 37 as if set forth in full and further alleges:

66. This is an action for declaratory relief pursuant to Chapter 86, Fla. Stat.

67. UF has enacted and promulgated rules, regulations, and/or policies which prohibit the possession of arms in almost all UF housing.

68. In the rare cases where UF permits the possession of arms in UF owned housing, UF requires that the owner of any firearms store them unloaded, trigger locked, and further locked in a "secured location", all of which conditions are in violation of the Florida Constitution.

69. The rendering of these arms as useless for the purpose of self-defense entirely negates the very purpose of the Constitutional right guaranteed by Florida's Constitution.

70. UF's prohibition on possession of firearms and weapons in UF owned housing violates Art. I, Sec. 8 and Art. I, Sec. 2 of the Florida Constitution.

71. Consistent with holdings of the United States Supreme Court, the rights to keep and bear arms are most acute in the home.

72. Students who reside in UF housing are denied the most fundamental aspect of the rights to keep and bear arms.

73. Art. I, Sec. 8 of the Florida Constitution provides that the "right of the people to keep and bear arms in defense of themselves and of the lawful authority of the state shall not be infringed, except that the manner of bearing arms may be regulated by law."

74. Nothing in the Florida Constitution or the laws enacted by the Legislature regarding the manner of bearing arms, allows a state agency to prohibit the possession of arms in ones home.

75. Further Art. I, Sec. 2 of the Florida Constitution provides that the people of Florida "have inalienable rights, among which are the right to enjoy and defend life and liberty, . . ., and to protect property.

76. The most efficient and widely recognized and utilized means of defending life and property is the lawful possession and use of arms as recognized by the courts and the Legislature.

77. UF by its policies and regulations has chosen to deny this most fundamental right to persons residing in UF owned housing.

78. Plaintiff seeks a declaratory judgment that UF's rules, policies, and regulations which prohibit possession of arms in UF owned housing are unconstitutional.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests the Court:

a. Find that UF's rules, policies and regulations, violate the constitutional rights of persons living in UF owned housing;

b. Declare that UF's rules, policies and regulations, are unconstitutional;

c. Require the repeal of all rules, policies and regulations, which prohibit the possession of arms or render them useless for purposes of self-defense.

d. Award all other relief deemed just and equitable.

COUNT IV- DECLARATORY JUDGMENT PURSUANT TO SEC. 790.33, FLA. STAT.

Plaintiff re-alleges the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 78 as if set forth in full, and further says:

79. This is an action for declaratory relief pursuant to Fla. Stat. 790.33.

80. Plaintiff seeks a ruling of the Court on behalf of its membership, that UF's rules and regulations, authorized and/or allowed by Machen, regarding firearms and weapons are expressly and impliedly preempted.

81. Plaintiffs will suffer material harm without a declaratory judgment as they will be denied the exercise of their right to bear arms as specifically authorized by Florida law.

82. Sec. 790.33, Fla. Stat. Specifically authorizes Plaintiffs to seek a declaratory judgment in this matter.

83. UF and Machen's continued promulgation of rules prohibiting all firearms and weapons, which UF and Machen have failed to repeal, along with their failure to issue any communication to students which would clarify their intent to not enforce and to repeal or discontinue publishing these rules and regulations leaves plaintiff with no clear remedy other than a declaratory judgment that UF and Machen are in violation of the preemption statute, and an order requiring UF and Machen to take corrective action to remedy their illegal and misleading actions. WHEREFORE, Plaintiff requests an order finding:

- a. All UF rules and administrative regulations regarding firearms are null and void.
- UF students and lawful visitors have the right to carry and store lawfully possessed firearms in their vehicle while present on the UF campus without threat of criminal prosecution or administrative punishment.
- c. Persons with residing in UF owned housing have the right to posses, carry, and store operable, lawfully possessed firearms and weapons in their UF owned housing without threat of criminal prosecution or administrative punishment.
- d. An award of attorneys fees and costs and all other relief deemed just and equitable.

