

5

Yes, big misstep agreed. He walked it back and took ownership.

Union was in front of their communication to membership, which is creating more frustration.

That's not what I'm hearing. Hearing he told people the board initially agreed. They've lost faith in our team. He should not be part of bargaining moving forward.