Heather Buchanan Interview

Rhodes: (reading a statement by Respondent) Recently copies of contribution checks were posted online without consent and had been copied from our offices without knowledge or authority. These contributions have been incorrectly described as illegal and were actually campaign contributions made by persons with their own funds. There was no gift of funds to the individuals to make the contributions. Is that true or not?"

Buchanan: Those are his checks paying back people for their contributions...I was sent by Joe to deliver those checks in exchange for a check written from them to Joe Mullins' campaign.

Rhodes: Ok, and you provided with me, or to me rather, today, a copy your contribution check as a matter of fact.

Buchanan: It had been deposited.

Rhodes: It HAD been deposited? Of course.

Buchanan: Yes, so he accepted it. Then you saw my check where he wrote me one back.

Rhodes: Right, then that's the one I'm talking about.

Buchanan: On the same day.

Rhodes: That's right.

Buchanan: Same dollar amount.

Rhodes: Yeah, I don't mean to get personal with you, but can you afford to give someone a $500 political contribution?

Buchanan: (Laughs) No, I sure cant.