COUNT V- INJUNCTION AND WRIT OF MANDAMUS

Plaintiff re-alleges the allegations in paragraphs 1 through 83 as if set forth in full and further says:

84. The Legislature has declared all regulation of firearms to be preempted by the Legislature, and has determined that students should be allowed to posses and/or store firearms in private automobiles on university campuses, and that there is no need or authorization for additional regulation of firearms by UF or Machen.

85. The Constitution and laws of the State of Florida, protect the rights of the people to keep and bear operable arms within their homes, regardless of ownership by a public entity.

86. UF and Machen continued regulation of firearms in the face of express preemption is continually harming the members of Plaintiff Florida Carry, Inc.

87. The risk of assault or other physical force against the members of Florida Carry and the lack of any duty by UF or Machen to protect them is a harm which cannot be compensated solely by an award of money damages.

88. UF and Machen have no reasonable basis for their enactment of rules regarding firearms and are unlikely to prevail on the merits.

89. The continued publication of mis-information regarding UF's regulation of firearms by UF and Mahcen in violation of state law leaves its students and visitors without clear guidance as to their conduct and as to whether their rights under Florida law end when crossing the UF property line.

90. The denial of the fundamental right to possess arms in one's home is a serious violation of the rights of the people of Florida who reside in housing owned by UF.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff seeks an injunction against UF and Machen prohibiting any enforcement of any UF rules or regulations regarding the possession of firearms and weapons on campus, an injunction allowing persons residing in UF owned housing to possess operable firearms for self-defense in their homes, and an injunction and/or a writ of mandamus, ordering UF to repeal all enjoined rules and regulations, and ordering UF to take steps to replace all student handbooks and student codes of conduct, to eliminate any rule, regulation, or provision regarding the possession and/or use of firearms in all publications, and all other relief deemed just and equitable.

Demand for Jury Trial

91. Plaintiff demands trial by jury on all issues.

OFFICIAL UNIVERSITY POLICY

SUBJECT WEAPONS ON CAMPUS

POLICY STATEMENT

The University of Florida is a "school" as defined in Section 790.115, Florida Statutes. Under the UF regulations and applicable law, firearms, antique firearms, destructive devices, other weapons, and ammunition (for antique firearms, short-barreled shotguns, short-barreled rifles, automatic rifles, and other destructive devices), all as defined in Section 790.001, Florida Statutes,<sup>1</sup> may not be possessed on campus (as defined in UF regulations) or other property owned, occupied or controlled by the University of Florida (including when stored in vehicles) or at University activities or events. The University of Florida confirms its waiver of the exception provided in Section 790.115(2)(a)3, Florida Statutes. <sup>2</sup> Refer to UF Regulation 2.001(3) for specified exceptions, addressing law enforcement and certain other specified situations.

<sup>1</sup> Firearm includes any weapon, including but not limited to a starter gun and a machine gun, that expels a projectile by action of an explosive, the frame or receiver and muffler or silencer for such weapon, and any destructive device. Firearm does not include antiques manufactured in or before 1815 (unless used in the commission of a crime), which are therefore separately prohibited in the UF regulation.

Destructive device includes, for example, certain firearms (any short-barreled shotgun, short-barreled rifle, and automatic rifle), bomb, rocket, missile, antique firearm, and any device that is explosive, is incendiary or contains poisonous or expanding gas. Destructive device does not include any device not designed, redesigned, used or intended for use as a weapon; shotgun shell; or ammunition designed for use in non-antique firearms, other than ammunition for short-barreled shotguns, short-barreled rifles, and automatic rifles. Destructive devices include ammunition for short-barreled shotguns, short-barreled rifles, automatic rifles, antique firearms, and other destructive devices.

Other weapons (as distinct from firearms) include any dirk, knife, metallic knuckles, slingshot, billie, tear gas gun, chemical weapon, antique firearm, other deadly weapon (but does not include a non-antique firearm, common pocketknife, plastic knife, or blunt-bladed table knife).

Ammunition is an object consisting of a fixed hull or casing containing a primer, one or more projectiles, bullets, or shot, and gunpowder.

<sup>2</sup> The University of Florida confirms its waiver of the exception provided in Section 790.115(2)(a)3, Florida Statutes.

