

Jeffery Cortland Seib

Education

1967-1969 Miami-Dade Community College, Miami, Florida. Prerequisite courses.

1971-1977 Undergraduate and graduate school Louisiana State University, Baton Rouge, Louisiana.
Master's Thesis research project: The Determination of Habitat Quality for Wildlife in Managed Versus Unmanaged Forests in Livingston Parish, Louisiana.

1995-1997. Additional courses University of Florida Wharton School of Business, Gainesville, Florida.
Accounting Principles and Practices and Human Resources Management

Employment

1969-1971 Continental Copper and Steel, Linden, New Jersey. Copper wire machine operator.

1977-1978 Louisiana State University Veterinary School, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Indices of wildlife habitat quality in Louisiana Wildlife management Areas.

1978-1980 Everglades National Park, Homestead, Florida. Wildlife Biologist. American Alligator project.

1981-1984 Southern Bell Telephone Company, Miami, Florida. Services Technician

1984-1986 The Weyerhaeuser Company, Nursery Products Division, Apopka, Florida. Laboratory Supervisor, tissue culture products.

1986-2011 University of Florida Cancer and Genetics Research Institute, Gainesville, Florida. Senior research scientist, genetics and microbiology. Hazardous and Radioactive materials safety manager. Retired in 2011.

Volunteer Activities.

1977 Our Lady of Peace Orphanage, Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Tutoring children in mathematics and science.

1989-1991 Shands Hospital, Gainesville, Florida. Patient communications.

1992-1995 St. Francis House, Homeless Shelter, Gainesville, Florida. Saturday kitchen manager.

2011-2024 Homeless animal care and rescue

City of Palm Coast Involvement

1997-1999 Palm Coast Service District Advisory Council, representing the city prior to incorporation.

2014-2022 Palm Coast Beautification and Environmental Advisory Committee (BEAC). Committee chair
2018-2022.