Re: Jason Pavlow and Waterside Pools Inc.

Dear Mr. Priotti:

Please be advised that this office represents Mr. Jason Pavlow ("Mr. Pavlow"), and Waterside Pools Inc. ("Waterside Pools"), a Florida Corporation. Please direct all future communications to my Law Office directly.

This letter shall serve as written pre-suit notice pursuant to Florida Statutes Chapter 770.01, et seq., to inform you that Mr. Pavlow and Waterside Pools intends to initiate litigation against you individually and Agua Pools and Spa, Inc. in response to a Facebook post you contributed to. This Facebook post started on August 18 at 4:51 pm by Julie Beck Sabine, and was titled "I need a good recommendation for a pool builder".

As you are aware, you contributed to the above-mentioned Facebook post with various false and misleading allegations and various false statements concerning, Mr. Pavlow and Waterside Pools.

More specifically you made the following assertions:

"Dan Priotti They asked for a pool builder not a sales team that builds pools. Lol sorry had to say it."
August 18 at 7:18 pm

"Dan Priotti Like I said pool sales men, voted best around is who ever sends in most tally votes and one can vote as many times as they want. Just curious Jason do you tell your clients you PAid someone to sign off that you worked for them as a foremen when in fact you only were their pool sales man?"
August 19 at 11:02 am

“Dan Priotti Gene Knight it's not BS that he paid someone to sign off on his license that he worked as a foreman for them when in fact he was a sales man. Also I do t appreciate the fact he goes around bad mouthing everyone in town when he a few lawsuits in the works. I am who I am, my character is of an honest straight forward builder, one who didn't have to pay off someone to activate my license.”

August 19 at 2:57 pm

“Dan Priotti Gene Knight also client like honesty not dishonesty, go look at your palm coast biz you have more comments then pools you've guys built. it's hilarious.”

“Dan Priotti Jason Pavlow I don't file for awards like that. Voted best around. It's total BS and you know it. As for your experience and expertise, show me your W-2's that you work as a foreman for any pool company he'll even as a labor. I'm holding 3 statements from customers you have bad mouth me to. Professional or not, I didn't have to lie to activate my license.”

August 19 at 3:35 pm Edited

“Dan Priotti Jason Pavlow I'm sorry 91 colechester.”

August 19 at 3:33 pm

“Dan Priotti Jason Pavlow maybe I should just ask the state to have you provide w-2's for proff to had activated your license. What do you think? I've seen contractor license taken away for lying about things to activate license. Yes have your attorney call me, that would be wonderful. We can discuss all this.”

August 19 at 3:39 pm

“Dan Priotti See when You dont file to be added your not on there for people to vote. I dont need false awards.”

August 19 at 6:06 pm Edited

Mr. Priotti, I want it to be very clear, that not one of your statements are based upon true and accurate facts, and I would like for you to know that:

1. Mr. Pavlow builds pools;
2. Mr. Pavlow did not pay “someone to sign off on his license”;

THE
LAW FIRM, P.A.

3. Mr. Pavlow did not “pay off someone to activate” his license;
4. Mr. Pavlow has not gone “around bad mouthing everyone in town”;
5. Mr. Pavlow does not have “a few lawsuits in the works”;
6. Mr. Pavlow did not get any “false awards”.
7. Mr. Pavlow’s company Waterside Pools does not “have more comments than pools” in the palm coast biz web site.

Your statements are clearly not true, and you have no reason to believe your statements could be true. It is clear you did not make any efforts to validate the facts before you made your untrue statements. Your statements have not been validated, because if you did research the facts you would know and understand the statements you made in the Facebook post are not true.

You made statements on social medial without taking into consideration the negative impact the statements have caused and will continue to cause to Mr. Pavlow and his business Waterside Pools. By making the above-mentioned statements you have clearly shown that you have no regard for the immediate harm you have caused to Mr. Pavlow and his business Waterside Pools, and have no regard as to the future harm the statements will continue to cause to Mr. Pavlow and his business Waterside Pools. You did not validate the facts that you presented to be true, and your actions have caused harm to another. The damage you have caused to Mr. Pavlow and his business Waterside Pools is predictable, foreseeable, current, and ongoing.

Mr. Pavlow and his business Waterside Pools had a remarkable reputation with clients, other contractors, vendors, financial institutions, and more importantly the general public. I mention “had a remarkable reputation” because your post on Facebook has forever tarnished the personal reputation of Mr. Pavlow and the reputation of his business Waterside Pools. The damage you have caused is immediate, will be forever and far reaching. It is extremely disturbing that you made a conscious effort to damaged Mr. Pavlow’s livelihood by making the statements you made of Facebook.

Pursuant to Florida Statute, Mr. Pavlow is demanding an immediate and complete retraction of the libelous statements in a manner designed to be as visible as the original social media post. As previously mentioned Mr. Pavlow intends to litigate this matter, and the retraction does not relieve you from any possible punitive damages, as there are no reasonable grounds for believing that your statements are true. Mr. Pavlow may consider a retraction to be a positive step toward any possible discussion of an amicable resolution to this matter.

If you or your counsel would like to discuss this matter prior to the initiation of litigation, please feel free to contact me within 5 (five) days from receiving this letter.

Sincerely,

/s/ Justin R. Infurna

Gene Knight Hey Dan just a word of advise, clients don't appreciate a contractor who feels the need to call out another contractor with some BS on a public forum to try to make themselves look better. That says a lot about your character as a businessman.