REASON FOR POLICY

To implement University of Florida Regulation 2.001 and applicable law, which prohibit possession of firearms, antique firearms, destructive devices, other weapons, and ammunition (for antique firearms, short-barreled shotguns, short-barreled rifles, automatic rifles, and other destructive devices) on University of Florida property and at University activities and events, with limited exceptions specified in UF Regulation 2.001(3).

Workplace Violence Policy

It is an essential goal of the University of Florida to maintain a safe and comfortable workplace and academic setting for all members of the university community. In support of this commitment, the University of Florida has established standards of conduct that cover every member of our community. Specifically, violent acts, threats (direct or implied), unlawful harassment, verbal or physical abuse, stalking, intimidation, and other disruptive behavior will not be tolerated and will result in appropriate university response including disciplinary action and criminal prosecution.

As further support of this commitment, the university has established a three-tier program that focuses on prevention, threat management and related behavioral issues, and crisis intervention. Listed below is information regarding this policy, insight as to steps that should be taken under various circumstances, and resource contact information.

Safety and security are both personal and shared responsibilities. While all supervisors and administrators are called on to report inappropriate behavior immediately, the collective involvement of every member of the university community is both important and appreciated.

Prevention - Proactive Initiatives That Make A Difference

1. Pre-employment Screening - Care in Selecting a New Team Member

Verifying Education and Work History

UF Human Resource Services

An important and positive investment is a thorough assessment of potential employment candidates and verification of their past records. Recruitment and Staffing coordinates education verification for all selected candidates for USPS and TEAMS positions. The hiring authority is responsible for confirming the necessary amount of work experience to qualify for a particular position. In addition, care by the hiring authority in obtaining accurate information regarding performance and conduct in previous positions and in obtaining an accounting of any gaps noted on applications and/or resumes is important. Finally, any required licenses or other specially designated credentials should be verified by the hiring authority in coordination with Recruitment and Staffing . Certain positions covered by 435, Florida Statutes, require a very specific background check process. Please refer to individual position descriptions and confer with Recruitment and Staffing.

Criminal Background Checks

Knowing about past convictions, particularly as relevant to a particular position's responsibilities or area of work, is a responsible component of a complete assessment process. Upon request and for $15, Recruitment and Staffing will coordinate a Florida Department of Law Enforcement (FDLE) check that captures all activity in a statewide database regarding past convictions. This is an appropriate step for all current or former Florida residents and usually takes 1-2 days to secure a report. For those applicants who currently or formerly lived out of state, a check for a particular state or a nationwide check can be coordinated through Recruitment and Staffing upon request.

2. Warning Signs - Unacceptable Behavior to Address

To insure a positive work environment, all members of the university community are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate and professional manner. The following are examples of behavior that is unacceptable and should be reported immediately.

Level One

- Uncooperative with supervisors, co-workers
- Belligerent toward customers
- Profanity used
- Makes unwanted and/or inappropriate sexual comments (see the University's Sexual Harassment Policy)
- Refuses to obey department/university policy and procedures
- Increased absenteeism on-the-job (productivity drop; appearing to not be focused)

Level Two

- Direct or veiled threats
- Writes sexual or violent notes intimidation verbally or physically
- Carries a weapon (Florida Statutes and University Policy prohibit firearms and certain other articles that could be weapons on state property)

- Makes suicidal comments or threats
- Involved in fights or assaults
- Stalks co-workers or their family

Take All Threats Seriously - Reporting And Addressing

1. Guidelines for Reporting Threats Immediately

All threats and other inappropriate behavior that create an immediate concern for safety should be reported immediately to the University Police Department (UPD) at (352) 392-1111 or local law enforcement if off campus. You may also dial 911, but remember, you must first dial 9 to get an outside line. Examples listed in "Level Two" above should be reported to UPD. For other behavioral or performance concerns involving USPS or TEAMS, including examples listed in "Level One" above, the Human Resource Services satellite office nearest you should be contacted for assistance. For concerns involving students, contact the office of the Dean of Students at 392-1261. For issues involving faculty, the appropriate supervisor should be the first point of contact, who then is to immediately report the situation to their Dean or Director's office.

