NARRATIVE CONTINUED

Florida 32164.

Sgt. Barile stated he was in contact Krista Maurer(mother) via telephone. Krista stated to Sgt. Barile that she was going to turn her son, Marion Givens (defendant), into the Flagler County Sheriff's Office.

Marion Givens has an active Order to take Juvenile into Custody (2019-34712) Reference first degree Murder, issued on April 13th, 2019 by the Honorable Judge Perkins.

Marion arrived on scene with his mother and was taken into custody without further incident.

At the request of Cpl. Moy, I transported Marion to the Flagler Beach Police Department for Cpl. Moy to conduct an interview.

I then transported Marion to the Flagler County Inmate Facility. Axon video available. See supplement reports by Sgt. Barile and Cpl. Moy.

Section II. ADMISSION CRITERIA

Youth has been delivered and the following criteria as outlined in s. 985.255, F.S., indicate the youth's eligibility for detention care:

- Yes  No  A. The youth is alleged to be an escapee or an absconder from a commitment program, a probation program, or conditional release supervision, or is alleged to have escaped while being lawfully transported to or from such program or supervision, or the child is wanted in another jurisdiction for an offense which if committed by an adult, would be a felony;
- Yes  No  B. The youth is charged with a delinquent act or violation of law and requests in writing through legal counsel to be detained for protection from an imminent physical threat to his personal safety; (Attach documentation)
- Yes  No  C. The youth is charged with a capital felony, a life felony, a felony of the first degree, a felony of the second degree that does not involve a violation of Chapter 893, F.S., or a felony of the third degree that is also a crime of violence, including any such offense involving the use or possession of a firearm.
- Yes  No  D. The youth is charged with committing an offense of domestic violence, as defined in s. 741.28(1), that does not otherwise meet detention criteria. The youth may not be held in secure detention unless the following two conditions exist:

- (a) Respite home or similar authorized residential facility for the youth is not available
- (b) and it is necessary to place the youth in secure detention in order to protect the victim from injury.

NOTE TO COURT: THE YOUTH MAY NOT BE HELD IN "DETENTION CARE" FOR MORE THAN 8 HOURS, UNLESS THE COURT MAKES SPECIFIC WRITTEN FINDINGS OF (a) and (b).

Factor #E requires an affirmative answer to at least one of the qualifiers before a yes answer can be recorded (s. 985.255(1)(g), F.S.).

- Yes  No  E. The youth is charged with any second-degree or third-degree felony involving a violation of Chapter 893, F.S., (Felony Drugs), any third-degree felony that is also not a crime of violence (excluding firearm offenses) and the:
- Yes  No  (1) Youth has a record of failure to appear at court hearings after being properly notified in accordance With the Rules of Juvenile Procedure;
- Yes  No  (2) Youth has a record of law violations prior to court hearings;
- Yes  No  (3) Youth has already been detained or has been released and is awaiting final disposition of the case; or
- Yes  No  (4) Youth has a record of violent conduct resulting in physical injury to others;
- Yes  No  (5) Youth found to be in possession of a firearm.
- F. Yes  No  Notwithstanding s.985.255(1), F.S., if a minor under 18 years of age is charged with an offense that involves the use or possession of a firearm, as defined in s 790.001, F.S., including a violation of subsection 790.22(3), or is charged for any offense during the commission of which the minor possessed a firearm, the minor SHALL BE DETAINED in secure detention unless the state attorney authorizes the release of the minor.

NOTE TO COURT: WITHIN 24 HOURS THE COURT MUST HAVE A HEARING. AT THE HEARING THE COURT MAY ORDER THAT THE YOUTH CONTINUE TO BE HELD IN SECURE DETENTION IN ACCORDANCE WITH THE APPLICABLE TIME PERIODS SPECIFIED IN 985.26, IF THE COURT FINDS THAT THE MINOR MEETS THE CRITERIA SPECIFIED IN S. 985.255, OR IF THE COURT MAKES WRITTEN FINDINGS BY CLEAR AND CONVINCING EVIDENCE THAT THE YOUTH IS A CLEAR AND PRESENT DANGER TO HIMSELF OR HERSELF OR THE COMMUNITY.

- G. Yes  No  A youth delivered with a judicial order requiring detention care must be detained. The risk assessment instrument still must be completed for informational purposes, but the youth must be detained regardless of the points scored.
- H. Yes  No  A youth may be placed into detention status for contempt of court, however, this requires a written court order.
- I. Yes  No  Pursuant with s. 316.635, F.S., a juvenile traffic offender found to be in contempt of court for failure to appear or not performing court-ordered sanctions for traffic violations, must be securely detained, unless a staff secure shelter is available, if ordered by the court.
- J. Yes  No  A youth is alleged to have violated the conditions of the youth's probation or conditional release supervision. The youth may only be held in a consequence unit if one has been designated and is made available by the Department. If a consequence unit is not available, the youth shall be placed on home detention with electronic monitoring and shall be given a hearing within 24 hours after being taken into custody.
- Consequence Unit  Home Detention
- K. Yes  No  The youth is detained for failure to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear, after proper notice, for an adjudicatory hearing on the same case regardless of the score on the risk assessment instrument and is scheduled for a hearing within 72 hours of being detained, or

The youth is detained for failure to appear and has previously willfully failed to appear; after proper notice, at two or more court hearings of any nature on the same case regardless of the results of the risk assessment instrument and is scheduled for a hearing within 72 hours of being detained.

Note to court: The youth's failure to keep the clerk of court and defense counsel informed of a current and valid mailing address where the child will receive notice to appear at court proceedings does not provide an adequate grounds for excusal of the youth's nonappearance at the hearing.

If any of the above (A-E) are answered yes, proceed to Section III, unless youth is charged solely with an act of misdemeanor domestic violence (D). If each of the above (A-E) are answered no the youth must be released, unless F through K is answered yes.

The responsibility of law enforcement and juvenile probation officers for releasing a youth from custody will be discharged in accordance with s. 985.25