2. Conflict Resolution-"Defusing" Routine Situations of Tension

It is not uncommon that in the course of daily campus life there are internal or external customers with concerns to be addressed. At times, tension and anxiety may be involved. There may be extreme situations that require the intervention of others, including UPD. However, when appropriate, the following suggestions may assist you in successfully addressing these situations.

Have a pre-arranged distress signal. Electronic "panic buttons," such as used by bank tellers, serve to alert others that a situation requires immediate police assistance. Since most of us do not have this technology, having a brief phrase, such as "let Susan know that I can't make our meeting" is designed to let your team member know to call UPD.

A tip: Keep the phrase short and ensure that new staff members are made aware of it when they come on board. Use this phrase only to summon law enforcement, and never use it in jest.

- Assess the situation and determine if you feel comfortable in handling it alone or if assistance, either from a manager or UPD, is advisable.
- Take charge provide a smile, stand erect, remain alert, and maintain eye contact.
- Listen It's critical that someone who is already upset feel that you care, and active listening, including taking notes and asking questions, is therefore a key to success.
- Avoid defensiveness it's not important whether the complainant is accurate or fair at the moment. Your goal is to calm him or her down, and debating with the person doesn't help.
- Avoid an audience if others begin congregating in a lobby area, select someplace less public where you and one other staff member can sit and continue your discussion. By the way, be sure that the room you go to has an easy exit for both you, your co-worker or manager, and the customer each of you needs to feel comfortable that you are not blocked from leaving.
- Establish boundaries let the individual know that while you are there to assist in resolving their concerns, they must behave! Profanity or raised voices are not conducive to effective communication, and threats will require you to contact the police and your assistance will end.

Domestic Violence - Some Insight And Recommended Action

Domestic violence is the number one cause for emergency room visits by women in the United States, causing more injuries to women than car accidents, muggings, and rapes combined. Like other forms of violence that may originate elsewhere, domestic violence may spill over into the workplace in various ways. Of all employed battered women, 96 percent experience problems at work, and 75 percent must use work time to deal with their situation because they cannot do so at home. Half of those women miss at least three days of work monthly.

1. If YOU are a victim:

- Get to a safe place
- Contact the UPD Office of Victim Services at 392-1111. A victim advocate can assist you with medical, legal, and counseling services (see further information on this office under Resources below).

2. If SOMEONE YOU KNOW is a victim:

- Don't be afraid to offer help. If you know someone closer to the person, seek his or her assistance.
- Approach the victim in an understanding, non-blaming way.
- Acknowledge that it is scary and difficult to talk about domestic violence.

- Suggest the victim speak with the Office of Victim Services.
- Share information about domestic violence, social services, emergency shelters, counseling services, and legal advice. See Resources below and also visit the web site of the Office of Victim Services.
- Help the victim plan safe strategies for leaving an abusive relationship.
- Help the victim get to the hospital if needed and to report any assault to the police.
- 3. If a suspected abuser appears in the workplace:
  - Remember that this is public university property, and conduct is dictated by university and department policy.
  - If behavior or threats warrant, call UPD immediately.
  - Consider moving the victim to another office location so that he or she is not as exposed to an unannounced visit.

Crisis Intervention

Should an actual incident of violence occur, it is important to have a plan of action in place. The following are key points to reference in the event that a traumatic event does occur.

- The first call should be made to UPD (or local law enforcement if off campus ). Write down all details involving the incident for accurate recall later. A precise description of the incident, the perpetrator, physical descriptions of the setting, etc., will be critical.
- All contact with the press and media should be funneled through one person in coordination with the University's Office of Public Relations (846-3903). This protects the individual faculty and staff from further trauma and insures an appropriate "voice."
- The quick response and presence of Crisis Intervention Teams from appropriate areas is critical to the healing process for those affected directly or indirectly. Victims, witnesses, co-workers, and their families are among those who should be offered assistance. See Resources below for details of appropriate contacts.
- The appropriate administrative contacts should be made next through the Dean or Director's office (For USPS and TEAMS: Human Resource Services; for Faculty: the appropriate Dean's Office; for students: the Dean of Student Affairs).

Workshops to Assist

Human Resource Services is pleased to offer a variety of workshops that may be very pertinent to the myriad of issues that influence a safe and comfortable workplace. Among these opportunities are:
